In Memory of the Brave

Today the earth is dressed in green, And dacked with sweetest flowers And all the sky smiles overhead To bless this land of ours.

Above the fields of former strife Now starts the waving grain, And all is bloom and light and life

Bring sweetest flowers to deck the grave Where their noble forms are laid; Bring amaranthe and evergroon, Not those that early fade.

Plant myrtle and forget-me-nots, And roses white and red; Twine laurel wreaths about the sti Where sleep our martyred dead.

All this we do in memory Above their sacred dust, While they, 'mid flowers sweeter Rejoice today, we trust.

May children's shildren every In this same work delight, And hold this day in secredne To freedom, truth and right.

PAVING WORK IS AT STANDSTILL ON 72ND AVENUE

Work, which originally contemplated the improvement of 60th avenue a distance of 10 blocks, has been discontinued, pending agreement of the city and street car line as to the responsibility for the improvement. About one block has been paved at Tremont. The contractors have much equipment and material on the ground. No one seems to know, however, when the work will be continued.

The splendid support of the elementary school law in the recent election, on the part of the public generally, and particularly here in Lents, will certainly stimulate the teachers to their very best efforts for the children in the times to

One of the pleasant surprises of the week was the flower shower given the principal by the pupils of Miss Chapman's and Miss Mancur's rooms. In a very few minutes the office was transformed into a real bower of fragrant blooms of roses, flags, snowballs and Scotch broom.

There was an exhibit last week at the Mt. Scott Herald office which consisted of drawings, work in sewing and work in manual training. Louise Milligan, Paulina Brash and Mildred Jurich of the 7b were models for their own dresses made in sewing class at school.
