

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The Mt. Scott Drug company has traded a grocery store a fine casserole for a common cat. Has anyone else something to trade?

The Millard Avenue Welfare club will give a hard time social Jan. 27 in the church parlors. Appropriate refreshments will be served.

Mr. Wilson Benefiel, lecturer of the Lents Grange, who has been ill with the grippe at his home since last Saturday is gradually convalescing.

The United Artisans of Lents will hold a social at the residence of Edward Thurston, 613 1/2 94th street, Wednesday evening, January 21. All Artisans are invited.

The Lents Hardware company has bought the Jaeger stock of harness which has been moved to the hardware store. A. Schirmer is employed as harness maker.

Mrs. H. W. Bleything and son Stanford returned home last Sunday having spent the past three weeks with Mrs. Bleything's mother, Mrs. Mary Gething of Sellwood.

Royal Neighbors and Modern Woodmen met for a social evening in Grange hall last Thursday night. A royal good time was reported by all who chanced to be there.

Among those of the Mt. Scott district who were members of the census-taking staff were Mrs. Gertrude Bernal of 6126 80th street and Mrs. Norman Golloway of 8904 73rd avenue.

Sunday at the Fourth United Brethren church, under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Miss Leticia Stears of Wis., who has been speaking to the different ladies organizations of the city will address the public.

Clarence B. Freeman of 5140 66th street, hurt his hand seriously last Wednesday at the Y. M. C. A. auto school while experimenting on an engine. He went immediately to a hospital for treatment.

George Stone, the returned soldier son of Mrs. W. B. Douglas of 6808 82nd street, has gone to Eastern Oregon to his home-stand. Mr. Stone had many narrow escapes while in France. A brother of Mrs. Douglas' died while in the service overseas.

Friday afternoon, the 9th at 4 o'clock, Walter Jenkins, community sing leader, accompanied by Miss Brown and a portable organ arrived at the Lents library where for about an hour he led a hundred and twenty-five children in the singing of songs, old, new and popular.

The Ladies Aid Society of Bennett Chapel will meet at the home of Mrs. Wm. Gilbert Jan. 22 and the meeting will take the form of a silver tea. All the ladies in the neighborhood are invited to enjoy the afternoon with these good folks and to help them in their splendid work.

The Lents P. T. A. recently placed in the Lents teachers' room several new chairs, some dishes and some cutlery. The money was obtained several months ago at a dinner given by the P. T. A. for patriotic purposes. And now that the service men are demobilized the funds left have been put to this purpose.

Among the season's guests at the home of Mrs. O. H. Gilbert, 4928 71st street, have been Miss Ella Hathaway, a cousin, who is supervisor of Home Economics in the High School at Elko, Nevada; and Martin J. W. Price, formerly in the service in Juneau, Alaska. Miss Hathaway is a Mankato, Kansas girl of splendid ability whose preparation for teaching included a course at Columbia (New York) University.

The Ladies Aid of the Lents M. E. church held a very profitable and interesting meeting last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. T. C. Lord, on 84th street, about twenty being present. Arrangements were made to hold a silver tea at the home of Mrs. J. E. Hawkins, 5640 84th street, Jan. 21st. With Mrs. Alice Woodworth as chairman of the committee a good time is assured all who are present and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

Woodmere P. T. A. Met Jan. 8

Woodmere P. T. A. met Thursday, Jan. 8 at 8 o'clock in the Woodmere school assembly hall. Preceding the business meeting the children marched in and saluted the flag and sang the Star Spangled Banner and other songs which they do to their own credit as well as to their principle, Mrs. Alexander, and her assistants who are ceaseless in their good work for the children and community of Woodmere. It was decided to give a Leap Year dance Friday night the 16th in the assembly hall and it is hoped there will be a good attendance.

Mead Circle Installed Officers

Winslow Mead Circle No. 7 Ladies of the G. A. R. installed their officers at an open meeting in room 524 court house on Monday the 5th. Mrs. Ella Himes was installing officer of the day. The following officers were installed, Mrs. Lucy Beck, president; Mrs. C. Underwood-Foster, senior vice; Mrs. Clara Cross, junior vice; Mrs. Ella Himes, treasurer; Mrs. J. Claggett, secretary; Mrs. Wealthy Brombaugh, chaplain; Mrs. Lillian Thomas, patriotic instructor; Mrs. Jenny Beeson, conductor; Mrs. Dina Bounds, assistant conductor; Mrs. G. A. Campbell and Mrs. Mary Koonty, guards; Mrs. Maleta Gordon, musician. The circle meets on Monday; every other Monday is social day.

Rebekah Club Meets

Mrs. A. H. Nelson and Mrs. F. M. Peters attended the Rebekah club which met with Mrs. Clyde Grable at 45th avenue and 58th street, Tuesday. Those present were Mrs. Morgan, noble grand; Mrs. Peters, vice grand; Mrs. Nelson, warden; Mrs. Fishburn, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Hyde, Mrs. Cover, Mrs. Yarron, Mrs. Martan, Mrs. Shomaker and Mrs. Whitney. Election of officers took place. Mrs. Fishburn was elected president, Mrs. Grable vice president and Mrs. Shomaker secretary for the term of six months. Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Whitney and Mrs. Grable were appointed to draft by-laws to be adopted at the next meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. Peters the second Tuesday in Feb. The club meets all day and at 12 o'clock a cafeteria lunch is served which all enjoy.

