INTERESTING BOOKS TO BE HAD AT ARLETA BRANCH LIBRARY

Miss Wil Hutchinson, librarian at Arleta, suggests the following as readable books:

"Henry is Twenty," by Same Merwin. Around this man child Mr. Merwin has developed his story, a story of struggle, of misunderstanding, of failure and achievement, of growth and development, of humor and near-tragedy, of love, of laughter, and of life.

"Judith," a play in three acts, by Arnold Bennet. An intriguing study of character, true for all time, is staged in the gorgeous pageantry of "Many Cargoes," by W. W. Jacobs, is the most amusing of all stories of skippers, mates, cooks and sailors.

The Burgess Bird Book," by Thornton W. Burgess, is a story book that will be read by boys and girls with just as much interest and enjoyment as a bed-time book. But it is more than a story book-it is an authoritative bird book so written as to arouse the interest of even the little tots in their feathered neighbors and Superintendent cradle roll, Nettie at the same time enables them to recognize them. It is beautifully illustrated in color by Mr. Fuertes, whose faithful portraits of birds are famous among all bird lovers.

Girls' Baseball Team

The following girls comprised the picked baseball team which recently defeated the Woodmere girls' team by a score of 14 to 11:
