Woodmere School Notes
School was reopened for the new term beginning January 31, with no changes in the faculty. On Monday morning 629 pupils were reported as enrolled and 652 on Tuesday. Trans-fers were received from Stevens, Richmond, Arleta, Montavilla and

Rev. Snider's lectures are very interesting and are drawing big crowds, a full house testifying to the interest he is arousing each evening. Don't forget the special music at each service. Arleta team plays Thursday, Lents Wednesday and Woodmere Monday. The Woodmere boy scouts hold their regular meetings in the assembly hall Tuesday evenings of each week. The second week in February is Boy Scout Week in America and our Woodmere boy scouts will celebrate by holding a meeting for all fathers and boys in the district. One of the items of interest will be colored pictures of Oregon scenery, inof the items of interest will be colored pictures of Oregon scenery, including beautiful Larch trail, shown by one of the forest rangers in the government service. Mr. Brockway, Portland boy scout leader, will give a talk, and there will be rousing, stirring music. Each girl is urged to send her father and brothers and each boy is expected to bring them.

No man can grow old while he maintains an interest in boys affairs. Keep young and attend this meeting. You will never regret it. You want to help your boy. Your interest in this distinct boy activity will help him. Try it and see. If you want to know how to help him, come and let us talk this over together. No admission charge.

W. C. T. U. Endorses Legislation
There seems to be a tendency of late years to pass up in our reading things that are really worth while, and which we ourselves might, and in fact do, influence greatly. Whether our influence is good or bad, depends a great deal on how we act or do not act. Among the bills now before congress are some which really concern us, inasmuch as they effect our social and business life. The widows' pension bill, a bill providing women officers and attendants, age of consent bill, and the bill relating to an industrial school for girls. If these bills are unfamiliar to you, it would be interesting to read up on them, and a letter to our congressman and a letter to our congressman would do much toward rectifying existing evils. The W. C. T. U. endorses these mentioned and can supply necessary information regarding them.

VALUABLE JEWELRY LOST AND RECOVERED

A woman patron of the Cottage restaurant last Sunday evening left diamonds, consisting of lavalierres, rings and ear rings, said to be worth over $600, in a handbag which she forgot when leaving the place. About twenty minutes later, Wm. Parrish, the proprietor, discovered the bag on the back of the chair the lady nad been using, and placed it in a safe place. The owner soon discovered her less and returned post-haste to the restaurant with, as she said, "her heart in her mouth." ## District Sunday

Early in the afternoon last Sunday the Sunday school workers of the district began to gather at the Laurelwood M. E. church, the place appointed for the convention, and by the opening hour the church was well filled. Promptly at 3 o'clock the convention was called to order by the president. After the opening song service and prayer, Norman F. Johnson, state secretary, gave a very strong and helpful address on "Organized Sunday School Work," showing the great advantage in thorough organization, linked up with the prayer life in the Sunday school.

The principal address of the afternoon was given by Rev. F. B. Culver, of the Lants Evangelical church, on "Decision Day," Many spoke of the merits of his talk.

Not the least enjoyable number on the program was the duet by Misses Norma and Mary Bicknell of the Laurelwood Congregational Sunday School. A short talk was made and the banner awarded by E. W. Peterson, the county president.

The roll call revealed the fact there were eight pastors, five superintendenta, 104 officers and teachers and a total of 265 present. Ten of the schools of the district, with two visiting schools, were in attendance: lents Friends, Laurelwood Congregational and Fourth U. B. schools each had 100 per cent of officers and teachers present, and 48, 60 and 68 per cent of school membership respectively.

MILLARD AVENUE CHURCH BUYS HOME FOR PASTOR

The loan of $1000 which made possible the purchase of a seven-room manse for the Rev. Heary White, of Millard Avenue Presbyterian church, was authorized at the January meeting of the Presbyterian board of church erection at its headquarters in New York City.

The building or repairing of twenty-three Presbyterian churches and manses in as many states, chiefly in the work, was authorized at the same time, the entire amount appropriated being $55,037.

Pastom of the Millard Avenue church have hed great difficulty during the past three years in endextoning to rent houses, three being sold over their heads, according to the R.v. Boudinot Seeley, superintendent of the church extension committee of the Portland presbytery. The house purchased cost $2000 and is located on a 50x100 feet lot at 7614 Sixty-first avenue.

BIRTHDAY PARTY IN HONOR OF YOUNG LADY

A birthday party was given at the home of Mrs. Earl Young, 10212 60th avenue, in honer of her daughter, Vivian's thirteenth birthday, Wednesday, February 2nd, from four o'clock until 5:30. The house was beautifully decorated in harmony with St. Valentime and much fun was had by fixing a donkey's tail in place by the blindfolded guests. First prize was won by Mis Dorothy Bang and the booby prize by Miss Louise Breshears, Many beautiful gifts were presented to the young hostess. Kodaking and outdoor sports, as well as selected music, completed the entertainment, during which dainty refreshments were served. The merry crowd departed, after wishing Miss Vivian many happy returns. Among those present were: Geraldine Belew, Agnes Poore, Ellen Jones, Golda Locke, Louise Breshears, Opal Wilson, Katharine Sawatzky, Louise Durrie, Zeruish McKay, Loree Rayburn, Winifred Taylor, Ruth Breshears, Dorothy Bang.

