OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Happenings of the Week From All Parts of the State Briefly Sketched for Information of The Herald Readers.

The new crop of wheat is beginning to arrive at Astoria, whence it will be exported.

The Coon and Curry county fair closed a successful session of four days Saturday.

The Christian Endeavor rally for southern Oregon held a two days session at Ashland.

Attendance in the Grants Pass schools has increased nearly 22 per cent over last year.

Poultry culling demonstrations will be held in Wasco county for three days beginning October 16.

Citizens of Jacksonville have started a movement to resist the removal of the county seat to Medford.

Recent rains swelled the Santiam river and the Brown-Petzel Lumber company lost a number of logs.

Mrs. J. M. Lane of Roseburg has completed a 40 days' fast. During the time she lost 25 pounds in weight.

Four stores at Gaston were robbed last week. The robbers took considerable merchandise but little cash.

The capital stock of the Spaulding Logging company of Salem has been increased from $150,000 to $2,500,000.

A marked decrease in orders is noted by the Bend lumber factories coincident with the raise in freight rates.

The false work of the new Mehama-Lyons bridge over the Santiam river, near Lyons, has been washed out, causing considerable loss.

A flow of natural gas was discovered on the farm of A. M. Zink a few miles north of Iona, which has created considerable interest.

Glen Sawyer, 35 years old, a mechanic employed by the Oregon Pulp & Paper company, was drowned in the Willamette river at Salem.

It is estimated that the apples from the Mosier district this year will total 50,000 boxes as compared to a yield of 125,000 boxes last year.

County Fruit Inspector Armstrong of Douglas county has issued to fruit growers and dealers a warning to discontinue the sale of diseased fruit.

The annual conference of officers of the Oregon Y. M. C. A. will be held at Hood River September 25 and 26. From 75 to 100 delegates are expected.

Rains are proving harmful to ranchers in Crook county who have not stacked their second crop of hay. Hundreds of tons are still on the ground.

Under a decision of the state board of control neither the students nor employes of the state school for the blind will be held under fast and set rules.

An increase in salaries of teachers at the state schools for deaf and blind approximating 25 per cent has been approved by the state board of control.

Damage to the extent of between $50,000 and $65,000 was done to the apple crop of the Umpqua valley when a severe wind storm struck that section.

The first official act of the new motorcycle cop added to the Roseburg police was to arrest a member of the city council for exceeding the speed limit.

A. E. Woolpert, Northwest manager for English apple merchants, says the export demand for Hood River Newtowns will result in prices satisfactory to growers.

On Tuesday the Prineville Sunday schools made a joint canvass of the city in the interest of the Sunday schools in particular and the church in general.

As a result of high water, it is probable that the new steel bridge across the Santiam river, being built by Linn and Marion counties, will not be finished this year.

The postmaster of Bend reports a 40 per cent increase in the amount of mail passing through his office over last year. Cancellations are now averaging 3500 daily.

Albany's community house was opened Friday night with a big reception, which was attended by hundreds of local people and a number from Corvallis and Lebanon.

Among the early-day exhibits at the Lane county fair this week will be a drum that was made 61 years ago at Waupaca, Wis., and that still has one of the original heads.

Negotiations are reported to be pending at Klamath Falls for the merging of three banks. The combination would be the largest bank in the state outside of Portland.

The Sherman county farm burpau will unload at Moro an 8000 gallon car of gasoline. The supply will be sold at 30 cents per gallon, as against the local price of 42 cents.

Initiative petitions are being circulated in Deschutes county, asking for a permanent county seat. Both Lake and Redmond want to be the county seat.

The Astoria school board has requested the county board of equalization to increase the assessment roll 50 per cent in order that the port commission may be able to issue sufficient bonds to complete projects in hand.

Frank Minney of Vida has been appointed as superintendent of the state fish hatchery on the upper McKenzie river in Lane county to succeed Matt L. Ryckman, who has been named as superintendent of all state trout hatcheries.

An unknown man who was found dead at the foot of a high cliff on the highway west of Goble Saturday evening, committed suicide by jumping off the cliff. At the top of the cliff his hat and a bottle of carbolic acid were found.

A vent which developed a few weeks ago in the bottom of Pamela lake, near Mt. Jefferson and which was draining the lake rapidly, endangering the large number of trout, has been stopped by employes of the United States forest service.

There was one fatality in Oregon due to industrial accidents during the week ended September 16, according to a report filed by the state industrial accident commission. The victim was Nick Musek, logger of Knappa. A total of 442 accidents were reported.

Twenty new trade unions have been formed in the state during the past year and have joined with the state federation of labor, according to the report of Otto Hartwig, president of the State Federation of Labor, which held a four-day session at Pendleton.

At a tuberculosis clinic held at the Y. M. C. A. by the Bend chapter of the Red Cross 50 per cent of the men and women examined were found to have the disease, but in a majority of cases the condition of the sufferer was improving on account of the dry Central Oregon climate.

The state land board has decided to place on the market 12,000 acres of approved state base or scrip, which can be used for the selection of any government land subject to homestead entry in Oregon. This scrip will be sold at $15 an acre in amounts not to exceed 320 acres to any one person.

Owing to the apparent growth of liquor stills throughout the state the Oregon Anti-saloon league, in cooperation with other law enforcement bodies, is said to be considering asking the next legislature for an appropriation of $50,000 to secure better enforcement of the prohibition law.

The state emergency board at a meeting held Saturday authorized deficiency appropriations aggregating $147,866, with which to defray the expenses of the various state institutions, state departments and organizations and societies receiving state aid until the next session of the legislature in January.

More than six miles of trackage is being laid in the O-W. R. & N. Co. yards at Huntington, and the yards are being extended a long distance west of the present ground occupied. A new 12-inch well is being driven to provide additional water facilities for betterment in every department of the service at this division point.

A means whereby the road construction programme for the next two years may be financed without the necessity of discounting bonds or paying out large sums in interest will be provided by a levy of a 3-mill tax on all assessable property in Douglas county for the years 1920 and 1921, providing the voters of the county approve the plan, which is to be submitted by order of the county court at the November election.

In order that every scheme now under consideration by the public and the Dalles City water commission may be thoroughly investigated and approved the services of an expert hydraulic engineer will be secured. There are now three projects under consideration: the building of a dam across Mill creek, piping water from the Deschutes river or pumping water from the middle of the Columbia at a depth of 12 feet.

DORT

Quality Goes Clear Through

TOURING CAR

Efficient and Economical on Gasoline--

We are willing to let any DORT owner speak for the car. This is a very bold statement but the DORT has earned our confidence by its consistent performance.

You, too, will be equally enthusiastic as other DORT owners, particularly so when you find it will average from 20 to 25 miles to the gallon of gasoline.

Each DORT is as good as the best ever made.

JUST A FEW LINES—think them seriously over:

In regard to your "Lizzy," if you are her lover. She needs overhauling, from one end to the other, the same as her sister, father and mother. Her brother was in for a Lee cord tire, her sister is here for some spark plugs and wire. Her cousin is badly in need of a coil; her other relatives are using our oil. We carry a stock of things you use; such as tires, tubes and inside shoes. Our lines are: Lee, Crescent and Fisk—our guarantee with them—you take no risk. Your money refunded, if they don't satisfy. Just come down to the Junction and give us a try.

You can get us by phone, day or night. Ask for Dan or Hugo. Tabor 6168.
