Mrs. Handsaker to Entertain

The Laurelwood Congregational church is reorganizing after the summer vacation, the first on its list of Sunday school activities being the formal promotion from the primary department, which will soon occur. Other plans include the high school course of Bible study to be given in the Sunday school by a local teacher, the students to be examined and accredited by persons appointed by the state superintendent of public instruction. This evening Mrs. J. J. Handsaker will entertain at her residence, 6939 Forty-fifth avenue S. E., all the young people of the church at a get-together sing. A delightful musical and social time is promised under the direction of Mrs. Handsaker and Mrs. Meta Snider.

Cantata to be Given

Last Sunday at the Kern Park Christian church, the sermon morning and evening was preached by J. M. Potter, a student from the divinity school at Eugene. Next Sunday the services will be in charge of Harry Hall, an elder in the church. The last Sunday in September will be observed as rally day by the Sunday school of this church, the committee on program being Mesdames Nettie Fishburn, M. Frances Swope, and Griff King. The subject of the rally day cantata will be "God's Garden," a group of thoughts intended to catch the attention of little folk particularly.

Loyal Workers Meet Sept. 25

The Loyal Workers of the Kern Park Christian church, of which Mrs. Griff King is president, will meet on the fourth Thursday in September. Today, Friday, the ladies of this church are attending the Portland-Vancouver and vicinity federation of Christian Women's Missions, at the Good Samaritan hospital. Miss Scheider is at present holding her own against the disease.

Miss Jeannette Dahlberg, of Seattle, returned home after spending a week with Mrs. I. M. Hunsaker, 6904 Sixty-second avenue S. E. Miss Dahlberg was formerly a pupil in the Woodmere school, and was well known there for her pen and ink sketches.

Clarence Freeman, who has been in the service for the past year, returned to Portland last Saturday evening. He will make his home, as formerly, at 5140 Sixty-sixth street S. E. Mr. Freeman spent several months in France with a hospital corps. On his return he visited with his people in Indiana for a time before returning to the coast to engage in business and to continue his vocal work with Prof. Hollingworth, of the Arleta Studio.

Mrs. Sarah Cauthorn, of 4816 Sixty-fourth street S. E., returned Thursday of last week from a month's visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. Fred Buchanan, of Corvallis. On the first of this week she entertained her son-in-law, A. C. McIntyre, a rancher near Pendleton. Mr. McIntyre was formerly an attorney in this city, living in Arleta. He reports that the business of farming in his vicinity is booming, one farmer actually this year clearing up in the neighborhood of $80,000. Mr. McIntyre coupled the pleasure of seeing the presidential party with a biennial business trip to Portland.

which is being held at the East Side Christian church. The Kern Park ladies are honored in that the president of their Loyal Workers is also president of this federated board of missions.

Church Renovated

Wednesday evening, September 10, a number of energetic people met at the Millard Avenue Presbyterian church and busily maneuvered for a few hours. When they called time the windows had been cleaned, the main floor swept and also mopped, and the carpets on the platforms electrically dusted. A new floor had been given to the porch at the front and the loose boards in the sidewalk removed and new ones substituted. Those having a part in this undertaking were Mrs. F. E. Crum, the Misses Mary Hine, Elsie and Essie Strang, Myrtelle Brock and Gladys Crum, and Messrs. F. E. Crum, George Colvey and Chas. Tronson.

Boy Scout Rally

This evening, Friday, the Boy Scouts of the city are to have a mammoth rally in the auditorium of the Lincoln High. Scoutmaster E. Brockway will be in charge. Parents, day school teachers, ministers, friends, and all boys from eight to eighteen are urged to attend for enlightenment in scout affairs. There will be reels showing scout activities and pictures of Watum Lake. Mr. Brockway wishes every boy to bring his pennants and noise-making instruments and all the scout yells that he has ever learned. It is to be an evening of unparalleled scout enthusiasm.

Miss Bertha Fletcher, of 7015 Millard avenue, left today, Friday, for Oregon City where she is engaged as teacher in the grade schools. The Oregon City schools open September 22.

MRS. BLANCHARD LEAVES

Preached Farewell Sermon Last Sunday Night.

Last Sunday evening at the Fourth United Brethren church at Tremont Mrs. C. P. Blanchard preached her farewell sermon to a crowded house. In token of their appreciation of Mrs. Blanchard's two years of service the people of the church had decorated the interior profusely with greenery and flowers, to her surprise and great delight. On Monday evening at the concluding board meeting of the year, Mrs. Blanchard was again surprised by the beauty and profusion of the decorations. At the close of the meeting five Sunday school classes, who had stood the highest in point of church attendance, united with the members of the church and congregation in a social time, refreshments of ice cream being a leading feature. Mrs. Blanchard wishes to express her appreciation of the faithfulness of the young people of her church and especially does she commend the efficiency of the church treasurer, Alfred Frey. This church has raised during the past year $925, all accounted for. Special music was given both last Sunday and Monday evenings by the Guthrie brothers, Alfred, George and Quinten, and on Sunday evening Mr. Hillis also sang a solo.

Mrs. Blanchard left Thursday of this week for The Dalles where the annual United Brethren conference is being held. After the conference Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard will go to Maryhill, Wash., to visit Mr. Blanchard's brother.

The teachers of the Sunday school classes which won highest records in the church attendance contest are Mesdames Burdick, Garretson and Guthrie, and Messrs. Blanchard and Marston.

The services next Sunday morning and evening at this church will be in charge of the Rev. Mr. Clarke.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Leach, of Kern Park, returned Tuesday of last week from a five-days' trip in Cow Creek canyon. While there they together shot three buck deer, Mr. Leach as sharpshooter and head of the house claiming the honor of two, and Mrs. Leach modestly, but none the less proudly, that of one.

The registrations of Kellogg and Woodmere are still mounting, Kellogg now numbering 515 and Woodmere 651.

Bring Us the Hard Jobs

We have saved many automobile owners the trouble and expense of returning broken parts to the factory for repairs.

The fact that we are equipped to do welding on broken castings or can make new parts if necessary is a big asset to this community.

No matter what your trouble is, bring it in to us. Don't think that any job is too big for us. We have facilities that will surprise you. And our prices are exceptionally reasonable.

Give us a chance to figure on your smaller jobs, too—grinding valves, burning out carbon, etc. You will find us always able to please you.
