CHAUTAQUA CLUB HELD LAST MEET- ING OF THE YEAR

The Chautauqua Club held its farewell meeting at the Lents Library Thursday afternoon, May 27. Before the program a dainty luncheon was served. While the members were still seated at the table Mrs. Jasper sang "Way Down Upon the Swane River," as an introduction to the subject for the day, which was "The Negro in Literature and Art." Later Mrs. Inez C. Richardson, in the following gracefully rhymed speech, presented Mrs. Jasper, the club leader, with a gift as a token of the club's appreciation:

"I've been asked to make a speech—I really don't know why. Many are better fitted to do that than I. But I will do the best I can, although it's not my bent, hoping that you will overlook my great embarrassment."

"We've met in this chautauqua class for very near a year. It has been a time of profit as well as much cheer. We've traveled through America, we've been to Mexico, and we are all much wiser than we were a year ago. We've been to France, to England, and to the Sunny South; we've settled many problems—that is, by word of mouth.

"We've visited with Franklin, with Washington, Rochambeau, with Lafayette, Foch and Lincoln, and many another hero. We've entered the world of letters, of literature and art; religion, science, politics—all have played their part.

"And now the year is ended and we each will go our way, till we meet again for study on some October day. But ere we part and say good-bye, before our long vacation, I'm asked to bring this token of our appreciation. 'Tis but a very simple gift—a trifle—it is true; and measures not the high esteem that we all have for you. But we trust that you'll accept it, and not alone what may be, but take the love that goes with from this C. L. S. C."

The club dispersed, feeling that much of the success of the year's work was due to Mrs. Jasper and to the interest taken by Miss Fleming in obtaining material for the topics.

Those present were Mesdames F. M. Jasper, I. F. Coffman, J. C. Mohr, D. H. McKinley, M. E. Stewart, J. H. McSloy, O. E. Lent, Inez C. Richardson, Sibley, Wilson, J. H. Donaldson, A. E. Hamilton, and the Misses Esther Fleming, Claire McKinley, Clara Jasper and Grace Ernisse, of Buffalo, N. Y., who was a guest of Miss Fleming.

CAR TRACKS BEING MOVED AT TREMONT

The work of moving the car tracks on 72nd avenue between 60th street and Foster road was begun Wednesday morning after a delay of a couple of weeks. The street car company claimed they did not have the funds to complete the work, but finally agreed to go ahead with it in preference to having the city take the work over and finish it. It is said the cost of the improvement to the company will amount to about $33,000. This was one of the items which the measures voted down at the special election proposed should be taxed to the business concerns down town which benefit chiefly from the street car system. The company is now asking that the fares be raised to eight cents so the car riders can pay for this and other similar improvements.

Chicago Opens Its New Boulevard Bridge

After a delay of twenty years, an expenditure of over ten million dollars and more than 39,000 lawsuits and compromises, Chicago celebrated the formal opening of the new double-decked bascule bridge linking the north and south end of Michigan boulevard, thereby giving the city one of the longest and most beautiful drives in the world. Over 10,000 automobiles decorated with flowers crossed the bridge shortly after it was declared open by Mayor Thompson.

"C. H. Dolson, Lents, Ore.
"Dear Sir: Kindly accept my congratulations on the quality of milk you have put on the market this month (May). Two counts, one of 6300 and one of 8300. This should be encouraging to you. It certainly is to me. Respectfully,

H. E. BLOYD CASHIER OF NEW STATE BANK AT TROUTDALE

The Troutdale State Bank opened its doors Tuesday of this week for business. O. J. Hawkenson, a banker of many years' experience, formerly assistant cashier of the State Bank of Portland, from which he retired last year to devote his attention to the lumber industry and home building, is president of the bank. H. E. Boyd, formerly with the Multnomah State Bank, is cashier and will be in active charge of the institution. The bank owns its own building, which has just been completed, and it is attractively furnished with quarter-sawn oak fixtures. The many friends of Mr. Boyd in the Mt. ## POST AND CIRCLE THANK CITIZENS FOR COURTESIES

Lents, Ore., June 2, 1920.
Editor Mt. Scott Herald:
In behalf of Shiloh Circle and Reuben Wilson Post, G. A. R., I want to thank Lee Gatsky, Mr. Kiser, R. J. Goodman and the Mt. Scott Cemetery Association and Mr. Pierce for their kindness in furnishing autos to take those who went to the different cemeteries for the purpose of decorating the graves of the Civil War veterans on Sunday, May 30. We appreciate this more than words can express. The comrades are getting old, and cannot hike to those cemeteries on foot and carry flowers to decorate 140 graves, which was the number decorated in the Multnomah and Mt. Scott cemeteries. Mr. Pierce, whose time went wrong, did not report in time, but we appreciate his intentions just the same. We wanted six autos. I put a piece in your paper for autos. Only four offered their services, so we had to apply to the Mt. Scott Cemetery Association for their big bus. After that Mr. Kenworthy offered two autos, and we thank him for that, and will remember it next year at Memorial time.

