Recently a special meeting of the club was called to consider the question of walks on Fifty-sixth avenue, from the Japanese farm to Seventy-second street. The representatives for the improvement, Dr. Stout and Mr. Addition, agreed to hold up the petition for it until the question of the Mt. Scott park had been settled.

A delegation from the Woodmere P.T. A., consisting of the Mesdames George Stoner, Fred Peters, and A. Alexander, recommended that the sidewalk along Raeburn from the carline to the Woodmere school should be repaired.

BROTHER OF MRS. SHAW KILLED IN AN ACCIDENT

Mrs. Elton Shaw, 115 E. Fifty-third street, formerly of 4402 Seventy-ninth street, has been the recipient of bad news. Her brother, Mr. Ray Perkins, and family who live on a ranch near Salem, were motoring when something broke. Mr. Perkins stopped the machine, found the trouble was serious, and having placed Mrs. Perkins and the younger children on the electric for home, attempted, with his eldest son, to run the car. The engine became unmanageable, and rushing over an embankment instantly killed Mr. Perkins but leaving the boy unhurt. An added tragic touch was that Mrs. Perkins on account of acute illness could not attend the funeral of her husband.

R. J. Steffy, wife and mother, returned last Wednesday from a motor trip to Wallowa Lake, going by way of Mosier Hill, Pendleton, La Grande and Enterprise, and returning through Walla Walla, Kenewick and Lyle, Wash. They found some roads in good condition and some very bad on account of detours and chuck holes.
