OREGON NEWS NOTES
OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Happenings of the Week From All Parts of the State Briefly Sketched for Information of The Herald Readers.

Mrs. Mary L. Mallett of Portland was elected president of the Oregon Woman's Christian Temperance union at the 37th annual state convention in Portland. All the other officers were re-elected. They are: Mrs. Madge J.
 Mears of Portland, corresponding secretary; Mrs. G. W. Miller of Milton, recording secretary; Mrs. Jane Donaldson of Portland, treasurer; Mrs. M.
 Frances Swope, vice-president-at-large.

As a result of a verdict returned by a circuit court jury in Pendleton in the trial of Irvin Leroy Stoop and Floyd L. Henderson, charged with the murder of Sheriff Til Taylor July 25 last, Judge G. W. Phelps sentenced the men to life imprisonment in the state penitentiary. The jury had returned a verdict of guilty of first-degree murder for both men, with a recommendation of life imprisonment.

Despite the heavy rains which materially reduced the attendance, the state fair which closed at Salem Saturday was a financial success, according to a report prepared by J. E. Mc-Clintock, cashier. Mr. McClintock's report showed that approximately 140,- 000 persons paid their way into the grounds during the week, while not less than 10,000 others were admitted on passes issued to exhibitors and employees. The cash receipts, totaling $73,200, will leave a surplus of $20,000.

Local union No. 41, International Jewelry Workers' union, has no legal right to station pickets in front of the establishments of Portland jewelry firms for the purpose of compelling them to recognize the union, according to an opinion written by Justice C. A. Johns and handed down by the Oregon supreme court. The opinion written by Justice Johns affirmed the findings of Judges Kavanaugh, Ga-tens and Stapleton, who presided at the time the case was originally heard in the circuit court for Multnomah county. In this action G. Heitkemper, a corporation, and eight other jewellers operating in Portland sought to obtain an injunction order restraining the defendants from placing pickets in front of the stores or shops of the plaintiffs.

All advertising signs within the rights of way of state roads must be removed at once, according to a letter sent out by Herbert Nunn, state highway engineer, to all division engineers. The action was taken, according to Mr. Nunn's letter, on the theory that the highways are public property and no person has a right to appropriate a part of it to his own use by posting advertising matter.

Dr. T. L. Perkins, candidate for City Commissioner, during his term as Finance Commissioner, reconstructed the different bureaus in his department by placing experienced men and women in charge to conduct them, thereby not only saving thousands of dollars to the city, but also created efficiency among the workers.
 With modern equipment which were installed in the Treasurer's office and in the license bureau, more rapid progress was made in handling the work. The doctor exacts system in all things; is constructive; fosters rather than oppresses industry and business. He is the only City Commissioner who has been the recipient of a letter of appreciation from the employees of his department eulogizing him for the interest taken, as a public official in behalf of the employees and for the welfare of the community.

CITY AND COUNTY

The tax delinquency of Multnomah county is estimated at under ten per cent, out of an entire tax roll of $12,000,000.

County employees who use their private automobiles for county business are to be re-imbursed at the rate of ten cents per mile, if the county attorney endorses the county commissioner's resolution. This does not apply to the commissioners themselves.

Dan Kellaher promises, that if elected mayor, he will immediately seek the reduction of street car rates to 5c, compel the telephone companies to render courteous and efficient service and accomplish numerous other needed reforms.

Totals of the registration of Multnomah county as reported by the county clerk are as follows: Republicans 78,163; democrats, 27,175. Of the total, 65,616 are men and 45,024 women.
