

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Boydson, of Gammon Acres, Sunday, January 25, a boy.

Mrs. Hattie Yott returned last week from a business trip up the Willamette valley.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Young of Sycamore station, Thursday, January 22, a boy.

James H. McKibben, of 83th street and Gilbert road, bought a new Dorr last Saturday from the Lents Garage.

Dr. Nelson has now practically recovered from his recent attack of pneumonia and has resumed his practice.

Mrs. Frank Coulter returned Tuesday morning from a trip to California where she has been visiting relatives.

The Five Point Club will meet with Mrs. Hankin, 4721 70th street, Tuesday, February 3. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Inez Gullicks and mother, Mrs. Kate M. Wagner, spent the week-end with Mrs. F. A. Dodge of Forest Grove. They went on Friday and returned Monday.

Roy Kerr has been absent from his business in the Square Deal Candy store the past week on account of a severe cold and threatened pneumonia.

Mrs. J. C. Howe, 6022 82nd street, left Saturday morning for an extended visit with relatives in Los Angeles. She will stop a few days in Medford and San Francisco.

Frank Coulter had his new Baby Grand Chevrolet out for exercise Wednesday afternoon. Mr Coulter had his order placed for the car last June and only received it this week.

Following the downpour of rain last Saturday and Sunday Johnson creek went out of its banks at the Junction Monday and flooded several hundred acres north and east of Lents Junction.

The United Artisans will meet the first Wednesday in February. All members are urged to be present. There will be a short business session followed by a general good time and a feed.

Tom Kreuder, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kreuder, had the misfortune to break his arm and wrist in three places Wednesday while cranking the delivery auto of the Lents Mercantile Co. He was taken to Good Samaritan Hospital where the fracture was reduced.

Mrs. J. C. McGrew has been ill for the past week at her residence 8741 56th avenue. Her many friends will regret to learn that she is suffering from a general nervous break down requiring the attendance of a physician.

Arnold Eggiman and wife and little daughter started for Los Angeles Sunday, where they will spend about three weeks visiting Mrs. Eggimans parents, Howard Gardner is taking Mr. Eggiman's place in the meat market during his absence.

The genial face of Mrs. W. C. Smith, 6408 84th street, is again wreathed in smiles. Mrs. Smith recently returned home from her eastern trip after being away for nearly four months. She passed about three months at Decatur, visiting relatives and friends, and while there she was in the "tail end" of a cyclone. After leaving Decatur she went to Oklahoma City and while in that city had a severe shaking up in an auto wreck, but escaped with no other damage. On her way home, after reaching eastern Oregon her train was delayed ten hours by a wash-out. But regardless of all mishaps Mrs. Smith reports a fine trip, but is glad to be back in her Portland home once more.

Reuben Wilson Post, Shiloh Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., and the Rebekahs were represented at a gathering at the home of Mrs. Margaret Hummel on January 15 to bid Mrs. Hummel Godspeed on her journey, as she expected to leave for California on the 20, but her trip has been indefinitely postponed, by the advice of her physician.

Mrs. Alice Woodworth recently had the misfortune to catch her hand in a door, bruising three of her fingers badly. Several stitches had to be taken in the second finger. It being her right hand she is staying with her son, W. H. Woodworth, until her hand is so it can be of use to her.

Next meeting of Shiloh Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., will be held February 7. Mrs. Docia Tussey is the presiding officer for the coming year. She is a "live wire" so we expect there will be things doing by these ladies under her leadership. Watch the paper for announcements.

Mrs. C. E. Tillman entertained Mrs. Florence Freeman, of Sellwood, and Mrs. Ida Clarke, who has recently moved back to Lents after a two years' absence, at her home at 6221 90th street, last Friday.

Clarence Tillman, accompanied by Bert Howitt, arrived home Sunday, January 18, from Philadelphia, where they went by way of the Panama canal, sailing December 5.

Mrs. J. H. L. Maybee is very ill with severe throat trouble at her home, 9005 63rd avenue. At this writing she is somewhat improved.

Miss Vivian Clarke and Earl Edwards were married in Vancouver last Saturday evening. They are making their home in Lents.

Pomona Grange will be held at Evening Star Grange hall on the third Wednesday in March. This will be an important meeting.

Mrs. Goedeck, of east Gilbert road, underwent an operation at Good Samaritan hospital last week. At last report she was doing nicely.

Clarence Tillman finished painting the floor and woodwork in Mrs. Gullicks' millinery store this week.

Miss Pearl Woodworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Woodworth, has been on the sick list.

Miss Marie Chapman made a flying business trip to Albany the latter part of last week and completed arrangement to take over a class of 58 pupils. She will be in her studio in the Herald building Monday and Tuesday and in Albany, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. I. F. Coffman is out again after a short illness.

Fay Smith has recently joined the working force at the Lents garage.