Mrs. R. B. Kelley, formerly a resident of Lents, is reported ill.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Sahlin, of 6424 91st street, January 10, a boy.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William E. Jones, 9916 65th avenue, a baby girl.

Rev. Upton is holding a series of revival meetings at the Third Free Methodist church at 57th avenue and 91st street. Everybody welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Scheuerman arrived home from a visit in Tacoma over the holidays last Tuesday. Mrs. Holt, of Tacoma, a sister of Mrs. Scheuerman, accompanied them home and will visit a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Sanders are now occupying the house at 5703 83rd street which they recently purchased from C. C. Woodworth.

It seems that the curfew has ceased to ring around Grays Crossing as well as in other places.

Ray Perry and wife of Nevada are visiting Mr. and Mrs. O. Voss of 81st street and 66th avenue. Mrs. Perry is a sister of Mrs. Voss.

Mountain View Rebekah lodge and Arleta Odd Fellows held a joint installment last Saturday evening which was open to the public and was enjoyed by a large audience. Refreshments were served followed by a social hour which lasted till the stroke of 12, which were appreciated by all.

Last Tuesday morning Miss Esther Fleming, Lents librarian, gave instruction at the library to the fifth and sixth grades of the Lents school. About 80 children were present to learn library methods, including the use of the catalog, the dictionaries and the encyclopedias. While this was going on Miss Nelly Fox, assistant city librarian, came to inspect the library. To add to all this the scrub woman deserted Miss Fleming and Miss Fleming had to do the janitor work also.

Just Opened

A barber shop in the Wiley building, next door to the confectionery store. Hair cutting 35 cents, shaving 15 cents. C. W. Plaster. 1tp

GILBERT ITEMS

Mr. Mitchell has his house nearly completed.

Mrs. A. A. Rindie, who has been sick the past 10 days, is improving.

Report says Wagner brothers are doing finely with their oyster fry in the city.

The Ladies' Aid held a quilt-tying last Thursday, January 8, at the home of Mrs. J. L. Johnson.

Mr. Buchanan, an old soldier friend, is doing finely for a man of his age. Everyone is delighted as he was very low when he came back to us again.

Bennett Chapel had the pleasure of welcoming several new friends last Sunday, among the rest a Mr. Hayes, a Presbyterian minister, who took the pulpit by invitation of Mr. Blackwell, the pastor.

E. M. Calkins has decided to make the "Calkins' hall" a dwelling for himself. He has already moved it 30 feet north of its old place. He intends to make it into a two-story house and add his present house to it, which will be some house. He will also paint and finish the last house he finished for rental purposes.

Miss Lucy Lynn, who lived on Lenox avenue until her parents moved to Newport, has been through a long spell of sickness. Hope seems to be inspired by the expression of a wish for fruit from the old home here. Fred Dozier, a friend notified friends here—which means there is some on the way at this writing. More will follow if she can eat it.

Lents M. E. Church

Bible school at 9:45. Morning worship at 11. Epworth League at 6:30. Leader, Hubert Blything. Topic, "A Worth While Life." Evening worship at 7:30 p. m. "Where is Jesus Now." Thursday, 7:30 p. m., prayer meeting. Friday, 8 p. m., choir practice.

Lents Evangelical Church

The regular sermon will be given next Sunday. Address and communion of the Lord's supper at 11 a. m. and preaching service at 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Junior Y. P. A. 3 p. m. and young people's meeting at 6:30. A cordial invitation to all.

Lents Baptist Church

Sunday school at 9:45. Good music and classes for every one. Sabbath worship at 11 a. m. Theme, "A Great Call, a Great Mission and a Great Destiny." Mr. Howard will lead the choir. Young people's meeting at 6:30. Leader, Miss Nichols. Preaching at 7:30 p. m. Song service until 8 p. m. Pastor's subject, "The Abandoned Life."

Third United Brethren Church

At the Third United Brethren church, the Rev. Ira Hawley of the Second United Brethren church began holding special services last Sunday evening. Next Sunday morning the pastor of the church, the Rev. E. O. Shepherd, will preach as usual.

Millard Avenue Presbyterian

At the Millard Avenue Presbyterian church next Sunday morning the Rev. W. Lee Gray will speak on "Before the War and After." In the evening at 7:30 Mrs. Fred Neal a returned Missionary from Africa will tell of her experiences there and will exhibit and explain curios of that country. At this time Mrs. H. T. Blakeslee will sing by request the beautiful arrangement, "The Ninety and Nine."

Laurelwood Congregational

At the Laurelwood Congregational church next Sunday morning the pastor, Mrs. J. J. Hand-saker will speak on a topic connected with the city-wide theme of church membership. The Intermediate Endeavor society of this church has begun the study of the book called "Minister of Mercy," a book designed especially for the intermediate workers. It was selected as one of the books for the national missionary educational movement which was put in operation last season. Miss Hazel Wells, the new president of the Endeavor, is doing good work in getting her department activities started.

