

News Items from Arleta-- Kern Park Neighborhood

William H. Amos and son William have returned from a week's vacation.

Mrs. Frish, of Toledo, is visiting at the Cauthorn home, 4816 Sixty-fourth street S. E.

Miss Marian Usher is the guest of little friends at Gladstone park during the chautauqua.

Alton Conner, the meat man in the Crum & Chambers building, has moved his family into the apartments up stairs.

Mrs. Carrie Warntz and daughter from Colorado are visiting at the home of their cousin, Miss Myrtle Brock, of Nashville station.

Miss Mary Brown, of Seattle, gave a very interesting address at the afternoon session of the W. C. T. U. at chautauqua last Thursday.

Mrs. Mary L. Mallett, of the W. C. T. U., gave one of her most interesting talks on "Child Welfare" at the chautauqua last Thursday.

A merry party of picnickers from the Gilbert home, at Firland station, left last Saturday for the highway to spend the night and all day Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Sanders have moved from the house at Seventy-second street and Sixty-fourth avenue to Sixty-second avenue and Ninetieth street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Zerung and family are camping at Gladstone park during the chautauqua season. They report a very enjoyable and beneficial program during the past week.

The South Mt. Tabor Community club held an ice cream social at the Joseph Kellogg school Friday evening, at which a fair attendance is reported, considering warm weather and summer vacation time.

Mrs. Frances Swope, state president of the W. C. T. U., gave an address on "Americanization" during the forum hour on Friday at chautauqua. Everybody was greatly inspired and benefited by her talk.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Coons, of 4842 East Sixty-fourth street S. E., are at home after several weeks spent in visiting their son, Otis Coons, who is connected with the bank at St. Johns, Wash.

Mrs. W. J. Hollingworth, familiarly known to residents of the Mt. Scott district as Grandma Hollingworth, is very seriously ill at her home, 5627 Seventy-second street S. E., and no hope is held for her recovery. All her children are at the bedside.

L. C. Thacker is building a nice new five-room bungalow at 7804 Sixty-second avenue.

Albert Hansen, of Seventy-second street and Forty-sixth avenue, has purchased a new Liberty six.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Gardner, 7626 Sixty-second avenue, have returned from LaCenter, Wash., where they enjoyed a visit with Mr. Gardner's brother.

Mr. Chambless, assistant postmaster at Arleta, arrived home Thursday evening after several weeks' absence visiting relatives in Oklahoma and Alabama. Mr. Chambless is much improved in health as a result of his trip and rest.

The Millard Avenue Presbyterian church held their community sing in Mt. Scott park Sunday evening. It is understood that during the remainder of the summer the song services will be held in the park instead of in the church.

Mrs. G. J. Cole and daughters, Mrs. D. L. Hiatt and Mrs. T. M. Hunsaker, returned Friday from a two-weeks' outing at Twin Rocks beach, in the Tillamook district. They report a most enjoyable outing and say the beach at Twin Rocks is one of the finest they have seen.

Friends of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Strain, of Montavilla, will be grieved to learn that they buried their little son Jack Saturday, July 5. He died from appendicitis. Little Jack was only eight years of age, and leaves besides his parents a little sister, Lucille, and two brothers, Harry and baby Bob.

Mrs. C. P. Roberts, formerly Miss Blanche Jefferies, and baby, Rosemond Jennie, of Lowry, Mont., are visiting with Mrs. Robert's aunt, Mrs. Sarah Cauthorn, and family. Mrs. Roberts was for three years teacher of domestic arts at Milwaukie, and her many friends and acquaintances are glad to welcome her again.

Miss Coffey, supervisor of the Mt. Scott park playgrounds, and Mrs. Ormandy chaperoned a crowd of girls to the swimming tank in Sellwood park Tuesday. They had a good swim and a jolly time in general. Last week they took them to Peninsula park. It is to be hoped that Mt. Scott park will have a swimming tank of its own in the near future.

The following persons from our community spent Sunday at chautauqua in order to hear former Secretary of State W. J. Bryan: Mr. and Mrs. Elton Shaw and family; Everett White, of Millard avenue; Mrs. Henry Haugner and daughter, Violet; the Misses Edna and Mary Hines and their mother; Mrs. Ada Jolley and mother; Mr. and Mrs. George Lewelyn and family; Mr. and Mrs. Neil Hanson and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Usher and family; Mr. and Mrs. W. Graves; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Zehrung.

Claude Scott, proprietor of the Tremont barber shop, accompanied by Mrs. Scott, left Saturday on an extended auto trip, going first to southern California to visit Mrs. Scott's brother. They will then return through the states of Nevada, Utah and Wyoming to Yellowstone National park, thence home to Portland.

KERN PARK CHRISTIAN CHURCH
Sunday morning the pastor, Dr. R. A. Moon, will talk on the "Unfinished Task of the Disciples of Christ." He will also give a report of the state convention of the Christian church which he attended at Turner recently. Sunday school will be at the usual hour, 9:45, with Superintendent Purviance in charge. Young people's meeting at 7. The evening sermon hour will be given over to Bible study.

W. C. T. U.

Again Lents was favored by the presence of one of the state officers, Mrs. Mattie M. Sleeth, president of the Oregon W. C. T. U., speaking in the Evangelical church last Sunday night. Mrs. Sleeth is an able speaker and held her audience with unabated interest to the end. The world-wide interests of the W. C. T. U. and especially the immediate work of the organization during this reconstruction period at home calls for support from every loyal patriot. The appeal for funds brought a response of $32.25 which was turned over to the treasurer, Mrs. Ella Fankhauser, to be applied on the campaign fund which the local union is raising. Mrs. Sleeth carried home with her a fragrant bouquet of sweet peas.

The Portland chamber of commerce recently declined a request from the San Francisco chamber of commerce to adopt resolutions commending the president for his action in recommending revocation of war-time prohibition on beer and wines.

The American Train Dispatchers' association at its second annual national convention held recently at Chicago endorsed national prohibition. Total abstinence has been for many years one of the requirements for membership in the association.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH

The regular services will be held next Sunday at 11 a. m. The subject of the morning sermon will be "Hinderance to Prayer-Answer." In the evening at 8 o'clock the pastor will speak on the subject of "Evangelism."

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. H. R. Scheuerman, superintendent. Mission Band 6 p. m., Mrs. E. M. Scheuerman, president. Young People's Alliance 7 p. m., Mrs. Wm. Anderson, president.

A cordial invitation to all.

FRIENDS CHURCH

Church services at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. on Sundays. Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. with the other churches in the Evangelical church this week. The union prayermeeting was held in the Friends church last Thursday with Rev. Shupp as leader. The attendance was good and everybody seemed to enjoy the meeting. Let us all rally to these union prayer meetings.

The pastor gave her masterpiece, "The Divine Christ," for her theme last Sunday morning to a good congregation. Next Sunday morning the subject will be "The Atonement." The people are showing their interest in this series of doctrinal sermons by their testimonies and words of appreciation as well as by the increased attendance, last Sunday being the climax.

Next Sunday evening J. Sanger Fox will give his farewell message to the people. All friends and acquaintances are invited to be present. The services will be in the nature of a farewell from the church to the Fox family as well as to hear the above message, as they leave us soon to take up pastoral work in Quilcene, Wash.
