John Porter, of 81st street and 66th avenue, who has been ill at his home is recovering.

Mrs. S. Reynolds, of Ponca, Neb., is visiting her son, George O. Reynolds, of 64th street and 49th avenue S. E.

The small son, Walter, of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Call, of 8117 66th avenue, has been very ill with an acute cold. He is convalescing satisfactorily.

Howard Crofts, 7106 57th avenue S. E., who has been confined to his home because of extreme illness, is much better and expects to be out in a few days.

Mrs. Peterson, with her two children, of St. Helens, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, of 8929 65th street S. E., returned home last Saturday.

Alfred Guthrie, who has been attending the United Brethren college at Philomath, is spending the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Guthrie, 3544 64th street S. E.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Peters, 8115 66th avenue, with their son Lyle and Mrs. R. E. Thomas, motored over to the stock show last week. As their time was limited their review was confined largely to the section given over to the splendid type of horse-flesh.

Thomas Hurd, of Newberg, visited his daughter, Mrs. James Jones, of 5262 68th street S. E. from Thursday of last week till last Sunday, when he left for his home. Mr. Hurd has just returned from a six-weeks' business trip which included a short stay in Honolulu, H. I.

John R. Leach, of the Kern Park Pharmacy, has placed copies of the petition in Lents and in all the Foster road business houses up to 52nd street. Those wishing to sign in Lents will find copies at the following places: Mt. Scott Drug Co., Lents Pharmacy, and the filling station at 84th street.

Richard Noble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Noble, of Arleta, and Miss Edna Popejoy were united in the bonds of matrimony at the residence of the Rev. J. Bowersox, 1172 Boston street. The happy couple will receive their friends for the time being at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Ruth Buchanan, who lives on a ranch about ten miles out of Corvallis, arrived in Portland Wednesday evening of this week to take Thanksgiving dinner with her cousin, Miss Gertrude McIntyre, at the home of the girls' grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Cauthorn, 4816 64th street S. E.

All citizens, whether taxpayers or not, who are interested in having Foster road paved are asked to sign, so that the county officials may know with certainty that the people as a whole are back of the group of men who have been pushing the improvement.

A petition is being circulated interest of the paving of Foster road from 82nd street on the east to 52nd street on the west. The county has been asked to pay for a strip 18 feet wide and it is to hurry up the action of the county commissioners that this petition is being circulated.

The condition of little Margaret Ormandy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ormandy, who live in apartments in the Crum & Raebuck building at Millard avenue, is virtually unchanged. She is at St. Vincent's and requires the constant attendance of her mother.

Two prominent ladies of Woodmere assisted in the program at Kellogg school last week. They were Mesdames H. T. Blakeslee and J. E. Edwards, the former a singer with a winsome voice and personality, and the latter an accompanist of unusual ability.

T. Jnuzka, of the Nippon Florists, 3715 63rd street S. E., with his wife and children, returned the first of the week from a visit to his mother, an octogenarian, of Tokyo, Japan. When Mother Jnuzka bade her son good-bye this time as he left for America she did so with the feeling that she would never see him again, for Mr. Jnuzka is a progressive Japanese who feels the call of the United States too strongly ever to think again of making his home in the land of the wistaria and the chrysanthemum.

Laurelwood Congregational

At the morning service next Sunday morning at the Laurelwood Congregational church the pastor, Mrs. J. J. Handsaker, will use for her subject "Stories of the Melting Pot." The regular meeting of the Intermediate Endeavor Society will be adjourned to the Kern Park Christian church where the Endeavorers of this church will unite with the other societies of the Mt. Scott district in a union meeting.

Dr. Matthews spoke last Sunday morning. At the close of the service a fellowship dinner was served in Lucky cottage. Following this Dr. Matthews conducted an informal round table, at which he gave inspirational and practical ideas to the Sunday school workers.

Last Friday evening the Intermediate society won the banner for the highest per cent of attendance at an Endeavor rally at the First Presbyterian church. This is the third time that this society has won the attendance banner, and it will now retain the award permanently. Of this organization 100 per cent was present and there were three visitors in the party besides. The president of the society is Miss Pauline Pratten.

This evening, Friday, at this church there will be an experience social for the benefit of the repair fund. The members have been earning money in various ways and will tell their experiences this evening. You are cordially invited to attend.

The primary department of this Sunday school, under the direction of the primary superintendent, Mrs. T. W. Davis, filled a Thanksgiving basket this week for a needy family in this neighborhood.

City of Portland Receives SIX GARY TRUCKS For Fire Bureau

GARY TRUCKS PURCHASED BY THE CITY OF PORTLAND FOR THE FIRE BUREAU

Factory Guarantee
One
Full Year

The passing of the horse proves the economy of operating by trucks; twelve horses to be disposed of by the City of Portland for the twentieth century fire equipment. The fire fighting apparatus will be installed at the Municipal Shop of the City of Portland.

The city held competitive tests for trucks that would be best suited for strength and hill climbing under loaded conditions and speed on the level and the GARY won. This was a decisive victory for GARY trucks for the competition was open and all dealers were invited to compete.

The GARY "Ten Point Test" truck is composed of standard units—Buda Motor, Brown-Lipe Transmission, Tuthill Titanic branded springs, Parrish and Bingham cold pressed steel frame.
