E. P. Tobin and family are on a trip by auto to California, and expect to be gone until sometime in September. A card to friends here early this week stated that the party was held up at Roseburg for three days on account of gasoline shortage.

A WORD TO PATRONS.

The Mt. Scott Herald, after being published four issues by the present proprietor, has ascertained beyond a doubt that the rates heretofore charged for advertising in some issues has been entirely too low to pay the cost of publication and leave a reasonable profit on the investment. While the price of about everything else produced has gone up from 50 to 200 per cent and up, the average country publisher and printer has been loth to join the procession of profiteers. But when he gets to the bottom of his bank account he will necessarily follow the procession, or be obliged to quit business.

The Herald will endeavor to do business on business principles, under the present regime, and in order to do so will be obliged to raise the rates in some instances very slightly—about 10 per cent.

Our utmost endeavor is to give the people of this locality the full worth of their money in every instance. The old saw, that "Once there was a rich country printer," goes without saying as one of the richest jokes ever printed, yet, it is a truism, beyond peradventure that a newspaper cannot be run this day of our Lord, A. D. on good looks and "great expectations."

GILBERT RESIDENTS TO HAVE ADEQUATE WATER SUPPLY

Residents of the Gilbert section just east of Lents will vote on Sept. 18 on the matter of organizing a water district to secure an adequate water supply from the city. The territory begins just east of Lents Junction and extends a considerable distance eastward to the Gilbert section. It is expected that the county commissioners will approve of the scheme. A petition signed by 100 residents asks for the improvement. Later, a bond issue of $30,000 will be voted upon.

FREE TONE TEST AT THE YEAGER THEATRE SEPT. 13

The Edison Phonograph Company through their representatives, Miss Verlet, singer, and two gentlemen skilled with the pianoforte and violin, will appear in a Tone Test at the Yeager Theatre on the evening of September 13. Miss Verlet as one of the Edison Company's leading singers, and the violin and piano artists are of high reputation in their respective roles. Evidently, Lents will enjoy a musical treat on the above date. The event promises to be the leading one of the summer season. The Mt. Scott Drug Company is in charge of the preparations. Further notice will be given through the medium of the Herald.

MRS. MILLAGE MILLER

The funeral of Mrs. Millage Miller, who died the latter part of last week at her daughter's home on Gilbert road, occurred on August 3, at the Kenworthy chapel, where services were held by Rev. E. A. Smith of the Lents Baptist church, with interment following in the Mt. Scott cemetery. Deceased was past 70 years of age, and had been ill for some months prior to her death. Surviving her are two daughters, and a son: Mrs. Lillian Womack and Mrs. Julia Stevens both of Portland, and Harley Miller of Oregon City.

UNCLE JEFF SNOW SAYS:

Talkin' of profiteerin', some of our berry growers would of thought a few years back that 7 cents fer raspberries was highway robbery. They would of sooner got 'em a gun and gone to collectin' what the world owed 'em, on the highway. And here they are a-payin' 3 cents fer pickin' which was more'n what they got along about 1912, and pocketin' 22 cents as calmly ez a three-card-monte man in Nevady one time put away $80 I had worked hard fer. I know a feller up above Lents that uster rage and rair about the way big business crucified labor on a cross of gold, who sold 600 pounds of Royal Ann's at 10 cents, and meanwhile cussed the profiteers that has run up the price of wire and nails.—Oregon Journal.

Leo Jessen of Los Angeles, son-in-law of Mrs. Theckla Bright, the latter at one time a resident of Lents, spent a few days visiting with Mrs. Tom Mc Sloy of this place, leaving Monday last for Seattle, and other Washington points.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Smith of San Francisco visited friends in Lents recently, returning home last week. While here they made their headquarters at the Charles Turner home. The Smith family lived on 71st ave., or what was then known as Hill street eight years ago.

JUST A FEW LINES—think them seriously over:

In regard to your "Lizzy," if you are her lover. She needs overhauling, from one end to the other, the same as her sister, father and mother. Her brother was in for a Lee cord tire, her sister is here for some spark plugs and wire. Her cousin is badly in need of a coil; her other relatives are using our oil. We carry a stock of things you use; such as tires, tubes and inside shoes. Our lines are: Lee, Crescent and Fisk—our guarantee with them—you take no risk. Your money refunded, if they don't satisfy. Just come down to the Junction and give us a try.

You can get us by phone, day or night. Ask for Dan or Hugo. Tabor 6168.

Come In!

Let the NEW EDISON Show
You the Difference Between Two
Famous Violins

Every violin, like every human voice, has its individual tonal quality. For instance, the Guarnerius, used by Albert Spalding, the great American violinist, has a brilliant, singing tone. The Stradivarius, owned by Carl Flesch, the famous European violinist, has a deep, rich, mellow tone.

You would recognize the tonal difference of these two famous violins, if you could hear them played side by side. You can hear and compare them, because both Spalding and Flesch have made RE-CREATIONS of "Ave Maria" for the New Edison.

Come in and listen to these RE-CREATIONS. See if you can distinguish one violin from the other. See if you are impressed with the Supreme Realism of the New Edison, as were the three composers who tested it in New York City. This jury of three listened from behind a screen, while Spalding played in direct comparison with the RE-CREATION of his performance by the New Edison.

Mr. Henry Hadley, who wrote the opera, "Cleopatra's Night," said for the jury: "The RE-CREATION matched Mr. Spalding's performance, tone for tone."

Prices May Change!

So ask about our Budget Plan for buying the New Edison now. Conditions may force a price increase. Thus far, Mr. Edison has, personally, absorbed more than one half of the increased cost of manufacture. The New Edison has advanced in price less than 15% since 1914.
