$280 GIVEN To The HOME PEOPLE

$150 IN FIVE PRIZES $5.00 EACH WEEK FOR TWENTY-SIX WEEKS

Mt. Scott Herald Inaugurates Great Prize-Giving Event

Clip the Coupon in Today's Issue and Enter the Contest

The Mt. Scott Herald today makes an announcement that will be of in-terest to every reader of the paper in the Mt. Scott district. In order hat all may have an opportunity to take advantage of this prize-giving contest, the Herald will be distributed free in different communities of the Mt. Scott district, and each week the different territories will be covered, that all may become familiar with and co-operate in this great Trade-at Home Contest.

Anyone is eligible to join in this contest-men, women, young or old, excepting only employes of the Her-ald and members of their families and those whose advertisements are a part of the contest, and anyone related closely to these patrons of the Herald. During the next 26 weeks the Herald expects to more than treble its present circulation and to all contestants who send in new or renewal subscriptions a cash commis-sion of 50 cents will be paid for each one. The amount of your reward— the prize you win, whether it be the weekly or final cash prize, or large commission—depends—entirely upon the interest you have taken in the campaign.

Remember, not a cent of invest ment is necessary now or ever. It costs you nothing to enter the Trade-at-Home campaign. Neither is it necessary that anyone shall secure subscriptions to the Herald in order to enter this contest and win these prizes. But extra votes are added to the score of those contestants who do send in subscriptions.

Beginning with this issue The Herald is and will continue to be the best community newspaper in Multnomah county, and it will improve with each issue. Local happenings of the different Mt. Scott districts will be chronicied and home news will be featured. You'll like The Herald, for it will serve you and the best interests of your neighborhood. Co-operation is the life of a community, and cooperation is what The Herald asks. If you have an item of news tucked away under your bonnet, just telephone The Herald or write it to us. An efficient news reporter has recently been added to our staff and every effort will be made to cover each week every nook and corner of our field. Readers of The Herald can be of great assistance in this work of making their home newspa-

The Vote Coupons
The prizes-$280 in cash-will be distributed to those who secure the largest number of votes. In this issue is printed under the caption of "Trade-at-Home Centest" the advertisements of merchants and business men who have co-operated with the Horald to make this Trade-at-Home Contest a success. The Herald has furnished each advertiser with vote coupons, which are given with cash purchases as follows: In all places of business except bakeries, restaurants, picture shows and drug stores

50 VOTES ARE GIVEN WITH EACH 50 CENT PURCHASE In bakeries, restaurants and drug

50 VOTES ARE GIVEN WITH EACH 25 CENT PURCHASE

A coupon good for 50 votes is issued with every ticket at the Arleta and Lents picture shows. THE WEEKLY CONTEST

In the advertisements appearing in the "Trade-at-Home" section letters will be purposely omitted and in or-der to win the $5.00 cash prize each week contestants must read every ad, find the missing letters and arrange them to form the name of one of the firms entitled to issue voting coupons. The contestant each week who turns in the correct answer, together the largest number of votes, will win the $5.00 CASH AND 500 EXTRA

VOTES Every contestant sending in a correct answer each week will be credited with 500 VOTES It will pay you to read the ads, as the privilege is given everyone of having the votes credited to them-selves, their friends or any member of their family. There is no red tape connected with this contest; neatness counts for nothing, and nothing counts other than the correct answer each week, together with the largest number of votes for that particular

Five dollars each week or $180 in all, is paid to winners for 26 weeks. THE FINAL PRIZES

One hundred and fifty dollars will be distributed among the five persons who respectively stand highest in the number of votes secured during the entire 26 weeks.

$50,00 First Prize. $40.00 Second Prize. $30 Third Prize. $20,00 Fourth Prize. $10,00 Fifth Prize.

It is not necessary to compete for the panied by adults.

weekly prize in order to be in on the for anyone to win both a weekly and final prize, as all votes turned in n the weekly contests count also for the final prizes. THE HERALD COUPON

On the "Trade-at-Home" page or on some page each week will appear a coupon good for 50 votes. Cup it out and mail to the Contest Manager, the Herald, Lents, giving your name and address or that of anyone you desire entered in this contestcosts you nothing to enter this conest and by trading with the business men herein you will secure the coupons that may win for you a very aandsome cash prize. Clip the cou pon now

CASH COMMISSIONS

The price of The Herald for one year is $1.50 in advance. In order that all contestants who bring or send n an order for the paper may be well paid for their efforts, The Herald will pay a cash commission for each subscription of one year at $1.50, of

In addition to this commission, The Herald will credit 1000 extra votes o contestants who bring or send in subscription; 1000 votes for each. Strohle. And 2000 extra votes to the contestant who during the 26 weeks sends in the greatest number of subscriptions.

