LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Work on 72nd street is now being carried forward at Firland, sidewalks and curbing now being put in.

Thomas Herd, of Newberg, spent last Sunday with his daughter, Mrs.
James Jones, of 5262 68th street.

The family of J. A. Cornes has moved from 4400 66th street to the apartments over the Cornes Corner Grocery at Kern Park.

Lieutenant Rex Stoner, of the airplane squadron, is expected to arrive at any time from his post in the south to visit his mother, Mrs. Geo.
Stoner, of 7411 59th avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foster, of 9619 53rd avenue, who have been in Long Beach and other southern California points since last September, returned home Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Tufford moved last week from their residence in the Alberta neighborhood to 4400 66th street. Mrs. Tufford is well known in Kern Park as Mrs. Garnet Saulcer Tufford.

Mrs. R. C. Stewart, of Astoria, arrived last Friday at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. J. Tisdale, of 6127 42nd avenue. Mrs. Stewart, who has with her her six-months'- old son, Russell Clifton, will probably spend the rest of the month in Portland.

The Misses Frieda and Ruby Long have just returned home from Harrisburg, where they were called on account of the sickness of relatives.
While nursing their relatives back to health they too were attacked by influenza, from which they only recently recovered.

Mrs. Joe Smith, of 5630 68th street, who a month ago rented her house to Dr. Kerr, formerly of Rose City Park, has moved into cosy quarters in her loom house toward the rear of her lots. Mrs. Smith is a weaver of those handsome silk-stranded pillow tops and table runners.

Lieutenant-Colonel A. H. Hollingworth, of Beatrice, Neb., arrived in Portland last Saturday evening preparatory to taking up his residence on his homestead out in the fertile Mollalla district. While waiting for his Cole-eight and other effects the colonel is visiting at the home of his sister at 5627 72nd street.

J. A. Cornes, of the Cornes Corner Grocery, 6707 Foster road, is now owner of the building at Kern Park previously occupied by the Jones & Campbell company. Mr. Cornes moved his grocery stock last Saturday into its new quarters, still retaining his well-known firm name.

The former owner of the building was J. C. McGrew, of Lents.

The young people of the intermediate Endeavor of the Millard avenue Presbyterian church will have a "world-round trip" on Saturday evening, April 10. Among the places visited will be Italy, with its spaghetti, and Japan, with its cherries.
Italy will be represented at the manse, 7711 Woodstock avenue, and Japan at the home of Miss Blanche Fague, 7705 57th avenue.

The sewing club conducted by Mrs.
E. A. Droste met at the Lents school in the assembly room last Monday afternoon immediately after school.
Almost all the members were present. Some are more energetic than others, having taken up the third lesson, which consists of instructions in utility-bag making. The first two lessons take up the needle case and the tea towel. Those who have finished the first two articles and are now on the third are Wanda Sleeper and Cora Bohna.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Kern Park C. E. society will be held at the Kern Park Christian church, 46th avenue and 69th street. After a brief business meeting the society will adjourn to attend the illustrated lecture on "Ben Hur" by Rev. G. L. Ghormley, pastor of the church. The topic for next Sunday evening's prayer meeting of the Christian Endeavorers will be "Every-Day Courtesies." Miss Maymie Garr will lead the meeting. All are invited to attend.

Mrs. Charles Warde, of 92nd street, spent Sunday with her son Glen at Bull Run.

Next Sunday evening F. M. Jasper, assistant pastor of the Wilbur Methodist (old Taylor street) church, will speak in the Lents M. E. church of which he was formerly pastor.

For some months Mr. Jasper has been studying institutional work in the Morgan Memorial Institute. On the second Sunday in April Dr. Carl G.
Doney, president of Willamette University, Salem, will speak both morning and evening. On March 28 the pastor of the church, Rev. F. R. Sibbey, will hold a decision day service.

KERN PARK CHRISTIAN
At the Kern Park Christian church, 46th avenue and 69th street, Rev. J.
P. Ghormley, the pastor, will take for his themes Sunday, at 11 a. m., "Enlisting for Christ," and at 7:30 p. m., "The Infallibly Safe Way." These sermons will be preparatory for the special pre-Easter evangelis-services. Singing evangelist, Mrs.
Stevenson, will be at the services Sunday. She will have charge of the music during the campaign and will organize a large chorus choir. It is desired that all who will assist in this special chorus work will be present at both services Sunday.

LAURELWOOD CONGREGATIONAL At the Laurelwood Congregational church next Sunday morning the regular service will be held by the pastor, Mrs. J. J. Handsaker. At the Endeavor hour the leader will be Morrison Handsaker. The topic will be "Everyday Courtesies." Monday afternoon at this church at 3 o'clock the Ladies Missionary society will hold a meeting which promises to be of unusual interest. The speaker will be Mrs. W. K. Royal. She will discuss some phase of Americanization. A musical program will be given by Mr. and Mrs. J. Macmillan Muir. To this all music lovers are most cordially invited. Mr. Muir is tenor soloist at the First Presbyterian church. His residence is in the Mt. Scott district at 4324 72nd street.

MILLARD AVENUE PRESBY-TERIAN CHURCH
In the morning at 11 o'clock the pastor, Rev. W. Lee Gray, will use for his theme "Harvesters Wanted." In the evening at 7:30 he will speak on "The Exile."

THE ANABEL PRESBYTERIAN Next Sunday at the Anabel Presbyterian church the pastor, Rev. F.
H. H. Mixsell, will speak at the morning hour on "Christ the Cleanser." In the evening he will give a lecture on "Syria, the Land of Our Lord," illustrating it with stereopticon slides.

FOURTH UNITED BROTHERS CHURCH
Mrs. Blanchard's subject next Sunday morning at the Fourth United Brethren church will be "Vision." In the evening she will speak on the "Immortality of the Soul."
