

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Muler of Seattle is spending a few days at the Boatwright home on 55th avenue.

Advertise in your local paper. It reaches the people in whose patronage you are most interested.

California strawberries have appeared in the local market. Many however, are waiting for the Oregon kind to appear.

J. A. Williams sold his house and lots on 90th street, near Woodstock avenue, last Wednesday to Rev. O. P. Hedge.

The annual conference of the Evangelical church of Oregon will be held in Portland, beginning on the first Thursday in May.

J. E. Upsdike spent last Friday in Newberg overhauling the linotype machine in the Newberg Graphic office.

Farmers have been improving the recent spell of sunshine by getting in spring crops and gardens.

J. O. Leake and family of 1142 Stephens street will move tomorrow to 4217 65th street. Mr. Leake is known in Lents as the coach of the Baptist church choir.

Loganberries will be contracted for this year at a price better than 13 cents per pound. Salem growers have refused the above figure.

Among the realty sales this week was that of the Albert Kruger house at 6210 85th St. to Mrs. E. M. Davis, a sister of Mrs. A. E. Kenworthy.

D. L. Minott of 6334 84th Court went to Ranier Thursday of last week to take the third degree in the K. P. lodge of that place, returning Friday.

Mrs. R. N. Stone, corner of 92nd street and Woodstock avenue, left Saturday for a few days visit with her sister, Mrs. Palmateer of Estacada.

Lents Lodge A. F. and A. M., during the winter just passed, has added more than 50 new members to its charter roll. The membership now is over 200.

O. Hatton sold his eight room residence the latter part of last week to a Mr. Beam, recently from the east, for $3,000. The property is on Woodstock avenue and 77th street.

Improvements, consisting of grading and cement walks began last Friday on four blocks on 67th to 70th streets, and 63rd and 64th streets, on petition of the property owners in the territory affected.

Roy Boatwright of 9620 55th avenue is at the Portland Sanatorium recovering from an operation for appendicitis, performed last Thursday. He will probably be brought home Sunday.

The work of putting in sidewalks on 72nd street is still going on, the walks having been placed this week on both sides of the street between 56th and 58th avenues.

The Tozier home on Foster road, about one mile east of Lents station, has been sold to G. H. Harvey of Piedmont for $3,000. The tract embraced two acres, and is well improved.

Mrs. Frank M. Barker of 6020 92nd street returned the latter part of last week from a visit to relatives at Monroe. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Geo. E. Sinclair who will remain several days at the Barker home.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Katzky returned home Monday night from a four weeks trip to San Francisco and Los Angeles, Cal. They went down by boat and returned by rail and report a very pleasant trip.

Mrs. J. Bruce Polwarth of 3712 76th street, left last Wednesday for Eastern Oregon where she will visit with her parents while recuperating her health, which was somewhat impaired by a last winter attack of the flu.

At the social given under the auspices of the St. Paul Guild held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Larson, 6804-91st, last Saturday about 25 were present. A most enjoyable evening was spent playing games. Refreshment of coffee and cake were served. The guests departed at a late hour, leaving Mrs. Larson a royal entertainer.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Birch are are visiting Mr. Birchs' sister, Mrs. Paul Lent of 5624 88th street

Joe Nadeau, of 92d street, is at St. Vincents hospital where he was taken last week for an operation for appendicitis.

Tuesday, May 4, at 2 p. m. there will be held in the Arleta library a temperance meeting. The men and the issues to come up at the primaries will be discussed. Among the speakers will be Mrs. Mary Mallett.

Harry H. Guild circulation representative of the Oregon Journal, for the west side, came in from Forest Grove Tuesday and made his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Guild, 6029 1-2 92nd street, a brief visit.

C. E. Lathrop of 5408 99th street, has sold his residence to Mr. Streeter, lately from South Dakota, who will take possession immediately. The Lathrops will remain in the city for a short time, when they expect to remove to California.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gilbert, 6807 92nd street visited last Sunday in Lafayette, their daughter Mrs. Roy Holtburg, accompanied them home Monday and is visiting them this week. Mr. Holtburg will spend next Sunday at the Gilbert home.

A badly battered street car fender was lying at 91st street and Woodstock avenue, last Wednesday morning. As there was no auto remains nearby it is presumed the "cow-catcher" jolted loose and committed suicide under the wheels.

