FARMER'S FIELD DAY AT GRESHAM JULY 26

The farmers fifth annual field meet will be held at Gresham Saturday under the direction of Multnomah county Pomona Grange. Committees from various granges throughout the county hre working to make this meet a greater success than any of the former events. Although called the farmers' field meet it is not to be understood that it is solely for the farmers and grangers. Everybody is invited to attend.

A good old-fashioned picnic lunch will be the noon hour attraction. Following this will be featured Grange fitunts. No prizes will be awarded for this feature of the program. The decision as to which Grange deserves credit for the best stunt will be left to the crowd. The Grange chorus will be led by Miss Kate Bratzel and the community sing in the afternoon will be conducted by M. E. Quigley.

The concessions are in charge of William Styless, who furnished refreshments and amusements at the Gresham Fourth of July celebration. Following is the varied and interesting program arranged for the day: Musical and Literary Program 10:30 Grange chorus, led by Miss Kate Bratzel.

Song. "America," audience, assisted by Wilbur orchestra.

"Pienie Song," Grange chorus. Address of welcome, Mrs. Edyth

Tozier Weathered. Cornet solo, Thomas Quirk. Annual address, Judge Henry E.

McGinn. Song. "The Dear Old Farm,"

Grange chorus. Dinner hour-basket dinner

Music in afternoon will be led by M. E. Quigley.

"Star Spangled Banner," audience Music by the Civic Marine Works chorus, popularly known as the shipworkers' chorus.

Community chorus, old familiar ballads.

Song, "Verdant Grove, Farewell," Grange chorus.

Grange Stunts 2:30

These exercises will be interspersed with songs by a community chorus At the time of going to press the program of sports could not be secured. Prominent speakers will be present from Portland.

MEMBERS OF METHODIST

CHURCH ENJOY OUTING

Members of the Lents Methodist church and their friends enjoyed a weiner roast last Friday evening at Johnson creek, near Kendall station. A very enjoyable time was had. Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Albert King, Mr. and Mrs. Ransler J. Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bleything, Rev. L. Jones, O. A. Weeks, Mr. Snyder, Edwin Norene, RUSTS GIVEN SURPRISE PARTY Lewis Wilkinson, Alta Landon, Grace Jasper, Emma Wilbanks, Marie and Adeline Rathkey, Rozella and Corene Wilkinson and Henry Dupertuis, father of Mrs. F. N. Jasper.

REV. JASPER PAYS THREE-DAY VISIT TO FAMILY HERE

Rev. F. N. Jasper, formerly pastor of the Lents Methodist church but who has been engaged in Y. M. C. A. work with troop trains for several months past, took advantage of a trip to San Francisco with a troop train to run up to Portland for a three-days' visit with his family recently. Mr. Jasper's headquarters are at Newport News and his work is largely in the south where it is extremely hot at this time of the year. During his visit here Mrs. Jasper also entertained three sisters from out of town, the first occasion upon which the four sisters had all been together for seven years.

Eureka Rebekah Lodge No. 178 met in Odd Fellows hall last Friday evening for the purpose of installing officers, but owing to the failure of the deputy who was to have charge of the work failing to appear the evening was given over to regular business, after which refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served. A number of visitors from Sandy lodge were present and extended an invitation to the local lodge of last week, July 17, Rev. N. Shupp to visit them last night, which was officiating. Both Mr. and Mrs. Buaccepted by a number of Rebekahs chanan are well known in Lents and from Lents.

SQUARE IN NEW YORK NAMED FOR PERSHING

"Pershing square," New York city, so renamed in honor of our commander in France. The square faces the Grand Central terminal. The photograph shows the new runway into the terminal, which is now nearing completion.

LENTS PLAYGROUND POPULAR WITH KIDDIES ON WARM DAYS

The Lents playground is as popular is ever this year, judging from the number of youngsters who seem to take much delight in playing in the and piles, wading in the pond and other forms of amusement provided there. The wading pond is about a foot and a half deep in the centerjust right for the "kiddies."

