

We hope each and every reader of the Herald made a resolution yesterday to send in news items instead of waiting to be "pumped." We can't get the news out of the air. Some people act as though they think we are trying to pry into their private affairs when we ask them for items, and yet they make uncomplimentary remarks if we miss something they think should appear.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Attorney H. P. Arnest was a business visitor in Oregon City last week.

H. R. Schenerman, 6101 89th street transacted business in Salem last week.

Mrs. H. A. Darnall is at home after spending the holiday vacation with Mr. Darnall at the ranch at Kerry.

A. Hagglund, a university student from Eugene, visited last Sunday with Miss Marie Rathkey of 88th street.

J. Allen Dunbar and family ate New Year's dinner with Mrs. Dunbar's sister, Mrs. F. E. Roberson, near Yamhill.

Mrs. Wm. Thurston, 6126 94th street, who has been ill for some time is still bedfast and very little improvement is shown.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Faler and Myrtle McNeil returned to Boardman Sunday after spending two weeks with relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Lee and son Lester came last Friday from Moro, to make a short visit with his mother, Mrs. O. W. Webb of 6225 88th street.

Miss Anna Beckelhymer of 5509 1-2 72nd street, went to Newberg Wednesday, the 31st for a New Year's visit with her brother, J. Beckelhymer, and his family.

C. C. Barker, of 90th street, employed by the U. S. Express company in their general offices, has been on the sick list part of the past week but was able to be out Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Voss and children, of 81st street and 66th avenue, went to Springfield to spend New Year's and the weekend with Mrs. Voss' parents and sisters. They report a very pleasant time.

The Aeronaut class of the Friends Sunday school was entertained by Edward Smith, Jr. at the home of his parents on 92nd street Friday evening. A quiet evening of games and music was closed with a taffy pull.

Among the young people who have gone back to their school work after spending the holidays with home folks are, Gertrude Katzy and Zella Landon to Conzmouth, Alta Landon to U. of O. at Eugene and Dora Dunbar to Newberg.

Mrs. W. Wood and Mrs. H. H. Wilde, 73rd street, old neighbors and friends of Mrs. John Graves when she lived at Firland spent last Friday with Mrs. Graves at her home, 6107 91st street.

Mrs. E. M. Scheuerman of 6517 89th street is very slowly improving from an attack of inflammatory rheumatism. She has been confined to her bed for several weeks and her many friends will be pleased to see her around again.

Mrs. A. E. Droste recently received a letter from her husband who is in the East buying silverware and cut glass for M. Seller and Co. of Portland. Mr. Droste has full charge of his department and is fully appreciated by the company, being a very essential asset in his special line. Mr. Droste's trip will include Chicago, New York and Washington, D. C.

Dr. L. R. Andrews and sister Irene of Astoria, visited Mr. and Mrs. John Graves, of 6107-91st, Saturday and Sunday. Dr. Andrews sold dental supplies while working his way through the Pacific Dental College and is acquainted with the dentists of Lents. Dr. Andrews' father and two sisters came west last October at the time Mrs. Graves returned from her visit in Pennsylvania and Ohio.

Frank Wright has moved out of the Ferrell house at 5480 82nd street. He has moved to Yamhill on a farm.

News was received this week that Lester Clarke, who formerly lived at 101st street and 55th avenue, was married on New Year's day.

Mrs. F. M. Peters and son Lyle visited her mother, Mrs. Etta Williams, at Rainier over New Year's. Mr. Peters has a brand new Maxwell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Porter, of 81st street and 66th avenue, were entertained at a dinner at the Multnomah hotel, where Mr. Porter is employed, in honor of his 59th birthday.

The little five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Friday, of 82nd street, is just recovering from a very severe attack of pneumonia. He is out of danger now.

J. O. Leak, the choir leader at the Baptist church, is at the Good Samaritan hospital where he has undergone a surgical operation. He is convalescing and will be back in a few weeks at his old place leading the choir.

