MARIE MORRISEY SURE IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

If you have ever had the embarrassment of speaking to a total stranger under the impression you knew him, only to find out it was the man whose picture adorned every chewing gum label you come across, you will understand how this doughboy felt.

One day last year when Marie Morrisey, who will give a concert in the Yeager theater March 8, was making a concert tour through Canada, she stopped at Sidney to sing for the 600 U. S. troops that were quarantined there. As she passed from ward to ward, singing as she went, she stopped now and again to chat with the soldiers.

One interesting chap attracted her attention and she said to him, "Hello there, where did you come from?"

"Minnesota," he answered indifferently.

Then politeness got the better of him and he turned to look at Miss Morrisey.

"Gee whiz!" he exclaimed excitedly, "why I know you."

Then he puzzled and puzzled over it. Finally the doughboy's face brightened.

"I know," he exclaimed, "my father is an Edison dealer in my home town back in Minnesota, and it's your pictures I've seen so much!"

So Miss Morrisey is sure that she has a great many friends whom she has never seen herself. The concert Monday evening, March 8, ought to convince her that in Lents she is among many more friends. Pd. adv.

E. A. Droste Returns From East

E. A. Droste, 9409 57th avenue, returned last Monday night from a business trip in the east. Mr. Droste left Portland December 7 and since that time has been combining business with sightseeing. Most of the scenery where he has been was of the wintry sort, snowy and cold. When he left New York City for Portland he paid a taxi driver $3 to take him 11 blocks from his hotel to the station in a blizzard. When he reached Spokane Mr. Droste says it seemed like summer to him. He has been extremely fortunate in escaping travelers' ills and epidemics. On his way home he stopped at various cities, including Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago, Indianapolis, Spokane and Seattle. He is employed in the cutlery, cut-glass and crockery department of M. Sellers.

Lincoln's Birthday Program

February 12 a good representation of Reuben Wilson Post and Shiloh Circle, also friends of the order, met at the home of Mrs. Alice Woodworth. It being Lincoln's birthday arrangements had been made for a Lincoln program by the patriotic instructor, but owing to illness she was detained at home. A very interesting program was hastily prepared by the president, Mrs. Dossie Tussey, which was enjoyed by all present. A very pleasant social afternoon was spent.

Father Beutgen, of St. Peter's parish, who has been seriously ill the past month, is reported as no better. He is at the home of his sister at 21st and Hoyt.

TOO SLOW FOR HIS GIRL

Nell—So the engagement is broken off?
Belle—Yes, it seems she told him one evening that she wasn't half beautiful enough to be his wife, and he didn't deny her statement quick enough to suit her.

JUST SO.
Screwdriver—Who's that doleful looking individual?
Hammer—That's Mr. Sad Iron.