YEAGER THEATER

At the Yeager theater, Lents, the following program will be the attractions for the coming week: Tonight (Friday) Norma Talmadge in "The Branded Woman", also a Snub Pollard comedy. Saturday evening, Bryant Washburn in "Burgiar Proof." Surday night, "Conrad in Quest of His Youth," with Thomas Meighan featured. Monday and Tuesday, "Two Kinds of Love." Wednesday and Thursday, "Why Change Your Wife." Friday of next week, Constance Talmadge in "Good Reference." Manager Robinson is putting on a good program, securing all the late releases of merit and his theater merits the patronage of all Lents people.

SAMUELS SALE

This is the season of the year when the live mrechant gets ready for the busy season, and a great many in the Mt. Scott district are contemplating holding sales to clean up odd liner of standard stocks. T. G. Samuels of 5827 92nd street, is going this plan one better and offering his entire line of merchandise at a great reduction. Mr. Samuels is issuing bills detailing the big savings that may be made by purchasing during this sale. If you do not secure one, call at the store and inspect the stock—it will certainly pay you, for ne shopworn, shoddy goods will be werked off just because it is a sale. This is the season of the year when

Mrs. Melvin McCord, who went to Dullas a short time ago, returned on Thursday of last week. Mr. McCord, who has been at Dallas for some time, returned with her.

School Meets Ten-Year-Old Girl Wins $5.00 Prize

An avalanche of votes descended upon the office of the Herald this week in the trade-at-home contest, and when the manager had time to go over the coupons he found that little Miss Margaret Leitch of 5391 89th street had carried off the $5.00 offerstreet had carried off the $5.00 offered each week for the leader. Besides the prize, she earned several dollars in commissions, for of her total of 21,600 votes the 10-year-old girl was credited with about 12,000 as a result of securing a number of Herald subscribers. It will be remembered that Margaret lost the award last week by the narrowest possible margin, and she took no chances this week of the same thing occurring, for she worked hard and turned in a fine amount.

Mrs. B. S. Jones, 7244 54th avenue, was second with 15,000 to her credit. These were all in single coupons, 300 of them, and represented a large purchasing from the stores who carry advertising in the contest.

Clarence O'Neil, who won the money last week, did not enter this week, but we know he will be heard from later, for Clarence is persevering and we wager that when the grand prizes are awarded at the conclusion he will are awarded at the conclusion he be on hand to get his share.

FOURTH U. B. CHURCH

Sunday was another red letter day in the church. In the morning the Sunday school put on a "red" and "blue" contest for members. The los-ing side at the close of the contest "blue" contest for members. The losing side at the close of the contest must give the winners a supper. A lively interest is already manifested. Sunday afternoon the Sunday school attended the district convention held at the Laurelwood Methodist church and again won the banner for attendance, having 75 members present, including all the officers and teachers. The day being "brotherhood day," special speakers were secured for the occasion. Mr. Davidson brought a stirring message Sunday morning from the text: "Quit Yourselves Like Men Be Strong," Rev. Summerlin spoke to an appreciative sudience in the evening.

The fortieth emiversary of the Christian Endeavor was also held the same day and was celebrated at the Christian Endeavor hour with a large and beautiful birthday cake, on which were forty red and white candles. The cake was cut at the close of the service and each of the sixty-eight persons present received a piece.

A teacher training class is being organized and will meet Friday evenings. Everyone is invited to join, whether prospective teachers or not. Next Sunday is Education Day. The pastor will speak in the morning on "Preparedness" and in the evening on "Preparedness" and in the evening on

"Preparedness" and in "The Talents."

The offering for China, which was taken in the Sunday school last Sunday, amounted to $87.75; the Reds contributed $45.54 and the Whites $42.21. Immediately following the preaching service on Sunday nights, a personal workers' class is conducted for a half hour under the leadership of the pastor. These meetings are very helpful, and those who can remain will find it well worth their while.

Next Sunday has been designated by the W. M. S. of the Evangelical association as the general "day of cause.

The monthly business meeting of the Y. P. A. will be held in the church this Friday night (the 4th). Following the business session, the young people will have their social hour in the basement. If you have never attended one of these socials, come and see what good times you have been missing.

We expect to be especially forward.

We expect to be especially favored in both the Y. P. A. and church service Sunday night. Mrs. Margaret Flowers Olinger, a blind singer, is to sing for us, and Frances Johnson, also blind, is to render the accompaniaments. These parties are both graduates and classmates of the Salem blind school. Mrs. Olinger is said to possess a remarkably sweet voice and you will do well to take advantage of this opportunity to hear her. Mr. Johnson is a teacher of music, having specialized in the pipe organ.

Rev. Culver will be absent next Sunday morning and several following Sundays, owing to the special meetings at Mt. Scott. His pulpit will be filled, however, by a good speaker. Rev. Culver expects to be present and preach on Sunday evenings as usual. During these meetings at Mt. Scott, a children's chorus will sing both Fridays and Sundays and the male quartette from the Lents church on Tuesday nights.