The Home Guards of the M. E. church enjoyed a pleasant social afternoon at the home of Adaline and Lillian Nelson, 6647 81st street, last Tuesday afternoon. After refreshments five selected members joined the renowned Ki Yi society.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Joy, of Oxford, Neb., are visiting her brother, George Friday, of 82nd street, after visiting in British Columbia, where Mrs. Joy was quite sick for a week. They will soon leave for California to visit Mrs. Joy's sister in Los Angeles.

W. S. Swearingner returned to central Oregon January 2 after having spent the holidays with his family at 7819 55th avenue. Mr. Swearingner is general foreman on the Ochoco dam, near Prineville, and reports that the dam will be completed about May 1.

Merrett Wells and wife and little daughter, of Seattle, spent the holidays with Mrs. Wells' mother, Mrs. D. Barker, and brother, C. C. Barker, and family. They visited many old-time friends in both the Lents and Sunnyside districts while here.

Mrs. Hartman, formerly of 80th street and 63rd avenue, was called from southern Oregon on account of the illness of her father, Mr. Woods, who died January 5 and was buried Tuesday. Mr. Woods has been a resident of Grays Crossing for a long time. Mrs. Woods died three years ago.

F. D. Brady, of Grandview, Wash., who has been visiting Attorney H. P. Arnest, of Lents station returned to the Yakima valley last week. Mr. Brady, who is a former resident of Oregon expects to return to Portland shortly, where he will go into business. G. B. Arnest, of Grandview, Wash., a brother of H. P. Arnest is also visiting him.

Next Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Lents M. E. church there will be a stereopticon lecture on South America by Professor Hartzell, of that country. Professor Hartzell is giving this lecture only three times in Portland, so Lents people have a splendid opportunity to hear it. Admission will be free and there will be no collection. Everybody come.

Rev. Lindley A. Wells and wife and little daughter Esther spent the holidays visiting old-time friends in Portland. Rev. Wells filled the pulpit of the Second Friends church twice while here and gave an inspiring message at the prayer meeting last week. Lindley Wells was formerly pastor of the First Friends church of Portland and has now gone to Greenleaf, Idaho, in the same capacity.

A letter from J. Sanger Fox, of Quilcene, Wash., the first of the weeks says: "Some of your readers may be interested to know that Rev. John Riley, who was at one time pastor of the Lents Friends church, has recently been with us and held three weeks series of meetings at Quilcene, and 10 days at Brinnon, another of our points. There were six conversions at Brinnon and 30 at Quilcene."

FRIENDS C. E. SOCIETY BIDS MEMBER FAREWELL

In the Christian Endeavor service at the Friends church last Sunday evening O. Kenneth Tamplin was given a farewell on the eve of his departure for Indiana. After the opening exercises J. Allen Dunbar spoke words of farewell for the Aeronaut class, of which Mr. Tamplin is a member; C. C. Barker spoke in behalf of the Sunday School; Miss Isler for the Christian Endeavor and Miss Terrill in behalf of the church. When she had finished, Mr. Barker again went forward and said he had more to say and with a few fitting remarks presented Mr. Tamplin with a leather traveling bag. The recipient was so overcome with emotion that it required great effort to reply to the kind words that had been said. Mr. Tamplin started for Indianapolis, Ind., the evening of the 7th, accompanied by Mrs. Deborah Barker, mother of C. C. Barker. Mrs. Barker will probably make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Dora Conant Williams, of Westfield, whom many Lents people will remember. She will visit another daughter well known in Lents, Mrs. Geo. L. Carr, now living in Indianapolis. Mr. Tamplin will engage in some kind of clerical work for which he has prepared himself, and some suggest that the wedding bells will ring before the roses bloom.

Lents Grange will meet Saturday. Officers for the coming year will be installed and a good program has been arranged by the lecturer.

Card of Thanks.
Mother and sister of Leroy Quick wish to thank the employees of Shaffer and Hesse Cafe, Eureka Rebecca lodge 178, the Baptist sisters and brothers and all of the orders and friends for their floral offerings and loving sympathy in our bereavement.
