

News Items from Arleta-- Kern Park Neighborhood

The Kern Park Christian church Endeavor will hold its regular meeting next Sunday evening at 6:30. The discussion of the topic, "Truths that Jesus Taught," will be led by Calvin Douglass.

Miss Kathryn Ball, who is a student at the University of Oregon, and who came to Portland the day before Thanksgiving to spend the vacation with her parents, Prof. and Mrs. S. F. Ball, of 4736 74th street S. E., returned to Eugene the first of the week.

At the Fourth United Brethren parsonage, 6713 Powell Valley road, on Friday, November 26, at 11 o'clock, the marriage of George Wilehart and Mrs. C. Josephine Cary was solemnized in the presence of a few relatives, Mrs. C. P. Blanchard officiating. The wedding party came from The Dalles to Portland for the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Hall, 4507 73rd street S. E., entertained at Thanksgiving dinner Prof. S. F. Ball and family, of 4736 74th street S. E. Those who shared in the holiday feast were Prof. and Mrs. Ball, the Misses Kathryn and Elizabeth Ball, Everett Ball, and Mr. and Mrs. Hall.

J. J. Handsaker, of 6935 45th avenue S. E., returned last Monday from a trip to Denver and points in eastern Oregon in behalf of the Armenian relief work, of which he is regional superintendent. Mr. Handsaker was on the train following the one which was robbed by an escaped convict in Wyoming. He reports a good conference, a good trip, and plenty of excitement.

The union Thanksgiving service of the Arleta district was held at the Laurelwood Congregational church. The program was carried out as follows: Voluntary, Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar; doxology led by Mrs. Meta Snider, congregation; invocation, Rev. W. Lee Gray; hymn, "We Plow the Fields"; scripture, Rev. W. L. Wilson; prayer, Rev. Mixsell; special music, Fourth U. B. choir; reading of Thanksgiving proclamation, Mrs. C. P. Blanchard; appeal for offering for poor, Mrs. S. J. Merry, of Arleta W. C. T. U.; vocal solo, Mrs. J. McMillen Muir; sermon, Rev. J. F. Ghormley; song, "America," congregation; benediction, Rev. Ghormley.

The Fourth United Brethren church has been holding a bazaar in the Crum & Raebuck building, Millard avenue and 72nd street S. E., during this week. Today, Friday, will be the closing day. Lunch and dinner will be served from 11 o'clock to 7:30. The bazaar includes useful and fancy articles, and the ladies will greatly appreciate patronage. This bazaar is usually held in a Tremont building but as there was no vacant room there this season the ladies secured a place in the Crum block.

The Kern Park Christian church will hold a bazaar in the church parlors all day today, Friday, and during this evening. Lunch will be served at 12 and a good dinner at 6 o'clock. The committees appointed by Mrs. Griff King, president of the Loyal Workers, are as follows: Decorating committee, Mrs. Minnie Arp; fancy work, Mrs. C. L. Douglass; apron booth, Mrs. W. A. Tisdale; reception, Mrs. A. J. Arnett; luncheon, Mrs. H. Clem; domestic science, Mrs. S. F. Ball.

Millard Avenue Presbyterian
At the morning service the pastor will speak on "The Beyond." At 7:30 he will use for his subject, "Jehu, the Swift." Sunday evening will be neighborhood night. After the service there will be a little surprise and get-together meeting in the basement parlor. All friends and neighbors — which means everyone in the community — are invited.

The union C. E. meeting held last Sunday evening at the Kern Park Christian church was very successful. Nearly every society in the district was represented. Several of the officers of the Union, including Mr. Robinson, were present and assisted with the meeting. The hour from 5 till 6 was spent in the form of a conference in which representatives of the various committees met in groups and discussed their plans and problems. Following this conference was the regular Endeavor meeting, led by Mr. Conrad Dixon. Everyone left the meeting filled with new ideas which will make their own societies bigger and better.

Miss Anna Beckelhymer and her brother Clyde, of the Crum & Raebuck apartments, were hostess and host to a group of relatives and friends Thanksgiving day. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jess Beckelhymer, with their children Frankie and Sylva, of Newberg; Mr. and Mrs. Will Heisenbuttle and sons, Willy and Oscar, of Portland; the Misses Freda Long and Mamie Garr, and Roy Long.

Little Margaret Ormandy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ormandy of Millard avenue, is critically ill at St. Vincent's hospital. She was operated on for mastoid infection three weeks ago. She is a patient sufferer and is trying to get well. If the mothers of boys who ride wheels to school could see and know the pain she endures they would see to it that their boys did not ride on the school grounds. Margaret was run down by a boy on a bicycle at the Arleta school. She fell on her head, and this is the result. And the end is not yet.

Laurelwood Congregational
At the Laurelwood Congregational church the Rev. Arthur J. Sullens, D.D., superintendent of Oregon home missions, will speak at 11 o'clock. All members are urged to be present as Dr. Sullens will have a message particularly pertinent to the

"every member canvas" which will be conducted next Sunday afternoon. The canvas is to secure subscriptions from the members for the annual budget, which includes local expenses and missionary pledges.