It is an event worth the effort of everyone. Clip the coupon in this issue, read the ads, solve the contest problem, and mail your coupon and answer to the Contest Manager, Mt. Scott Herald, Lents Station. There's no red tape. Ask the advertisers for our coupons with your purchases.

All answers to weekly contests must be in The Herald office not later than Wednesday of the week fol-lowing. The winner of the $5.00 cash prize will be announced each Friday, as will also those who send in correct

Read the Trade-at-Home page and enter the campaign now.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH NOTES

The Y. P. A. of the Lents Evangel-ical church held their monthly busi-ness meeting Monday night, at the nome of Mr. and Mrs. Donaldson. The Y. P. A. is growing in numbers and good spirit is being shown by all, The reports of the different committees ave been excellent. A birthday pro gram is being planned to raise mon-ey for the superannuation fund. Fur-ther announcement of this program will be made later.

The following persons' names were voted on for membership: Mrs. Lar-son, Mr. and Mrs. Spearon, Beatrice Scheuerman, Elizabeth Spence and Pernice Rogers, while Reuben Mor-temde, Margaret Smith, Ruby Wood and Minnie Lee were proposed for

After the business session the evenig was spent in rousing good games. Then came the eats, of which everybody had a part.

The Y. P. A. is having good times and extends an invitation to all young people who desire to come, The devotional meeting of the Y. P. A. is held every Sunday evening in the Y. P. A. room of the Evangelical The topic for next Sunday "Self Control" and "How to Ge It is a temperance lesson lead by Mr. Spearon. A special selection will be rendered by the male quartette. Everyone is cordially invited.

Rev. F. B. Culver, pastor, will preach at 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 in the evening. Sanday school at 9:45. C. E. at 6:30. All welcome.

The Sunday mornin sgermon for January 16 will be preached by the pastor from the subject: "The Way Within the Highway." The evening service will be evangelistic.

The quarterly communion service of last Sabbath morning was well attended. In connection with the Sunday evening preaching services a song and praise service is usually held. Rev. Culver, director of the For-ard Movement of the Evangelical Association church in the Oregon conference, left Tuesday for the sound country to meet and assist in this work. Rev. J. W. Heininger of Cleveland, Ohio, who is executive sec-retary of the Forward Movement of the entire church. Rev. Culver expects to return in time to occupy his pulpit Sunday.

The choir will practice Thursday night after prayer meeting.

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT

On Friday, January 21, 1921, the numbered rooms of the Lents school will give an entertainment in the assembly hall for the benefit of a fund to purchase a stereograph set and a lantern for the use of the teachers and children in their school work. In May the odd numbered rooms will have their entertainment and there is a great deal of riavlry between the two groups to see which one will put on the best program. The program for January 21 will consist of drills, songs, recitations, etc. Bills will be distributed and tickets sold early next week. program will apear in our next issue.

There will be a community dance under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher association at Lents school on Saturday evening. Children un-All votes count for the final prizes. der 18 years of age must be accom

PETER P. DeMOSS

Peter P. DeMoss died Sunday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Strohl, 88th and 65th ave-nue. Mr. DeMoss was 86 years old and came to California in 1852. fought in the Rogue River Indian uprising in 1856. In 1858 he returned to Iowa and married Mrs. Margaret Bonebrake Elder. In 1862 he went to Idaho, running a stage stand at Weiser. During the year 1865 he lived at Cove, Oregon, moving to Roseburg a little later. From there he made the trip to Coos Bay by pack-horses. After a trip back home by way of Panama, he returned to Oregon in 1899 and lived at Moro and at

Mr. DeMoss was an uncle of the famous musical DeMoss family. The funeral was at the Baptist church, Rev. E. A. Smith officiating. He was ill only part of two days.

Mr. DeMoss was a noble, cleanminded citizen, an exemplary father; one of that fine old type fast disappearing. He is survived by two sons and two daughters: John H. of Banks and P. O. of this city, Mrs. Margaret Strohle and Mrs. Myrtle Brooks of

PASSED AWAY

Miss Lurana M. Terrell, at Good amaritan hospital, January 12, 1921, at 4:20 p. m., after an illness of just four weeks, following an operation er appendical abcess.

