

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

J. A. Teeny, popular Arleta merchant, was a business visitor in town Monday.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hansen of 5924 95th street on January 30.

V. Buckingham of Bend was the guest of his sister, Mrs. E. S. Rayburn Tuesday at her home, 8709 56th avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor F. Genovese of 7909 53rd avenue, are the parents of a daughter, born Tuesday night of last week, which will be known as Violet.

Leo Jossen of Los Angeles, who was in Portland attending a convention of officials of the Santa Fe railroad, between sessions visited his sister-in-law, Mrs. Thomas McSloy, of 54th avenue and 32nd street.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Rayburn of 8709 56th avenue had as their guests for dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rayburn and Fay Rayburn. Frank and Ray are twin brothers, and the dinner was given in their honor, the day being their birthday.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. L. E. Coon at Everett, Wash., the 4th inst. She was buried Feb. 8 at Everett. Mr. and Mrs. Coon were residents of Lents about ten years ago, Mr. Coon being then engaged in the real estate business.

The rumor that John Eggman has a brand new car is evidently a canard. John says that the probable reason some one started this story that reached the ears of our reporter was the fact that he takes special good care of his machine.

Mrs. Philip Evan, sister of Mrs. J. C. McGrew and O. E. Lent, who was stricken with paralysis a few weeks ago and who was in the Kerr sanatorium for some time, was recently removed to the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Lent on 56th avenue, where she is improving.

Friends of Mrs. George Knox, now of Prineville, who formerly was Miss Elsie McLucas, and until two years ago was librarian of Lents branch library, will be interested in knowing that she and Mr. Knox are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter, born recently, who is known as Barbara Jane.

A very enjoyable surprise party was given Miss Stella Davis in honor of her birthday on February 11th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Davis, 6304 95th street. The house was nicely decorated for the occasion. The usual games were played and those who attended report an enjoyable time.

The Chautauque Study Club, which meets each Thursday afternoon at the library and which is composed of some of Lents' most prominent matrons, is soon to finish its study of France and will take up Spain. Mrs. Jasper, whose ability as a leader is well known, suggests this as a most opportune time for other ladies to come into the club.

A robin was observed on the lawn of the abode of the writer last Monday morning, chirping and cheerful, regardless of about three inches of snow that had fallen the night previous. Robins have been with us all winter, apparently indifferent to "a little unusual weather" that has prevailed at times during the past few weeks.

Davis Bros., of the Eagle Garage, sold another touring Ford card last Monday to E. C. Ramsey, with the Trans-Continental Freight Bureau of Portland. Mr. Ramsey is a resident of Lents. The Eagle Garage proprietors report that Fords are becoming a scarce article, hard to get, and that "a word to the wise" should be sufficient.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eggman entertained for the week end at their home at 9719 59th avenue. Ernest Kuenzies, brother of Mrs. Eggman, and her cousins, Elma, George and Edward Kuenzies, all of Silverton, who were here to attend the marriage of Herman Kuenzies and Alice Hoffman, which occurred at the home of the bride's parents, 361 32nd street, last week.

Mrs. J. E. Pomeroy entertained a number of relatives at her home at 6107 30th street Thursday evening in honor of her husband's birthday. A very pleasant evening was spent, after which a delicious luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Pomeroy, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Garlock, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Neel.

A number of the friends of Mrs. M. T. Hawkins of 9423 58th avenue gathered at her home Monday of this week where the evening was pleasantly spent in honor of her birthday. Carl Hawkins, artistically accompanied by Miss Kirk, entertained the guests with several selections on the violin and piano. Dainty refreshments were served and a number of greatly appreciated gifts were left for the hostess. Those present were Mesdames Fessler, Knauss, McSloy, Faith, Fred Geisler, Williams, Donaldson, Edward Gilbert, Rusk, Reynolds, Mason, Coffman, Goodman and Miss Kirk.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH

The W. M. S. of the United Evangelical and Evangelical Association churches of the city of Portland will meet on Friday afternoon of this week at the Evangelical church on East Market street for the purpose of holding a union prayer meeting, the principal subject of prayer to be "Home Work." The ladies of the Lents church are requested to meet at the station on 92nd street at 1:30 today and go over in a body.

