

We hope each and every reader of the Herald made a resolution yesterday to send in news items instead of waiting to be "pumped." We can't get the news out of the air. Some people act as though they think we are trying to pry into their private affairs when we ask them for items, and yet they make uncomplimentary remarks if we miss something they think should appear.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis J. Trapp, 5829 84th street, December 26, a boy.

A baby girl was born December 30 to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Marshall, of 89th street and 53rd avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William Conner have moved into apartments over the Lents millinery store on 92nd street.

Mr. and Mrs. James Leary, of 10107 55th avenue, are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby daughter, born December 29.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Worden, and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Stavosky were entertained at the home of O. S. Worden on New Year's day.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren McWilliams and two children, of Alpine, are spending the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Geisler.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sanders, 7864 65th avenue, left the first of the week for Wallace, Idaho where Mr. Sanders has business interests.

C. J. Larson, of 82nd street and 62nd avenue, who recently sold his store and residence, will leave soon for Molalla where he owns a ranch.

Last Monday, December 29, the birthday of J. J. Handsaker, 6935 45th avenue S. E. was celebrated at a quiet family evening dinner party.

Mr. and Mrs. George Goetz, of Wheeler, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Steinman and Mrs. Nora Reardon, of 6427 88th street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wakefield, 5920 97th street, and family were Christmas guests at the home of Mrs. Eugene Kuhlman, of Rose City Park.

J. J. O'Donnell and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Toring were guests Christmas day at the home of Dr. and Mrs. P. J. O'Donnell, 6030 90th street.

On next Sunday morning at the Laurelwood Congregational church Mrs. J. J. Handsaker, pastor, will speak on a topic befitting the advent of a new year.

The joint installation of Reuben Wilson Post and Shiloh Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., will take place at Odd Fellows hall Saturday evening, January 3.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McGrew, 5851 88th street, entertained at Christmas dinner Mr. B. F. Miller and family, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McGrew.

Opal Wilson, thirteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wilson, was operated on Sunday afternoon for appendicitis. At the latest report she was doing nicely.

Wright Davis, one of the proprietors of the new Eagle garage, 5820 92nd street, has traded his place at Gilbert for a residence at 6030 89th street, and moved Wednesday.

Miss Esther Fleming, librarian at the Lents branch, returned to her work here the first of the week after a few days spent over Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Fleming of Yakima, Wash.

Mrs. Inez Gulliks and mother, Mrs. Kate M. Wagner, spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Grannis, of 62nd street. James Grannis, of Vancouver, who was also a guest, received a Christmas greeting from his son in Canton, China. The message came through by radio in eight hours. Mrs. Wagner returned this week to her home at Woodland, Wash.

Miss Evelyn Hogue, of 6439 88th street, entertained four of her high school friends last Saturday at a pleasant afternoon affair. The time was spent in social diversion during which a dainty lunch was served. The guests included the Misses Jeanette Bear, Helen Glover, Marjorie Campbell and Ruth Howard.

Mrs. Nora Reardon, of 6427 88th street, who recently underwent an operation for eye cataract, is at her home recovering in a satisfactory manner. Great hopes are entertained that her eye may be as well as ever. Her case was somewhat different from many cases of cataract in that the film was caused by a bruise.

Stopping at the home of R. G. Wigle, 5906 82nd street, the past week were J. D. Wigle, of Coburg; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Wigle and son Robert, and Harry Sonniksen, of Hood River; Mrs. Susie Bishop, of Mable, and Mr. and Mrs. John Shaver, of Myrtle Park.

In the Woodmere school presentation of the Ruggles family, Mrs. Maymie Hogue was the mother in the famous family and the center of the little characterization which contains such a lesson in Christmas cheer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sanders, 5126 87th street, were Christmas guests of Mrs. Sanders' aunt Mrs. G. Haack, 1717 Chautauqua Boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. McGrew, 8729 56th avenue, spent Christmas at the home of Mrs. McGrews father, 176 Bancroft ave.

CHRISTMAS TREAT AT ARLETA BAPTIST CHURCH

The Arleta Baptist church was the scene of a novel treating at Christmas time as an old-fashioned windmill ground out candy for the children, much to their delight. The decorations, planned by a committee of several, were unusually attractive and included a tree, low cross-wires from wall to wall strung with cotton and tinsel, and a holly-strung baptistry behind which a sky effect of blue with shining stars was further enhanced by colored lights. In this setting the tableau of the wisemen was particularly effective.

"We're getting along without meat."
"That so? Not suffering, are you?"
"Not a bit. But the dogs seem to have a terrible time trying to get nourishment off our empty corn cobs."

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM AT LAURELWOOD CHURCH

The Christmas Sunday school exercises at the Laurelwood Congregational church were held Christmas Eve in the beautifully decorated church auditorium. Under the direction of Miss Gladys James the combination of poinsettias, English ivy, Oregon grape and Christmas bells made an unusually charming effect. Among those who appeared on the program were Elaine Handsaker, Norma Bicknell, Mrs. T. W. Davis, Peggy Reynolds, Muriel Dickson, Verna Jenny, Mary Bicknell, Hazel Wells, Mark Bradford and Mrs. J. J. Handsaker. Numbers deserving special mention include the original recitation by Elaine Handsaker, the playlet by the Franklin bible class, in which the fairy part was an outstanding feature; the tableau by the primary department, accompanied by Mrs. Davis as soloist; and the delightful Santa Claus person who gave candy and apples to the waiting, happy youngsters. A most important part of the program was the offering for the Armenian and Syrian relief work which amounted to about $25. The apples which St. Nicholas distributed to the Sunday school were the gift of Mr. Cornes, of the Cornes grocery at Kern Park.

The Wrong Mrs. Nichols

In regard to the death of a Mrs. M. A. Nichols at Sheridan which was mentioned recently in the Herald, we received the following letter this week:

"Sheridan, Dec. 28.

"Another M. A. Nichols, therefore a mistake. Mrs. N. started east for her father last week, became ill, and had to be brought back home, so got the names mixed. Mrs. M. A. Nichols, formerly of Lents, starts east again tomorrow for her father. He is 87 years old and a Methodist minister.

"Yours truly,

"Mrs. W. H. Hayes."
