PUBLISHER'S NOTICE

The new management of the Herald has been very busy since taking charge, adding new machinery and overhauling the mechanical department of the office, and within a short time hopes to have the office in condition to handle every class of printing, from a visiting card to a full sheet poster, and in the meantime have more leisure to assist in making the paper more complete in every department. Next week the Herald will be at least eight pages, replete with the local news of the community, and as a special feature will publish the semi-annual report of the county auditor of Multnomah county which will alone be worth the price of subscription to many of our readers. We trust that the merchants of this community will show an earnest of appreciation by investing in space in the columns of this newspaper, which will be bread cast upon the waters to be returned many fold for the small amount invested.
