Thieves gained entrance into the meat market owned by George Kilcoyn at Firkland last Friday evening by breaking the Yale lock. A few pennies and some steak were all that was taken. The market was broken into in the same manner some time ago.

PAVING OF 72ND ST. TO BE STARTED SOON

Concrete paving has been determined upon by the city council for Seventy-second street S. E. and the bid of Cochran Bros. approved, and as the 30-day period for the filing of remonstrances expires the contract will be formally awarded that firm.

The section of Seventy-second street to be improved is from the north line of Sixty-first avenue S. E. to the south line of Foster road. The central 25 feet of the roadway will be paved with concrete pavement, except that portion occupied by the Portland Railway, Light & Power company as a right of way, which shall be improved by laying rails of a weight and pattern approved by the council; by laying a six-inch concrete foundation with a two-inch layer of ballast of approved material under the ties; by laying a concrete base between the ties; by paving the space between the rails and a foot outside of each rail with concrete pavement, and by paving the remaining portion of said right of way with pavement the same as selected for the roadway which is to be paved.

SURPRISE SHOWER GIVEN MRS. MILLER ON THURSDAY

A surprise miscellaneous shower was given last Wednesday evening by Miss Moretta Howard of 5629 Thirty-seventh avenue in honor of Mrs. Earl Miller, who resides near Clarks station. Mrs. Miller was formerly Stella Sullivan, a U. of O. student. Mr. Miller has just returned from overseas service. Those invited were Beatrice Crewdson, Enga Winter, Alva Bagley, Mabel Black, Ruth Susman, Leona Mourtin, Beulah Kaagy and Mrs. Harriett Brook. Mr. and Mrs. Miller intend to go to some college in the east this fall. Mrs. Miller is taking journalistic work.

The family of O. Vasses, Eighty-first street and Sixty-sixth avenue, have been quarantined for several days on account of a smallpox scare. They hope to be released soon.
