Numerous cases of petty pilfering has been reported at this office recently. Last Sunday night, quite a considerable amount of confectionery was "fished" out from the front window of the Square Deal Candy Store through a small hole in the glass of the front window. Other business establishments nearby have lost articles of different descriptions. The work is evidently that of young boys. Some of these delinquents are known and if they land in jail a little later, the parents of these boys will, probably when too late, realize that they spring have been too lax in allowing their offspring to run the streets at all hours of the night.

The NEW EDISON
"The Phonograph with a Soul"

Won't you let us give you Mr. Edison's Realism Test?

TRY this ten-minute experiment with your favorite music,—the voice or the instrument you like best. Decide if the New Edison causes you the same emotions as your favorite voice, your best-beloved instrument, or—if you prefer orchestras and bands—the harmony of many instruments.

Be seated

with your back to the New Edison. We shall hand you a printed card and an interesting scrap book. You will be asked to follow a few simple directions.

Then listen to the New Edison RE-CREATE the kind of music you ask for. When you begin to forget you are in a phonograph store,—your emotions begin to register in response. By means of them, you render your own verdict as to the New Edison's Realism.

Get your New Edison

on our Budget Plan, the better business way. Ask about it.