For Sale

Fresh Jersey cow with calf. Price $100. Also small pigs. Royal Zinser, one-half mile above Mt. Scott cemetery on Happy Valley road. j2-2tp

For Sale.

Good 16in wood at a reasonable price. Phone Tabor 5398

Furniture Wanted

We pay the most for your used furniture, stoves and ranges. W. C. Rockwell, 6015 92nd street.

Dressmaking.

For dressmaking see Mrs. W. F. Rusk. 7511 Woodstock ave.

LOST

Tan colored chamoisette glove; finder please leave at the Herald office.

LOOKS THAT WAY

"Well?"
"I'm beginning to think that I'm gonna stop."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

NOTHING LIKE IT

Mr. Neighborleigh—Your son is fond of music, is he not?
Mr. Longsuffer—He is not. He plays the ukelele.

THE NEW OPULENCE

"Do you resent newly rich people?"
"Not a bit," said Miss Cayenne, "unless they have made their money moonshining or bootlegging."

"This is a pretty poem of yours. Something toned off to gratify a whimsical fancy?"
"No, something ground off to pay a wash bill."

THE LENTS STUDIO IS NOW IN ITS NEW LOCATION 9137 Foster Road

SPECIAL

Thirty days only Post Cards $1.00 per Dozen Expert Kodak Finishing Come in and see us about those Baby Pictures

E. G. BOAG, Proprietor

Come in—it will pay you to become a regular advertiser in the Herald.

The Herald does all kinds of printing, not the cheap kind, but the good kind.

FOR RENT

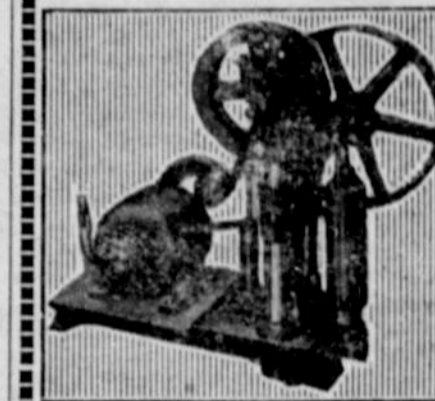

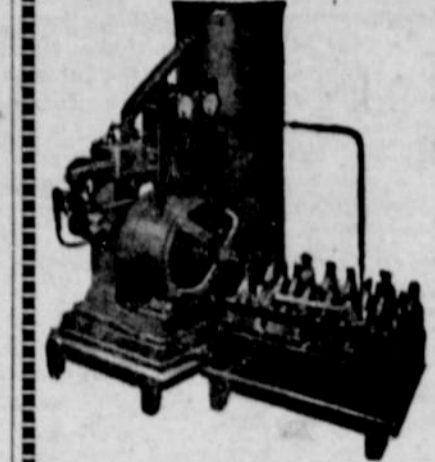

Five-room furnished house. Owner wishes to reserve one room; inquire at 3729 67th St. S. E., between Mt. Scott and Hawthorne car lines, two blocks south of Powell Valley road. Mrs. A. R. Rogers.

Woodsawing.

Orders taken for woodsawing Call T. Kearns. Tabor 406.

Ozone Oxygen Vapor, Massage, Violet Ray, High Frequency, Electricity, Vibratory, Spinal Treatments, Faradic, Organic Corrective Methods, Super Heat Cabinet Sweats; free examination; 24 treatments Twenty Dollars.—Dr. Jensen, Chiropractor, (since 1910), 304 Raleigh building, Washington at 6th; phones Main 1182—C1216.

Keep the Home Lights Burning And the Fresh Water Running

No matter where you live, you can have all modern city conveniences. The PAUL AUTOMATIC PRESSURE WATER SYSTEMS and the UNIVERSAL FARM LIGHTING make this possible. And the cost is much less than you probably expect—nor is it a luxury to have a water system and lighting plant on your farm—it is a profitable investment and a comfort giving equipment. No matter how much more you are asked to pay you cannot get better value for your money than a PAUL WATER SYSTEM and a UNIVERSAL LIGHTING PLANT.

FOR SALE BY LENTS GARAGE

Tabor 3429 8919 Foster Road Portland, Oregon

NEW YEAR NEW RECORDS

COME IN and hear them on the Edison Phonograph or the Columbia Grafonola. You will be delighted with the very latest music. What is the use of being without good music these long evenings when you can purchase at our store either an Edison Phonograph or a Columbia Grafonola by paying whatever amount you wish down and the balance in small installments to suit your convenience. We take Liberty and Victory Bonds at face value.

Mt. Scott Drug Co.

92nd Street, near Carline LENTS, ORE.

Advancement

Young man, do you know that your employer will take a personal interest in you when he learns that you are saving part of your salary?

Start a Saving Account with this Bank and you will soon be getting ahead in the world. Money means opportunity for you.

Multnomah State Bank

Lents Station Portland, Ore.