I. W. Falk of La Grane, a brother of A. Falk, the mail carrier between the train and the post-office, visited the latter Monday. Mr. Falk visited Portland as a deputy sheriff, having in custody four bunchgrass bootleggers, who will be investigated by the U. S. grand jury.

Mrs. Fred Geisler and children of 58th avenue left the latter part of the week for a visit with relatives in Union County. She will spend about six with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Hall of Park, and a sister, Mrs. Elmer Hall, at La Grande. Her parents and sister formerly were residents of Lents, where Mr. Hall was in the livery business.

Raymond Mollitt, who was seriously injured at the United Mattress factory about a month ago, and who was taken to St. Vincents hospital for treatment, was able to leave the hospital and to take up an indefinite residence in the home of his father, Chas. Mollitt of 4629 63rd street. Mr. Mollitt's hand is healing gradually but some of the bones are still uncovered. He lost three fingers by the accident.

Mrs. E. Cox sold her home at 9302 56th avenue last week, to J. J. Johnson of Portland, and left Saturday last for Spokane, where she will join her husband who is a train man on the O. W. R. and N. railway. Little Joey Gobel who has been staying at her home in this city for some time will go to his grandparents, who live at Myrtle Point, Coos county. Mrs. Cox will return in September and expects to reside at Tremont station.

Mrs. J. W. Eggiman was agreeably surprised last Friday morning when her brother, Harvey Kuenzie, recently discharged from the U. S. Navy, rang the doorbell. Young Kuenzie saw two years service with Uncle Sam as a sailor, and was enroute to his old home at Silverton, where his parents reside. The visit was invested with a tinge of romance, when Miss Kuenzie, Mr. Kuenzie's fiancee from Silverton arrived to meet the returning sailor boy. After a short visit the twin departed for Silverton, and in due time it is believed, wedding bells will be heard in the prosperous little city of Silverton, through which flows the sparkling waters of Silver Creek.

On April 26 Blanch Porter, three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Porter died at the family residence at 7112 83rd street. Funeral services were conducted at the Kenworthy chapel April 28 at 2 p. m., interment following at Rose City cemetery.

Found
Door key on Foster road near library. Finder may have same by calling at the Herald office.

THE ODOR OF FRYING SMELT PERVADES LENTS

News came Saturday that the over-due smelt run was in progress in the classic waters of the Sandy, and created a ripple of excitement among fishermen and housewives of Lents. Sunday was "smelt day" without doubt. All sorts of vehicles from horse and buggy to the speedy automobile were brought into requisition, and sped on their way. Many also went out of curiosity to see the great crowds of fishermen in action with all sorts of devices for scooping up the foolish but toothsome fishes. By night the odor of frying smelt pervaded the atmosphere of a perfect spring Sunday, and the sport of taking the multitude of the finny tribe will continue for several days. Many successful fishermen on Sunday remembered their less fortunate neighbors. It goes without saying that the numerous kiddies who went on the excursion, enjoyed the occasion to the limit.

KERN PARK C. E. SOCIETY STARTED CONTEST SUNDAY

The Kern Park C. E. society launched their "Beat 'Em All" race last Sunday evening. This contest promises to be not only interesting but beneficial to the society. The points to be considered are membership, first degree C. E., quiet hour and co-workers, tenth legioners, life work recruits, pre-prayer service and social service.

"How to Show Sympathy" is the topic for meeting next Sunday evening. Miss Frieda Long will lead. The society meets every Sunday evening at 6:30 at the Kern Park Christian church, 46th avenue and 69th street.

SURPRISE PROGRAM GIVEN AT FOURTH U. B. CHURCH

Last Thursday evening at the Fourth United Brethren church there was a surprise program at a W. M. A. meeting, the numbers of which were as follows: "Thanksgiving Ann," a dialogue by Mesdames Schellhaus and Garretson, Miss Lydia Frey and Fred Hewitt. A "wonder" box was conducted by Mrs. C. P. Blanchard, recitations were given by children, and Mrs. E. O. Shepherd, of the state cabinet of the W. M. A., spoke. Refreshments concluded the evening.

THREE STREETS SLATED FOR IMPROVEMENTS AT ARLETA

Street improvements are now under way which will result in the paving of 72nd and 67th streets. Seventy-first street is next on the list for similar improvement.

Mrs. Maud Slentz.