The average daily attendance at the park is from 90 to 110 hoys and from 80 to 95 girls. Edward Hanna is director for the boys and Miss T. M. Gary for the girls. Miss Frances McGill substitutes occasionally for Miss Gary. The park is open from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. On August 9 there will be a field meet at Peninsula park in the afternoon at 2;30. There will be all kinds of games and athletic sports. High points will be awarded to the park winning the most contests and also to the indiiduals participating.

NUMBER OF PROPERTIES CHANGED HANDS RECENTLY

C. E. Kennedy reports the following real estate deals of recent date: To Albert M. Woods he sold a house at 6402 Eighty-ninth street previously owned by H. M. Chaffee.

Peter P. Bernhardt purchased the five-room modern house on Ninetieth street, between Sixty-third and Sixtyfifth avenues.

Mrs. Mary Gething has bought an ere tract on Seventy-first avenue, near Ninetieth street.

ON WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Dan M. Rust, 9220 Fifty-third avenue, were the objects of a surprise party recently, the occasion being their wedding anniversary. While they were out in the country in the evening the self-invited guests took possession of their home, greatly surprising the rightful owners on their return. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Reed and daughters, Ruth and Louise; Mrs. Rose Hubler, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Essig, Mr. and Mrs. William Mead, Mrs. J. T. Berry and Miss Alice Berry, Miss Nora Reed, William Hubler and Mr. and Mrs. George Reed.

EVANGELICAL Y. P. A. TO PICNIC ON JOHNSON CREEK

The Young People's Alliance of the Evangelical church will give a picnic Saturday evening on Johnson creek. All young people, and older ones as well, are urged to go and enjoy the evening with these young people. The Junior Y. P. A. is also invited. Bring tives. your lunch and meet at the Lents waiting room at 7 p. m.

POPULAR YOUNG PEOPLE

ARE UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Miss Velma Sager and Elmer C. Buchanan were united in marriage at the Evangelical parsonage Thursday expect to make this their home.

SMALLEST "TAX!" IN THE WORLD

This diminutive "taxi" and its charming driver were the center of attraction at a recent theatrical party at the botanical gardens in London. Pretty little Miss Gertie Millar and her miniature hansom cab drawn by a beautiful cattle ranch. Shetland pony were forced to refuse scores of prospective "fares" as they drove around the gardens,

BRIEF ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

W. W. Wakefield has sold his prop- [Lawrence, Woodworth, Tussey, Pow-Mrs. E. A. Droste and little daughter are visiting "Daddy" Droste at Baker this week.

Mrs. E. Cox, 9232 Fifty-eighth avenue, is confined to her home with an attack of the quinsy. Mrs. G. A. Tobey, of Eugene, visiting this week with the families of Dr. A. G. Atwood and Dr. C. H. Mrs. Marvin Hedge returned from the hospital the last of the week and is convalescing nicely from her recent operation. Jesse Rowiey of Eighty-ninth street and Sixty-seventh avenue went to eastern Oregon last week to work in the harvest fields. Mrs. A. Boland and little daughter Dorothy have returned after a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Webb, of Kalama, Wash. Mrs. W. H. Rusk, of 6710 Ninety-second street, has been suffering with tonsilitis the past week but is re-Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kelly of Eighty-eighth street, returned home last week from their trip to American Lake. The trip was made by auto. Mrs. C. H. Atwood and daughter Margaret, of 8104 Fifty-ninth street, returned last Friday from Eugene, where they had been visiting rela-Tom McSloy and family, Mrs. T. Bright, Mrs. Jesson and Lester Mol motored to Government Camp last Sunday and made a fine catch of Fay Rayburn left Sunday evening for Boise, Idaho, where he has ac-cepted a position with the Davidson Wholesale Grocers.

Axel Kildahl has sold three Dort automobiles recently, the last one being sold this week to the Fankhauser brothers south of Lents.

Comrades Walrod, Clark and Tussey, and Mesdames Elwood, Finley, erty about a mile east of town to Joe ers, Schimerhorn and Maffett, Ladies of the G. A. R., attended the chautaugua on G. A. R. day.

Mrs. Bird B. Clark, formerly a teacher in the Lents school, now principal of Birkenfeld school in Columbia county, is visiting Mrs. O. E. Lent and family.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Riley and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Looney have returned from Boardman, Ore., where they were living on a homestead. They are stopping for a time with their son at

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Williams, formerly of Lents, have just returned to Portland after an extensive trip during which they toured through the Yellowstone National Park. Some of 'the Lents people attend-ng the chautauqua at Gladstone last Sunday were Alta Landon, Edwin Norene, Rozella Wilkinson, O. A. Weeks and Corone Wilkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bohl and little child, formerly residents of Medford, have moved into the Morris place on Fifty- being treated to a coat of paint. sixth avenue and Eighty-eighth street which they purchased recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stuttle have purchased a home near Tremont and will begin housekeeping the first of the month. Mrs. Stuttie will be renembered as Miss Hazel Johnson.

The Spinney brothers, of Raymond, Wash., who motored down a couple of weeks ago to visit their parents at Eighty-ninth street and Fifty-sixth evenue, and their grandmother, Mr. C. C. Smith, returned home Sunday.

Mrs. Mamie E. Hogue and daughter Helen left Saturday for a couple of weeks visit with her sister in Falls of weeks visit with her sister in Falls ily lived for several years on Buckley City. She stopped over Sunday at avenue, and his many friends wish Hillsboro to visit a friend, Mrs. Geo. him well in his new location. Allen.

Miss Helen Vail returned home from St. Vincent's hospital Tuesday evening, and her many friends will be glad to learn that she is recovering very rapidly from her recent

MARVIN HEDGE TO COMPETE IN NORTHWESTERN MEET

Won Event in Multnomah Anglers' Club Contest at Sellwood Park Wednesday Evening.

The anglers' clubs of the northvest will hold their annual contest a Sellwood park August 9 and 10, at which anglers from British Columbia o California will participate. Handsome prizes will be awarded the winners of the various events. So far as ould be ascertained Marvin Hedge the only fan from Lents who will enter the contest.

Concerning the event the Telegram of Wednesday evening says: "Local ime for the northwest championship to be held here early next month. Several dark horses are to be entered n the big meet, and Marvin Hedges. newcomer, has been setting some high marks recently. Another local man who is slated to figure prominently this year is Jack Herman, who has been right on the heels of the leading casters all season."

At the regular weekly casting tournament of the Multnomah Anglers club held Wednesday evening at the Selfwood pool Mr. Hedge won one of the three, events, the five-eighths ounce distance bait cast, his record east being a distance of 193 feet.

LITTLE SON OF MR. AND MRS. ROHLFING DIED ON TUESDAY

Peperell Paul Rohlfing, the eight ear-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rohlfing, living about a mile east of Lents on the Gilbert road, died Tuesday morning at 10:30. The little and about a week ago he became day. Deceased was born at Everett, Wash,, and came to Portland from Marshfield with his parents last fall. Funeral services were held at the home Thursday morning, the remains being shipped to Everett for burial,

GEORGE WHITFIELD WARNER PASSED TO REWARD JULY 20

George Whitfield Warner was born MRS. SANDERS ATTENDING M. Parmele in 1861, and soon after farms in Blackhawk and Grundy counties in that state. In 1880 he removed to Frontier county, Nebraska, where for many years he had a Compelled by failing health to abandon active life, he came to Portland in 1910, and settled in Brentwood, where he died at his home at Matthews and McCoy streets, July 20,

He was an active member of the Methodist church. Funeral services were held at Kenworthy's undertaking parlors Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. Interment was in Damascus cemetery.

Rev. Smith of the Baptist church was called to Highland, Clackamas county. Wednesday to preach the funeral of Mrs. Augusta Rutherford. Mrs. Rutherford was the widow of a former classmate of Rev. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Krebs and Miss Evelyn Hogue spent Sunday in Hillsboro as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Allen. Miss Evelyn is staying with her sister, Mrs. Krebs, while Mrs. Hogue is out of town.