Deceased has been the beloved pastor of Second Friends church at Lents or several years, and her demise omes as a shock to this entire com-

Three sisters and one brother sur-rive the departed: Mrs. Anna Hower of Los Angeles; Mrs. Mary Sopher of Muscatine, Iowa; Mrs. Lydia Kesler of Oskaloosa, Iowa; Samuel S. Terrell of Oskaloosa, Iowa, the former named cing the only relative present at the ime of death.

Remains at Kenworthy funeral par-ors, 5802-04, 92nd st., Lents.

Funeral services will be held at the First Friends church, Sunnyside, at p. m., Friday, Rev. Homer L. Coxficiating, after which the remains will be shipped to Oskaloosa, Iowa, for final interment.

HELP! HELP!

One way you can help Portland Community service as an organiza-We have to face the important matter of financing our work until April 1, the time the Community nest will start operations.

We have decided to put on a mam moth Portland Community ball, on Monday evening, January 17, at the municipal auditorium. This will be municipal auditorium. This will be informal, tickets $1.00 a couple. By the way, the entire floor of the auditorium will be laid so that we will have room for 2000 couples, with the wings and the stage. We expect to have this the largest and best conducted dance the city of Portland has ever seen. Will you kindly announce this affair through your paper and try to arrange for a party from your neighborhood or club

Call Main 654 and let us know how many tickets you can use. Remem-ber the two purposes behind this af-

1. To raise the $2000. We must have this amount to finance the work. WALTER R. JENKINS.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m., Supt. M. Filer. A cordial welcome to all. Morning service, 11 a. m. Address y Mr. Lyons, superintendent of department of the court of domestic re-lations. Subject: "How We ake Care of the Boys; in the Court and on the Farm." Special music by the choir. Young people's meeting at 6:30, David Francis, president Preaching service at 7:30. A feature of the evening service will be a special song service led by the leader the choir. Choir practice on Friday evening at 7:30.

The music of last Sunday added much to the service and called for expressions of pleasure from both visi tor and regular attendant.

The church will long miss the happy hearted presence of the grand old man, Peter DeMoss, who was laid away Tuesday at Eagle Creek. He was an example of what good thinking and clean and noble living will pay a man in old age. His religion was not a profession but a joyous and helpful life.

JOINT INSTALLATION

Reuben Wilson post No. 38, G. A. R., and Shiloh circle No. 19, Ladies of the G. A. R., held a joint installa-tion of officers on New Years day. Adjutant General Williams of the Department of Oregon, acted as in-stalling officers for the post and Mrs. Carrie Carter, department president, installed the officers of the circle. The new officers are: Mrs. Florence Hamlin, president; Mrs. Alice Woodworth, vice president; Mrs. Melissa Powers, junior vice president; Mrs. Anna Melvin, secretary; Mrs. Min-nie Hodge, treasurer; Mrs. Pauline Lininger, chaplain; Mrs. Huskey, pa-triotic instructor; Mrs. Lulu Schermerholm, conductor; Mrs. McGill, assistant conductor; Mrs. Docie Tussie, guard; Mrs. Graves, assistant guard.

A copy of Raphael's celebrated "Madonna," done in oil, has been donated to the Arleta branch library by Mrs. C. A. Kees, 7604 63d avenue S. E. Mrs. Kees painted this from the original, now the property of the P. A. B. Widener's heirs of Philadelphia. It has been hung on the west wall of the Arleta library and is attracting much attention. uch attention.

A collection of coins, the property of C. M. Ross, 6246 Foster road, is being displayed at this library. Many of these coins were collected or given to Mr. Ross during his trip abroad.

Story hours are held every Thursday afternoon at 3 and 4 o'clock. Miss Abigail Rice, children's librarian, is the story teller.

Many new books for children and grown-ups have been added to the grown-ups have been added to the collection at Arleta this month.

TREMONT STATION

It is generally reported that the It. Scott Park, purchased by the city everal month ago, will be put in A crew of man are to cor mence upon the work immediately, clearing off the underprush. The old feace which surrounded the park has been orn down, and already the appearance of the tract has been improved. here is in the neighborhood of fifeen acres in it, extending from 56th 72d to 74th streets in the other. Fourteen thousand dollars was the amount appropriated for the park, and it is said a swimming tank will be included among the improvements

The office of the Cable Realty Co. has been undergoing a general over-nauling and brightening up this eck, making the appearance neat and attractive. Paint and varnish was applied to the floor and walls, with Horace French doing the work, and a new linoleum is to be laid.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The Eureka Rebeckah lodge of ents held a meeting for the instalof officers recently, after ation which they were all served at a ban-quet. Those present report a fine time. The officers installed were as follows: Mrs. Hummel, noble grand; Mrs. J. W. Richison, vice grand; Mrs. Minnie Hodge, recording secretary; Mr. Goggins, financial secretary; J. Johnson, treasurer; Mrs. Johnson, inside guardian; T. N. Nelson, out-side guardian. Several visitors were present from down town.