Funeral services were conducted at the Kenworthy mortuary chapel at 10 a. m. Tuesday last by Rev. F. R. Sibley of the Lents M. E. church, over the remains of Mrs. Maud Slentz, late of Moscow, Idaho, interment following at Mt. Scott cemetery. Mrs. Slentz had been in a sanatorium in this city for several months preceding her death. She is survived by her husband, J. M. Slentz a daughter aged 15 years and a son aged 17. The family were living at 5523 92nd street at the time of her death.

Shiloh Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., will serve a birthday dinner at noon next Saturday in honor of all comrades and members who have had birthdays in January, February or March. At the afternoon session there will be initiation. Every member is urged to be present.

For Sale

Newcomb Automatic Art and Carpet loom. All the latest improvements and attachments. Good as new. 4328 61st avenue evenings and Sunday. It.

Lost

$10 paper bill between 64th avenue and 92nd street Saturday. Finder leave at Herald office. Reward.

Mrs. Inez Gulliks, Lents Lents Millinery.

Hats in all the latest modes Flowers of every description. Feathers, ribbons, silks, crepes, braids, frames and shapes.

Takes orders for custom made corsets—Be fitted to a Barclay. Green Trading Stamps. a 16 to m 7

SUSIE MAY MILLER AND J. FRANKLIN WILSON WED

Susie May Miller and J. Franklin Wilson were married at 5 p. m. on Saturday, April 24, at 6713 Powell Valley road, Mrs. C. P. Blanchard officiating. The affair was very quiet, only a very few being present to witness the ceremony. The young couple will make their new home at Gantenbein avenue. The bride formerly lived at 27th avenue and 63rd street.

Stork Shower Given Mrs. Isham.

A surprise stork shower was tendered Mrs. Tillie Isham, 6330 85th street, Thursday, April 22. A pleasant afternoon was spent and many dainty articles were given Mrs. Isham. The guests were Mesdames Rockstad, Buc, Williamson, Groner, Olscn, Adamson, Hyland, Shultz, Leach, Minott, Kline, Woodworth, Norene, Bondeson, Martin, Hogison, E. Kildahl, Alice Kildahl, Gustavson, Iverson, Jackolson, Davis, Walker and Miss B. Kildahl and Lois Emery.

Sea Captain Visits Sister.

Bert Tarbell, a brother of Mrs. Norblad, whose son, C. B. Norblad, is proprietor of the 6th Avenue Grocery store arrived recently from Galveston, Texas, and is visiting at the Norblad home. Mr. Tarbell holds a Master Marine's certificate, and made the voyage a short time ago from Rosario, Argentine to Galveston, on a sailing vessel, as master.

Spirella Corsets

Mrs. A. Steinman is pleased to announce to the ladies of Lents that she has exclusive selling privileges of Spirella corsets. Guaranteed fittings. Service given in their own homes. Your business solicited and appreciated. Phone evenings 261-11, then call 1821. a23-m14 at the Sixth Avenue Grocery, and take a look at our fresh vegetables, fresh eggs, nice line of salt meats, canned goods, fruit, etc, and maybe you will come again. Courteous treatment and good values. Location at 8614 Woodstock ave. Phone Tabor 173.

SIXTH AVENUE GROCERY DO DROP IN

C. B. NORBLAD, Prop'r.

Automobile supplies of every kind will be found at this store. Our reputation has been built on merchandise of highest quality only.

AC

The Standard Spark Plug of the World

We can recommend the AC Carbon Proof Plug to our patrons who drive Overland, Ford and Studebaker cars. Let us install a set now and put an end to your ignition troubles.

LENTS GARAGE

AXEL KILDAHL, Proprietor.

Phone: Tabor 3459
8919 Foster Road

MARIE MORRISEY HERSELF

The famous concert contralto, whose finished artistry has captivated a whole continent, is coming by special arrangement to Lents. Her personal appearance makes this the musical event of the season.

Yeager Theatre, Lents,

Ninety-Second Street

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 4

FREE TICKETS

Call, write or telephone us for free tickets of admittance. They will be issued in order of application.

MT. SCOTT DRUG COMPANY, LENTS
Ninety-second Street, near Carline

If you wish an Edison Phonograph pay whatever is convenient for you down, the balance in small monthly payments.

We Take Liberty or Victory Bonds at their face value

Important Notice

Commencing Monday, May 3, 1920, we will accept Temporary Liberty Loan Bonds for exchange for Permanent Liberty Loan Bonds

Multnomah State Bank
Lents Station Portland, Ore.