OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Happenings of the Week From All Parts of the State Briefly Sketched for Information of The Herald Readers.

The total registration of voters in Lane county at the present time is 16,756.

Several employes of the state library at Salem have been granted salary increases.

John W. Todd, superintendent of Salem public schools, has been elected president of the Salem Rotary club.

A sturgeon so large that it required the united efforts of three men to get it out of the water has been caught near Oregon City.

Attorney General Brown has given an opinion that there is no law in Oregon to prevent a man or woman from working on Sunday.

Superintendent J. A. Churchill has returned from a tour in Eastern Oregon in the interest of the educational institution measures.

Roy W. Finseth, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Finseth of Dallas committed suicide by shooting himself with a 38-caliber revolver.

Miss Pauline Kline, of Corvallis, will be reappointed as a member of the board of inspectors of child labor when her present term expires on May 21.

A definite price, according to shippers, has been set on contracted apple boxes for the year. The shooks will cost the growers from 28 to 30 cents.

The Jersey Calf club at Shedd will exhibit on May 6. Fourteen of 29 members are owners of registered purebred heifers, and the rest own high grades.

The Union and Baker county forest fire patrol associations are to be divided into two separate organizations, according to F. A. Elliott, state forester.

On the ruins of the mill burned last fall at Enterprise, the East Oregon Lumber company has built a larger mill, which will begin operations about May 15.

Fire resulting from an explosion in the engine room of the mill of the Buehner Lumber company plant at North Bend did damage estimated at $125,000.

The spring fishing season on the Columbia river opened at noon Saturday, May 1, and there were fully 2000 gill-net and trolling boats in the water on that day.

A cherry banquet is proposed by the chamber of commerce of The Dalles for Shriners who pass through that city on June 21. Cherries in all styles will be served.

Seventeen cents a pound for strawberries and 11 cents a pound for cherries were the offers made Willamette valley fruitgrowers at Salem Saturday by Puyallup buyers.

Wilson B. Blain, 72 years old, and a member of one of Oregon's earliest pioneer families, is dead at Dayton, Ohio, according to news just received by a brother at Albany.

Lee Hollenbeck, 20, and Frank Lewis, 22, employed on the steamer Relief, were drowned in the Coquille river while loading milk on the boat at the Panter landing near Lampa.

Bend builders expect a record year for 1920. Permits for construction issued to date total $103,480, as against $49,975, the value of building authorized up to this time last year.

Mrs. Sophie Fors, 43, wife of Charles Fors, Astoria contractor, was instantly killed when the automobile in which she and her husband were riding turned over a few miles south of Astoria.

Registration in Douglas county totals 3888, of which 5686 registered as Republicans and 2576 as Democrats.
The total registration for the November election is expected to exceed 12, 000.

Being short handed in his office, while the coming election itself vastly adds to his duties, Sam A. Koser, candidate for secretary of state, will not be able to leave his duties to make an active campaign.

The Oakridge Lumber company, which recently bought 7,000,000 feet of timber in the Cascade national forest above Oakridge, has the ground cleared for the erection of its mill, three miles from that town.

The work of paving that section of the Pacific highway extending northward from Albany to the boundary line between Linn and Marion counties at the Santiam river at Jefferson will be resumed in a few days.

Fish lake and Clear lake, near the summit of the Cascades, about 75 miles southeast of Albany, are to be made accessible to auto tourists by the forest service, working in connection with state and county on the road over the Santiam pass.

Lumber shipments from the Columbia river during April were the largest for several months. In that period 25 vessels loaded at the mills in the lower river district and 12 vessels loaded 14,318,292 feet of lumber at the up-river mills, making a grand total of 34,146,870 feet of lumber which left the Columbia river in cargoes during the month of April.

A carload of thoroughbred Jersey stock, recruited from farms in Linn and Polk counties, was shipped from Albany by express to Payette, Idaho, for distribution in that state. Thirty-six cows and six calves were included in the shipment.

Independent or any other legal voter who is registered or may be registered upon election day, has a lawful right to vote upon the measures to be submitted at the special election on May 21, according to a legal opinion given by Attorney-General Brown.