JOHN WALROD,
Commander.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL TO OPEN AT MILLARD AVE.

Beginning June 16 and running for three weeks, closing July 7, there will be held in the Millard avenue Presbyterian church, the most nearly central church, a daily vacation bible school. This school will have for its object the instruction of boys and girls in the scriptures. This end will be attained by attractive means, including clay modeling, hymn illustrating, story illustrating, sand table work, and dramatization. The personnel of the faculty is as follows:

Principal, and primary teacher, Miss Georgia Parker, associate secretary of the Oregon State Sunday School Association; chairman of the local committee, Mrs. J. J. Handsaker, pastor of the Laurelwood Congregational church; teacher of intermediate boys, Rev. E. A. Smith, of the Lents Baptist church; teacher of junior boys, Rev. Mixsell, of the Anabel Presbyterian church; teacher of intermediate girls, Mrs. Henderson, of Woodmere; teacher of beginners, Mrs. Belmore, of the Arleta Baptist church; teacher of junior girls, Miss A. E. Hollingworth.

Assistants to these teachers will include Mesdames C. M. Williamson, Minnie Collins and Myra Zehring. There will be a class for high school students, and if there are enough adults in the district who would like to attend a class held once or twice a week, Mrs. Handsaker will see that such a class is formed.

Watch for the minute-men who are to go to every church, morning and evening next Sunday, to announce the school. Listen for the automobiles which with trumpeters may make the round of the district in the interests of the school some time before the opening day.

Last Sunday the "minute-man" service in behalf of the daily vacation bible school included Mesdames J. J. Handsaker, Sadie Orr Dunbar, M. Frances Swope and Myra Zehring, and Messrs. J. J. Handsaker, Ward Swope, Chas. Guthrie, Scheuerman, Purviance, Pratten and Mellindy.

THOUSANDS HONOR DEPARTED FRIENDS

Thousands of Portland people observed Decoration day by visiting the different cemeteries of the city and decorating the graves of relatives or friends. A general complaint was the scarcity of flowers, which are usually plentiful at this time of the year. Many Lents people repaired to the well-kept Mt. Scott cemetery on Monday, where the local Grand Army post decorated the graves of Civil War veterans.

AUTO KITCHENETTE IS INVENTED BY RESIDENT OF LENTS

Messrs. Galloway and Phil Holmes and families spent Sunday at Pacific City, where they tried fly-casting for Chinook salmon. The big fish had not started to run, however, in large numbers, and the party was not very successful. They say that it is a little too early—a week or two later will be better. On the headwaters of the North Yamhill river the party found trout taking the fly in good shape, and got a nice lot of them in the short time given to the sport. Mr. Galloway has perfected a new auto kitchenette which is attached to the running board of the machine. It is different from anything hitherto attempted and has proved to be a big success.

KERN PARK MAN ONCE SERVED WITH ADMIRAL BEATTY

On the wall of a real estate office in Kern Park are two oil paintings which attracted the attention of a Herald reporter this week. One represents an old English pilot brig riding out a white squall off the coast of Newfoundland. The other is a pastoral scene showing a landscape of the famous Berkshire Hills in England. The first picture was painted by the present head of the English navy, now Lord Beatty; the second, by the admiral's mother when in her 76th year. Both pictures were given to Peter Larsen, of Kern Park, who was second officer under Captain Beatty on Pilot Brig No. 33, when the future head of the British navy was in his 21st year. The brig usually covered about 100 miles up and down the rugged coast of Newfoundland, and each boat carried 12 pilots, who met and piloted incoming vessels into the British North American ports.

The second picture was presented to Mr. Larsen by the admiral's mother, and Mr. Larsen corresponded with his former fellow officer up to about four years ago. Mr. Larsen's service with the present lord admiral lasted for 18 months, and a warm friendship resulted which has held during the many years that have intervened.

Mr. Larsen later served in the navy of the United States, and while now a dry land sailor, he holds a master's certificate, and in moments of reverie there come to him the swish of the waves and the weird song of the wind through the rigging, which for the moment quickens the pulse of the hardy Norseman, and causes a new light to come into his eyes, only to be reminded by his external surroundings and age that his sailor days are over.