Chas. Warde, of 5704 Ninety-second street has been making extensive alterations and improvements to his house and has just finished laying hardwood floors in dining room and living room. The exterior is now

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Geisler and children and Miss Ruth Reynolds left early Tuesday morning on a camping trip to Seaside and way points. They expect to camp two or three days in the mountains on the way to the coast and will be gone till the first of August.

Geo. F. A. Walker, well known to many readers of the Herald; is now ocated in the Columbia building, being associated with the De Keyser Optical Institute. Dr. Walker and fam-

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Kennett, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. H. A. Darnall, of 5309 Ninety-

EVANGELICAL CHURCH TO HOLD CAMPMEETING

The annual campmeeting and conention of the Evangelical church will be held at the Riverview campground, near Jennings Lodge, Oregon City car line, July 29 to August 7. An extensive program has been arranged for the occasion. Each day will be crowded with good things for soul and body.

Some of the special features are evangelistic sermon and service each afternoon and evening, July 29 to August 5. The conference was especially fortunate in securing the services of the evangelist, L. M. Nanninga, and his singer, George D. Reep, of Kansas City, who come with the best of recommendations as successful evangelists. Both are accomplished saxophone players, which instruments are used during the meetings. Good music may be expected.

The summer bible school will hold ts session each morning from 9 to 11:30. The book of Ephesians will be taken up as a study. All ministers of the Oregon conference will be in attendance. This school of bible study will be of special benefit to all lay members.

The Sunday School League comes in for its session Tuesday and Wednesday forenoons, August 5 and 6. This part of the convention is under the leadership of Rev. A. C. Matzke of Seattle. General live topics will be discussed at each session and one hour of each session will be devoted to departmental work.

Wednesday afternoon and Thursday, August 6 and 7, will be occupled by the Young People's Alliance. A full program is arranged. On Thursday afternoon Dr. J. H. Staub of the Sunnyside Congregational church will deliver an address.

Good board may be had by the meal or week at reasonable rates Tents, bed springs and straw may be had on the ground by campers.

Members of the Lents church are urged to attend his feast of good things. N oservices at the Evangelical church August 3.

ASSEMBLY OF EASTERN STAR

Mrs. W. S. Sanders left Wednesday morning to attend the sixteenth triennial assembly of the general grand chapter, Order of Eastern Star, which is being held this week in Seattle. Mrs. Sanders was accompanied by her daughter Elizabeth, who will visit cousins while in Seattle. They will also go to Bremerton to visit Mrs. Sanders' brother, Mr. Lord, before returning home.

ANNUAL G. A. R. PICNIC AT THE OAKS ON AUGUST 2

Members of Reuben Wilson Post and Ladies of the G. A. R. will leave ents station at 9:30 a. m. on August en route for the Oaks to attend the annual G. A. R. picnic. An invitation is extended to all friends of the order. Ladies will please bear in mind to bring well-filled lunch baskets.

LENTS PEOPLE ATTEND A RECEPTION FOR SOLDIER

Mrs. Alice Woodworth, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Woodworth and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bleything attended a reception recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Moore on East Twenty-seventh street North in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rider, Mr. Rider having recently received his honorable discharge from the service. Mrs. Rider and Mrs. Moore will be remembered as the Misses Ruby and Gladys Woodworth, formerly

Old Landmark Being Razed

George Peterson, of 1934 Foster road, who owns the old building on Ninety-first street between Foster road and the car line, is having it torn down. He will use some of the lumber to build a house on One Hundred and Fourth street, near Gilbert road. The old structure was formerly occupied by Duke's meat market.

Refund Received on Paving

The property owners who put up the money for the paving of Ninetysecond street have been refunded a second street, for several months, re-furned to their home at Topeka, Kan., last week. They made many friends while visiting here who will regret to learn that they have decided not to make Lents their home.