The Seufert cannery, near The Dalles, states that, owing to the extreme low water in the Columbia, fish wheels are practically useless. Snow fishing, however, will not be interfered with. Sufficient water for wheel fishing by late June is predicted.

Union streetcar employes of Portland voted to accept the proposal of the company providing for a small increase in wages for a few shopmen and retaining the present wage scale of the platform men for another year. Negotiations have been going on several weeks.

A request for the sale of an additional $1,500,000 of state highway bonds under the provisions of the 1920 amendment to the Bean-Barrett act to meet federal aid for post roads and forest projects was filed with the state board of control by the state highway commission.

James T. Jardine, well-known investigator for the United States department of agriculture and author of many practical government bulletins, has been unanimously elected director of the Oregon Agricultural experiment station. He is expected to assume his duties July 1.

Because of the high prices demanded by growers for their 1920 loganberry crop, the management of the Puyallup & Sumner Fruit Growers' Canning company announced that the corporation has withdrawn from the Willamette valley and will purchase no more fruit in this section.

An initiative petition asking for a place on the November ballot for a proposed single tax amendment to the state constitution was filed with the secretary of state's office by J. R. Herman, manager of the Oregon State Single Tax league. The petition contains the names of 14,685 voters.

The sundry civil bill as reported to the house by the appropriations committee, carries $170,000 for continuing construction and maintenance on the Umatilla irrigation project and $289,- 000 for the Klamath project. Crater lake national park receives $25,300, and the fish culture station at Clackamas, $9364.

More than 80 witnesses will be called for examination and seven lawyers will be engaged in the trial of Harold Howell, which started in the circuit court before Judge S. Coke at Coquille Monday morning. This is the third trial of the 15-year-old Bandon youth, who is charged with murdering Lillian Leuthold last July.

Farm laborers of Baker county are severely criticised in a report issued by the United States department of agriculture. The statistics show that the supply of farm labor this year is 79 per cent of what it was last year, and is now 69 per cent of normal. The present demand for farm labor is 114 per cent compared with that of last year, and 127 per cent compared with the normal demand.

A "gravel hauling picnic" which will have practical results as well as providing a day of good fellowship and enjoyment, will be staged in the near future by the residents of the Oakville neighborhood, southwest of Albany.
The plan is for the men of the neighborhood to spend the day hauling and spreading gravel on certain roads in the vicinity. A big picnic dinner will be served at noon.

Because of the inability of the Salem Fruit Union to handle the fast-increasing crops of Marion county without expanding large sums of money for improvements, and the keen competition that has developed between canneries and packing plants in the local field, 296 members of the organization, at a meeting held in Salem, authorized the directors to take immediate steps to dispose of the union's property.

At a meeting at Astoria of representatives of all the canneries and cold storage plants on the Columbia river, with two exceptions, the prices per pound to be paid for raw fish during the season which opened at noon Saturday were set as follows: Chinooks weighing over eight pounds, 12 cents; those under eight-pounds to be refused; steelheads, 9 cents; blue-backs, 9½ cents; silversides, 3 cents; shad, 1 cent; white sturgeon, 10 cents, green sturgeon, 5 cents.

Because the state highway commission apportioned to some counties of Oregon sums of money in excess of that raised through the uniform tax levy of 1 mill for market roads while to other counties were apportioned funds in amounts smaller than derived through their respective levies, A. D. Leedy, district attorney of Grant county has filed with the state highway department a written protest. He urges a re-distribution of the market road funds together with the granting of such other relief for Grant county as the commission may deem advisable.

Charles S.
Rudeen
Republican Candidate for
COUNTY COMMISSIONER

If I am nominated and elected I will give for the benefit of the county of Multnomah a business administration of county affairs, endeavoring to eliminate useless and expensive conflicts between city and county governments, to the end that county affairs may be more economically conducted, the tax rate lowered and by cooperation with the city of Portland the public be better served.
I direct your attention to my thirty years' record as a business man in Portland as a guarantee that I will be able to perform the duties of such office.