The experience social held at the Laurelwood Congregational church Friday evening, November 28, was profitable in more than one way in spite of the inclemency of the weather. Between $20 and $25 were accounted for by the industrious workers. The class which had raised the largest sum was that of Miss Maud Snider and the individual who gave the largest sum was Miss Maud Snider. The scheme of the contest was proposed and encouraged by Miss Snider and it is greatly to her credit that she received both the class and the individual prize.

The household of W. Forbes, at 4418 76th street S. E., dined at 6 o'clock on Thanksgiving with Miss Mary L. Campbell, Mrs. McLouey's cousin, as invited guest. Those who assembled around the well-laden table were Mesdames G. Stanbury, Jean Forbes, McLouey; Messrs. W. and Herbert Forbes, and the Misses Lillian and Edith Forbes.

Richard S. Stoner, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Stoner, of 7411 59th avenue S. E., has been transferred from the Pittsburg to a destroyer, the J. Fred Talbot. The fleet to which Mr. Stoner belongs is still in the Adriatic sea.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Price, of 5627 72nd street S. E., went to Scappoose Wednesday of last week, to be Thanksgiving day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Campbell. They returned Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Armstrong entertained on Thanksgiving day at their home at 7013 52nd avenue S. E. Those who sat down to the delightful dinner at two o'clock were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Zumwalt, Mr. and Mrs. Mary C. Wells, Miss Phyllis Bowles, John R. Bond, Edwin Zumwalt, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Armstrong and their two children, Elaine and Buddy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Leabo, of 7537 45th avenue S. E., entertained at a two-o'clock dinner on Thanksgiving day, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Snider and Kathryn Snider.

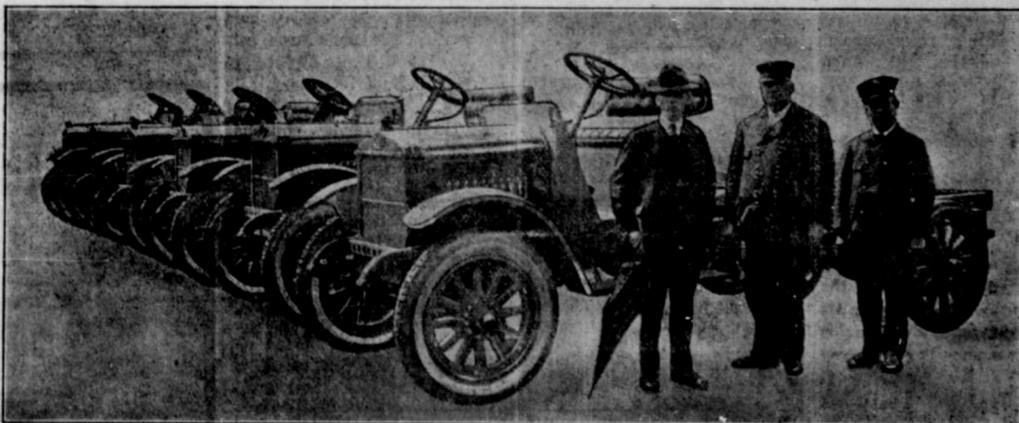

Come In

and see us the next time you are in need of Good Printing. We are specialist in the kind of work that pleases.

◆◆◆◆
A TRIAL IS ALL WE ASK

◆◆◆◆
Mt. Scott Herald
Phone: Tabor 7824

City of Portland Receives SIX GARY TRUCKS For Fire Bureau

GARY TRUCKS PURCHASED BY THE CITY OF PORTLAND FOR THE FIRE BUREAU

Factory Guarantee
One Full Year

The passing of the horse proves the economy of operating by trucks; twelve horses to be disposed of by the City of Portland for the twentieth century fire equipment. The fire fighting apparatus will be installed at the Municipal Shop of the City of Portland.

The city held competitive tests for trucks that would be best suited for strength and hill climbing under loaded conditions and speed on the level and the GARY won. This was a decisive victory for GARY trucks for the competition was open and all dealers were invited to compete.

The GARY "Ten Point Test" truck is composed of standard units—Buda Motor, Brown-Lipe Transmission, Tuthill Titanic branded springs, Parrish and Bingham cold pressed steel frame.

Gary Coast Agency

Phone Broadway 2162

Seventy-one Broadway

PORTLAND, OREGON

Give your Battery a Chance to get its "Second Wind"

RIGHT now, after the hard service through the summer. If you know what hot weather and long night drives take out of a battery, you can appreciate the need of a "tuning-up" for the fall season with its early dusks and sharp mornings. Our goes a long way toward "keeping a good battery good." Take advantage of it now. If minor repairs are needed, let us save you money by making them now. We do careful, conscientious work, using Gould parts including the famous Dreadnaught Plates.

Battery Inspection

We think the Gould Battery is the best in the world. Next time you need a new battery, let us tell you why.

LENTS GARAGE

AXEL KILDAHL, Proprietor

Tabor 3429 8919 Foster Road

WE SELL THE BATTERY WITH THE DREADNAUGHT PLATES