The pulpit was occupied Sunday morning by Rev. Taylor of the North Pacific Evangelical Institute. Preceding the sermon Mr. Bealer, scoutmaster of the Lents organization, presented the work of the Boy Scouts. The troop, as honor guests of the morning, was then presented to the congregation by Everett France. It is no wonder their scoutmaster is proud of them. Parents of boys from twelve to eighteen years would surely do well to get their boys into this splendid organization, which is doing so much for boys when they need help most.

Plans have been definitely entered into for the supper to be given in the church basement Washington's birthday from 5 to 7 p. m. by the defeated Whites of the Sunday school to the victorious Reds. The invitations will be sent out this week and include not only the children attending our school but their parents and others.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Their practice this week will be held on Friday night and all young people who like to sing are invited. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Preaching services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Morning theme, "My Debt"; evening, "A Great Danger."

Young peoples' meeting at 6:30. The ladies of the church feel themselves to be under a debt of gratitude to the M. & R. market for permitting them a stand in their store for the sale Saturday.

The Willing Workers girls' class will hold a social on the 19th of this month.

G. A. R. posts Ben Butler and Reuben Wilson attended the Baptist church in a body with their respective wives to hear the pastor speak on Abraham Lincoln. After the service Ben Butler post offered a testimonial to the pastor, thanking him for the sermon, which he felt was a beautiful tribute to one of the greatest and noblest characters in American history.

Mrs. Parsons of 7820 55th avenue was given a delightful birthday dinner Sunday by her children. Roast chicken and salad and delicious cake, with other good things, made an impression not soon to be forgotten upon those fortunate enough to partake of them. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Colvey, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Demeter, and Zoe Saunders, Don Colvey and David Demeter. Friends dropped in during the afternoon to wish Mrs. Parsons many happy returns.

Mrs. Denham of 5336 70th street has as her guest Mrs. J. C. Corey. Mr. Corey is critically ill in a local hospital and Mrs. Corey is staying with Mrs. Denham until the danger has passed.

The stork has been keeping up with his good work, bringing a boy to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Morris, 5616 44th avenue February 11.

He also visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Smith of 5241 68th street on February 9 and left a boy. Dr. Lockwood assisted in both cases.

An attendance campaign is being waged at the Fourth U. B. church. The contest is between the Blues and the Reds—at present the Blues are in the lead. At the close of the contest the losing side will entertain the winners with a supper.

The meetings at Laurewood Congregational church have closed with very encouraging immediate results and every reason to expect future benefits.

The services at Laurewood Congregational church Sunday evening will be in charge of the C. E. society. Reports from the state convention at Corvallis will be given. Judging from reports already made public, they surely had a splendid, beneficial time.

Master Richard Averill, twelve years of age, is to sing a solo at the special patriotic services at Anabel Presbyterian church Sunday morning. Master Richard has a clear soprano voice and is considered quite a "find" vocally. He sings with the Whitney boys' chorus. The boy scouts will participate in the exercises and there will be more special music. Other soloists will be Mrs. McCormac and Pieta Wilken.

There will be a George Washington social given by the Dorcas class of the Laurewood Methodist church school hours. An interesting account of this movement will follow in the next issue of the Herald.

The meetings at Laurewood Congregational church have closed with very encouraging immediate results and every reason to expect future benefits.

The services at Laurewood Congregational church Sunday evening will be in charge of the C. E. society. Reports from the state convention at Corvallis will be given. Judging from reports already made public, they surely had a splendid, beneficial time.

Master Richard Averill, twelve years of age, is to sing a solo at the special patriotic services at Anabel Presbyterian church Sunday morning. Master Richard has a clear soprano voice and is considered quite a "find" vocally. He sings with the Whitney boys' chorus. The boy scouts will participate in the exercises and there will be more special music. Other soloists will be Mrs. McCormac and Pieta Wilken.

There will be a George Washington social given by the Dorcas class of the Laurewood Methodist church school hours. An interesting account of this movement will follow in the next issue of the Herald.

Mrs. Parsons of 7820 55th avenue was given a delightful birthday dinner Sunday by her children. Roast chicken and salad and delicious cake, with other good things, made an impression not soon to be forgotten upon those fortunate enough to partake of them. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Colvey, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Demeter, and Zoe Saunders, Don Colvey and David Demeter. Friends dropped in during the afternoon to wish Mrs. Parsons many happy returns.
