It Takes Gasoline

Fred Geisler has quit mixing drugs for all ills, and won't even roll any more pills, for he's going to sell phonographs with a soul, and expects to dispose of 200 a week to reach the goal. To do this he bought a tin can called a Ford, but his friends declare its not a can but a gourd. Last Tuesday in front of his store he cranked the can till his arms were sore, then he cranked and cranked till his face was red, then he cranked some more, then he said: "By Heck, what's the matter with this machine." then he examined the tank, not a drop of gasoline. Now he's hauling phonographs with or without a soul and talking to pretty women and collecting the toll. But selling phonographs is quite a different thing from trying to start a tin Henry without gasoline. Old Wrinkle-eye.

H. J. SCHULDERMAN IS CANDIDATE FOR OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE

Henry J. Schulderman, Corporation Commissioner of the state of Oregon, yesterday announced his intention of filing as a candidate for the Republican nomination for secretary of state. Mr. Schulderman made the following statement: "If nominated for secretary of state and elected at the general election, I shall conduct the office on strictly business lines, cutting down expenses wherever possible and securing economy and efficiency as I have done in the office of corporation commissioner."

"The secretary of state is a member of the board of control, and as such has many important duties. Should I become a member of that body I shall also exert my influence to conduct the state's affairs and institutions also upon a strictly business basis, eliminating waste and extravagance and spending the money raised through taxation to the very best advantage. reducing expenses in the office of corporation commissioner, to familiarity with important business matters and to my experience as an executive acquired in the conduct of the office. If in submitting my candidacy for the nomination for secretary of state to the republican voters, I wish to point to my record in the republican voters will examine minutely my past record and qualifications, I am content to leave my candidacy in their hands."

Mr. Schulderman was born in Portland, in 1873 and comes from a well-known pioneer family. His mother was also born in Portland and his father, Peter H. Schulderman had lived in Oregon fifty years before his death a year ago. His early education was acquired at the Couch school and the Bishop Scott Academy. After his graduation he entered the University of Oregon Law school and also joined the Oregon National Guard, being a member of Company I, serving his full term and securing an honorable discharge. After graduating from the law school, he entered business for a short period becoming manager of the Merchants Express and Transportation Company, operating between Portland and Vancouver, after which he actively began to practice law.

In 1915 he was appointed corporation commissioner to fill an unexpired term and in 1917 he was re-appointed by Governor Withycombe, for a four year term.

Mr. Schulderman points out to his successful administration of the office of corporation commissioner in urging his candidacy. In his first year's administration, he states that he reduced the expenses of the office $4,000, saving more than his salary, and last year in spite of high costs he conducted his office for less than the previous year.

In 1903 Mr. Schulderman and two children. Mr. Schulderman has a wide acquaintance throughout the state, is a member of several clubs and societies, and has received many offers of voluntary support in his campaign but will continue to give close personal attention to the duties of his present office.