The Ladies' Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church held their annual meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. Schulenberg, last Wednesday afternoon. After reading annual re-ports, election of officers followed. Those elected were: Mrs. Schulenberg, president; Mrs. Hineman, vice president; Mrs. Glover, secretary; Airs. White, treasurer. A socia January 20, at the home of Mrs. White, 6024 E. 90th street. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Robt. Graves and family of Cedar Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Burton of Portland, Nathan E. Graves of Norfolk, Neb., Mrs. Wm. Burris, Hum-phrey, Neb., and Will Graves of Bloomfield, Neb., have been visitors the past week at the home of their brother, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Graves of 6107 91st street. Will Graves exsettle up the estate left by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Graves. Mr. and Mrs. raised a family of thirteen children and left an estate valued at close to $50,000 to be divided among their

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Coulter, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Graves and N. E. Graves attended the Christian Endeavor rally of Multnomah county held in the First Christian church Monday evening, January 10th. Kern Park Christian church brought home the banner again. This is the second time they have won it. The United Brethren society were next highest in the contest and the third contest of the union will decide which society wins it for permanently. A splendid program was given and enjoyed by all present. The Kern Park C. E. society are a live bunch. L. L. Arnett is president.

After the dance, lunch at the Per fection Confectionery, 92nd and For ter road

Kasper Wilcox has undergone an op-eration ae St. Vincent's hospital and is reported doing as well as possible under the existing circumstances.

Miss Edna Wolfe, of 7603 Fifty-sixth avenue S. E., is spending a few days at the home of Mrs. Dora Bolter, of Rose City Park.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Droste, Mr. and Mr. F. L. Stevens and Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Hess attended the Knights Templar ball Monday night in the Pythl'uesday last. Lents Parent-Teachers will hold regular meeting on Friday the 21st. It has been postponed until February 21 on account of the pro-gram which will be held in the afternoon and evening. The story hour conducted at Lents branch library Friday afternoons from 3:30 to 4:30 is well attended. Miss Abigail Rice, children's librarian at Arleta branch library, has

LIBRARY NOTES

NEWS NOTES OF ARLETA DISTRICT

The Herald man on Saturday dropped into the confectionery store adjoining the Arleta theatre, and found James Willis engaged in the work of brightening up the interior of the store Mr. Willis, originally from Buxton, Washington county, came over from Rockaway in September and purchased the present place of business. His daughter, Miss Ivy, assists in conducting it, and they report that, considering the usual seasonal duliness, business is very fair. Mr. Willis plans to instal an up-to-date Cretor's p. roorn and peanut machine, which will add to the completeness of his present equip an up-to-date Cretor's p reorn and peanut machine, which will add to the completeness of his present equipment, and place non-take care of the usual spring and summer trade.

The Arleta basketball team defeated the B'nai B'rith quintet on the Franklin high school floor Thursday, Jan. 6, by the scant margin of 26 to 23. The winning points were scored by Arleta in the final few moments when an avalanche of fresh players put new pep into their attack and was the means of turning the tide to vic-

This was the deciding game of the series between the two clubs for the best two out of three games. Arleta won the first game on the previous Monday on the B'nai B'rith floor by Ralph Amato, merchant tailor, of osttr road, reports business as a attie slow at this season of the year. ar. Amato, who by the way is a very skilled workman, far beyond the av erage, is fortunate in having the patronage of influential Portland people who have utilized his services for many years. Together with Mrs. Amato, ne operates a high-class esablishment for the custom manufacture of men's and women's clothing. they have an interesting family of caree children, the eldest daughter being a student at O. A. C., where she is taking the commercial course in commenting upon trade conditions, Mr. Amato states that business was not improved any by the action of a large Portland department store in throwing several thousand men's suits on the market at so-called cut prices. While at the start of the sale, a few suits of high-class were included, as an inducement, after the sale was in full swing a good deal of "junk" was worked off upon the public. Mr. Amato looks for a slight reduction in the price of clothing for the spring trade and says available information points to a suit of clothing upon the average about $5 cheaper than at present.

Arleta camp of Woodmen installed the newly-elected officers last evening, too late for an account in this week's paper. The Herald will chron-icle it in the next issue.

