

Mt. Scott Herald Trade-at-Home CONTEST

Throughout the advertising appearing in this section letters purposely have been omitted, which, correctly composed, will spell the name of one of the advertisers herein. Competition in this contest is open to all readers of the Mt. Scott Herald, and those living in the Mt. Scott district have the same chance of winning one of these cash prizes. Simply find the missing letters, to accomplish which you must read every ad in this section, and mail or bring your answer to the Contest Manager of the Mt. Scott Herald. All answers will be placed in a box in the office of the Herald and will be opened every Wednesday evening. The person who submits the correct answer, together with the largest number of votes, will win first prize, $5.00 in cash and 500 extra votes. To all who submit a correct answer 500 extra votes will be given, good in count for final prizes.

All votes count for the final prizes. It is not necessary to compete for the weekly prize in order to be in on the for anyone to win both a weekly and a final prize, as all votes turned in in the weekly contests count also for the final prizes.

THE HERALD COUPON
On the "Trade-at-Home" page or on some page each week will appear a coupon good for 50 votes. Clip it out and mail to the Contest Manager, The Herald, Lents, giving your name and address or that of anyone you desire entered in this contest. It costs you nothing to enter this contest and by trading with the business men herein you will secure the coupons that may win for you a very handsome cash prize. Clip the coupon now!

CASH COMMISSIONS
The price of The Herald for one year is $1.50 in advance. In order that all contestants who bring or send in a subscription to the Contest Manager, The Herald will pay a cash commission for each subscription of one year at $1.50, of 50 cents.

In addition to this commission, The Herald will credit 1000 extra votes to contestants who bring or send in a subscription; 1000 votes for each. And 2000 extra votes to the contestant who during the 26 weeks sends in the greatest number of subscriptions.

It is an event worth the effort of everyone. Clip the coupon in this issue, read the ads, solve the contest problem, and mail your coupon and answer to the Contest Manager, Mt. Scott Herald, Lents Station. There's no red tape. Ask the advertisers for your coupons with your purchases.

All answers to weekly contests must be in The Herald office not later than Wednesday of the week following. The winner of the $5.00 cash prize will be announced each Friday, as will also those who send in correct solutions.

Read the Trade-at-Home page and enter the campaign now.

SUMMONS FOR PUBLICATION IN FORECLOSURE OF TAX LIEN
In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Multnomah County.
No. F 741

W. E. Brazleton, Plaintiff, vs.
Babette Wahlgemuth, and any and all other persons, if any, interested in the lands hereinafter described, defendants.

To Babette Wahlgemuth, the above named defendant:
In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby notified that W. E. Brazleton, the holder of Certificate of Delinquency numbered 17841, issued on the 6th day of April, 1920, by the Tax Collector of the County of Multnomah, State of Oregon, for the amount of Two and 97/100ths ($2.97) Dollars, the same being the amount then due and delinquent for taxes for the year 1918, together with penalty, interest and costs thereon upon the real property assessed to you, of which you are the owner as appears of record, situated in said County and State, and particularly bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

The South (40) feet of the North one hundred and sixty two and 84/100ths (162.84) feet of the West one hundred fourteen and 2/10ths (114.2) feet, of Block "F" in School Park Addition, within the corporate limits of the City of Portland, in Multnomah County, State of Oregon.

You are further notified that said W. E. Brazleton has paid taxes on said premises for prior or subsequent years with the rate of interest on said amount as follows: 1914 tax, paid April 9, 1920, $4.14, 12 per cent, certificate of redemption No. 880.

1916 tax, paid April 9, 1920, tax receipt number 31855, $2.95, 12 per cent delinquent.
1917 tax, paid April 9, 1920, tax receipt number 31856, $2.44, 12 per cent, delinquent.

1919 tax (first half, paid April 9, 1920); tax receipt number 51026, $1.31, 12 per cent.
1919 tax (second half, paid January 13, 1921, tax receipt number 210785, $1.40, 12 per cent.

Said Babette Wahlgemuth, as the owner of the legal title of the above described property as the same appears of record, and each of the other persons above named are hereby further notified that W. E. Brazleton will apply to the Circuit Court of the County and State aforesaid for a decree foreclosing the lien against the property above described and mentioned in said certificate. And you are hereby summoned to appear within sixty days after the first publication of this summons exclusive of the day of said first publication, and defend this action or pay the amount due as above shown together with costs and accrued interest and in case of your failure to do so, a decree will be rendered foreclosing the lien of said taxes and costs against the land and premises above named.

This summons is published by order of the Honorable John P. Kavanagh, presiding Judge of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Multnomah, and said order was made and dated this 25th day of January, 1921, and the date of the first publication of this summons is the 28th day of January, 1921.

All process and papers in this proceeding may be served upon the undersigned residing within the State of Oregon, at the address hereafter mentioned.

H. P. ARNEST,
Attorney for the Plaintiff.

THE WEEKLY CONTEST
In the advertisements appearing in the "Trade-at-Home" section letters will be purposely omitted and in order to win the $5.00 cash prize each week contestants must read every ad, find the missing letters and arrange them to form the name of one of the firms entitled to issue voting coupons. The contestant each week who turns in the correct answer, together with the largest number of votes, will win the $5.00 CASH AND 500 EXTRA VOTES
Every contestant sending in a correct answer each week will be credited with 500 VOTES
It will pay you to read the ads, as the privilege is given everyone of having the votes credited to themselves, their friends or any member of their family. There is no red tape connected with this contest; neatness counts for nothing, and nothing counts other than the correct answer each week, together with the largest number of votes for that particular week.
Five dollars each week or $150 in all, is paid to winners for 26 weeks.
THE FINAL PRIZES
One hundred and fifty dollars will be distributed among the five persons who respectively stand highest in the number of votes secured during the entire 26 weeks.
$50.00 First Prize.
$40.00 Second Prize.
$30 Third Prize.
$20.00 Fourth Prize.
$10.00 Fifth Prize.

DETAILS OF CONTEST
The following is the offer the Mt. Scott Herald is making to further the "Buy-at-Home" movement, to the mutual advantage of advertisers and readers of this paper. If any point is not understood, phone the Contest Manager any day between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. for desired information, although we believe everything essential has been covered in these columns.

THE VOTE COUPONS
The prizes—$280 in cash—will be distributed to those who secure the largest number of votes. In this issue is printed under the caption of "Trade-at-Home Contest" the advertisements of merchants and business men who have co-operated with the Herald to make this Trade-at-Home Contest a success. The Herald has furnished each advertiser with vote coupons, which are given with cash purchases as follows:
In all places of business except bakeries, restaurants, picture shows and drug stores—
50 VOTES ARE GIVEN WITH EACH 50 CENT PURCHASE
In bakeries, restaurants and drug stores—
50 VOTES ARE GIVEN WITH EACH 25 CENT PURCHASE
A coupon good for 50 votes is issued with every ticket at the Arleta and Lents picture shows.
