ADDITIONAL LOCALS

The Associated Industries of Oregon will soon launch another campaign.

Frances Schmidt of 6216 93rd street, who was seriously ill with whooping cough, is recovering.

Herbert Peterson returned early this week from a two week visit in Seattle, Tacoma and other Sound cities.

Fred Boster and family expect to leave this week for Seattle, Wash. Mr. Boster is a brother of Mrs. Ash of the Lents Delicatessen shop.

The sewer on 62nd street is now finished and that street has once more been opened to traffic from Foster road to Powell Valley road.

Mrs. Frank Snuffin of Lennox avenue, who has been confined to her bed for more than a month past, is still quite sick.

J. Goschie has painted the house belonging to Mrs. C. A. Updike, on Gilbert road, greatly improving the appearance of the place.

Oregon has 65 varieties of commercial wood. We need more factories in the state to work up the commercial wood.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Linwood, of Chehalis, Wash., Thursday, July 8 an 11 1-4 pound girl. The Linwoods formerly lived east of Lents on the Gilbert road.

A wild eyed lunatic, armed with a pitchfork, escaped from the asylum at Salem last week, and is at large somewhere in the northern part of Marion county.

Mrs. F. R. Peterson and daughter, Miss Nina, left Lents Monday night for an extended visit with relatives in South Dakota. They expect to be gone until early fall.

The street car company has been improving its roadbed between Lents and Gray's Crossing this week, by substituting new ties and otherwise fixing up the track.

"You would be surprised at the number of articles left in the theatre here every night," said the janitor of the Yeager theatre, the other morning, as he swept off the pavement. "They comprise everything from coats, handkerchiefs, packages, wearing apparel, combs, umbrellas, gloves to a hairpin. One lady left a pair of overshoes here over a year ago. She said she would call for them but they are still here."

Jimmy Henderson Breaks Arm
While picking cherries on his father's farm out in Happy Valley, Thursday forenoon, Jimmy Henderson, aged 13, son of the superintendent of the Lents postoffice, fell from a tree to the ground a distance of about 12 feet, fracturing the right forearm. The boy was brought to town where the fracture received medical attention.

Y. P. A. Holds Business Meeting

The Y. P. A. of the Lents Evangelical church held their monthly business meeting at the home of H. R. Scheuerman, Tuesday evening. During the business session, delegates were elected to attend the convention at Jennings Lodge camp ground, August 4 and 5. A good social time was had and refreshments consisting of cantaloupe and Bing cherries were served. Special music is one of the features of every Sunday evening service.

Topic July 18, "Why People Are Unhappy: The Cure." All welcome. The Annual Camp Meeting will begin at Jennings Lodge Camp Ground, July 27, and will continue over August 5. Mr. Culver will be glad to furnish information to any one regarding camping privileges.

COULD FILL THE BILL

Fly: Hey Willie Firefly, they want a bright boy down where I live. Why don't you go after the job.

A SAD STATE.
Why, what is the matter, Mabel, you look like you didn't have a friend?
That is it exactly. I have about as many friends as an alarm clock.

A new gun bought by the French government has a range of 120 miles, and France doesn't say whom she'd like to try it on—but she doesn't have to.

Watch Your Step

Watch your step, as you step onward in life's journey! And your step will be more certain, if a bank account backs up the "going."
A dog may be a man's best friend, but it is short lived. A bank account live and thrives and multiplies as the years go by. It is your best friend when you need a friend most, "a friend in need is a friend indeed."