J. LaVerne Murphy was found dead near Arleta school Monday morning by a passerby. He had been, since was ill with influenza a year ago, subject to hemorrhages and apparently was stricken with one as he pasing the school last Sunday night on his way home from a show. He was 21 years of age. Death apparent-ly ensued from the combination of hemorrhage and exposure. He lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Murphy at 5904 Fifty-fourth avenue southeast. The body was taken in charge by Deputy Coroner Goetsch and was turned over to the A. D. Kenworthy parlor in this city.

The Herald man, in his rambles around Kern Park and Arleta districts, found a new firm engaged in business at 6715 Foster road, where W. A. and J. G. Hansen have opened a sheet metal works, manufacturing and installing skylights, cornice, gut ters and spouting. Both of these gen-tlemen have had a wide experience at the trade, J. G. Hansen having been in the business for sixteen years in S. Louis, Mo., while W. A. was for some time in the hardware business on the west side of this city. They are equipped to handle any work in their line and a plummber, whose ser vices may be secured as needed, has his headquarters in the same estain-

J. A. Teeny, the progressive merchant of Arleta, hasn't much confi-dence that prices of shoes, clothing and similar merchandise, will drop any substantial percentage in the spring Those classes of goods whose ratio of increase was about 50 per cent over the pre-war basis will drop little if any, while the line sthat went is more than satisfied if he can get back what he put into his stock.

iitle if any, while the line sthat went sky-high, in some cases a 400 per cent week.

The flagpole in City Hall park, which the new pole will replace was the scene of many public gatherings during the toying days of the revolution, and no indications of it in sight. Right at the present, the merchant in business in a small way is more than satisfied if he can get back what he put into his stock.

Prizes, consisting of toys, etc., were distributed to all children taking part during the evening.

At the conclusion of the program five hundred was in order for the remainder of the evening. Nine prizes were awarded, Ernest F. A. Lipke winning first for gentlemen. Ye scribe was unable to learn the nurses of the other prize winners. Court No. 9 is in a flourishing condition, and at the present time is one of the most active in the state. This (Friday) evening the order meets at Ames hall, at which time the newly-elected officers will be installed.

ARLETA BAPTIST CHURCH 64th St. and 48th Ave. REV. OWEN T. DAY, Pastor

Sunday morning, January 16, the pastor will speak on: "Seeing Visions and Following Them." The evening subject will be: "Modern Lepers."

The Junior B. Y. P. U. have changed their hours of meeting from 6-15 to their hour of meeting from 6:15 to 3:30, Sunday afternoon. The intermediate and senior socie-ties still meet at 6:15 every Sunday evening.

At the midweek service Wednesday evening, January 19, the subject will be "Jesus' Love for Lost Souls."

Last week at the church the Arleta in the church was organized under junior chorus was organized under the direction of J. D. McFall, the choir leader of the church. The cho-rus is to practice each Thursday af-ternoon at 3:30 in the junior room of the Arleta Baptist church. All children from 8 to 16 years of age are invited to join the chorus. Mr. Mac-Fall is a successful director of children's voices. He formerly directed the Sunnyside junior chorus, which was the largest in the city. Friday night of this week the church choir, meetings being condu

SEARCHING FOR STILL, FOUND ONE CHICKEN

The little hen owned by H.McConnell, 8414 Sixty-seventh street S. E. is the topic of conversation among Portland internal revenue agents.

Monday night whe they raided the McConnell home the officers found 100 pounds of cracked corn, five gallons of molasses and four gallons of moonshine. The officers did not find a still or any mash, so they inquired of McConnell why he had such a large supply of gracked corn on hand.
"To feed my chickens," he res

The trusty government agents made a huried exit to the heretofore unexplored chicken coop, where they explored chicken coop, where they hoped to find a large copper still. On the door they found a padlock nearly as big as the door itself.

"Ah," said Agent Wood Wolfe, "it's in here all right." Finally the door was broken open and the officers found one badly scared hen crouching in the far corner.

The officers say they know the cracked corn and molasses is for mak-ing moonshine, but McConnell said it was for his chicken. Not caring to be a party to either side of the argu-ment, Assistant United States Attorment, Assistant United States Attor-ney Thomas Maguire has suggested that possibly the little hen might know something about the origin of the moonshine. Maguire is accepting offers for the hen.

OREGON GIVES FLAGPOLE

The state of Oregon has furnished a fir flagpole to be erected in City Hall park, New York City, to replace the historic Liberty pole destroyed by the British in 1776.

The new pole, which was presented to the New York Historical society by the West Coast Lumbermen's association, was taken from the timber sociation, was taken from the timber of the Charles R. McCormick company, St. Helens, Or., and was declared to be one of the finest ever produced in the northwest. It is now en route to New York on the steamer Oregonian, due at that city Saturday of this