Many Affairs of Interest to Community Related in Entertaining Way by Herald Correspondent

Millard Ave. Missionary Society
Mrs. J. H. Zehrung will entertain the ladies of the Millard Ave. Presbyterian Missionary Society at her home at 7105 48th avenue, on the afternoon of Wednesday, March 23. Mrs. Parsons of 7828 55th avenue will have charge of the devotional service. Miss Helena Saxton, whose sister has been in Japan for thirty years, will speak on the subject: "Japan—Its People and Religion." Miss Saxton is president of the women's society of Rose City Park church.

Boy Scouts Drill
The Boy Scouts, under Scout Master Roy Sequist, held their regular drill at Woodmere school Tuesday evening. About 22 were present and according to reports from visitors who were there it was better than a good "movie" to watch the boys at their drill, for they were earnestly interested, and their efforts and work deserve much praise. If every parent of a boy scout could watch the youngsters at drill and exhibition work they would receive an education in that particular line.

Millard Ave. Presbyterian Church
Sunday, March 20. Communion service. In the morning Rev. White's topic will be "The Joy of Remembrance." In the evening he will talk on "Friendships and Fellowships, Desirable and Undesirable."
Arleta Baptist Church
Regular mid-week service Wednesday night. It will be a converts' meeting. Preaching services: A. M., Bruce Evans; p. m., Rev. Day, "What I Might Have Been."

School Baseball Games
Section 5, T. E. Speirs, chairman.
March 14th.
Arleta 14 Lents 11
Woodmere 10 Richmond 1
Kellogg 4 Woodstock 1
In the Arleta-Lents game, Lents got off to a 7-0 lead in the first two innings, Arleta finding it hard to get started, but got to going in the fourth frame and tied up the score. From the fifth inning to the end of the game it was nip and tuck to the end, Arleta winning, 14 to 11. The game was free from wrangling and the best of spirit prevailed. Following is the lineup of Arleta: Billy McCarter, p.; Johnnie Rahl, c.; Emmett North; Parley Yarborough, 2b.; Frank Davies, ss.; Harold Bill, 3b.; Walter Endberg, lf.; Wilbert Davies, cf.; David Olman, rf.

To Speak on China
Miss Emily Hartwell, of Fox Chow, China, will speak at the Congregational church in Laurelvood, Easter Sunday evening. Miss Hartwell, who will appear in Chinese costume, is what is called a second-generation missionary, as her father 10 years ago went to China and did wonderful work among the Chinese. It took him seven months to go from the New England coast to China. Miss Hartwell was born in China and for 37 years has been supported by the Congregational board of missionaries. She was the first white woman to be decorated by the Chinese government for service to the Chinese people. Miss Hartwell is doing educational work now.

Petition Against Fuel Yard
A petition has been sent into the council by the residents of the Firland district, asking that one Frank B. Hunt be not permitted to erect and operate a fuel yard on the land lying 100 feet west of 70th street and 155 feet south of Foster Road. Residents of the same section also have another petition out to see what can be done toward cleaning up the lot bounded by 49th and 50th avenues and 67th and 68th streets. At present it is a regular "tin-can alley" and an eyesore and public health menace. The writer understands that the city did clean it up last year, and if that is the case it is hardly possible to expect help again this year. Sometimes it is a problem to know how to appeal to people's civic pride.

"In Old New England"
Saturday night, in the W. O. W. hall at Arleta, the Lone Star Dramatic club of Clackamas, gave "In Old New England." It was well acted and very interesting. The two dark-skinned servants and the man whose "woman sent me to 'berry'" this or that were especially funny. However, each member of the cast did good work.

Autos Collide
Arthur Channess and Donald Reese of Woodburn, brother of Fred Reese of 5319 72nd street, had a narrow escape Monday morning when their Ford sedan collided with a Chevrolet on the highway and overturned. No one was injured, though both machines were damaged, and it seems miraculous that either car did not go over the grade. The accident happened near the Vista house about 8 o'clock in the morning and it was 6 p. m. before they limped into the home garage.

Arleta Theater Program
At the Arleta theater the following program will be given this next week: Friday, March 18 (Country Store Night), Alice Brady in "The New York Idea"; Rolin comedy; Paramount magazine.
Saturday, March 19—Marion Davies in "The Restless Sex"; two-reel comedy, "A Fresh Start."
Sunday, March 20—Cecil DeMille's

Christian Endeavorers
The C. E. society of Millard avenue church is a growing, live organization. They meet every Sunday evening at 8:45. The officers of the organization are as follows: President, Edwin Zumwalt; vice president, Clarence Mischel; secretary, Miss Eva Spooner; treasurer, Miss Nancy

Arleta Personal
At the Third U. B. church, Passion week will be observed every evening. Rev. Ira Hawley will preach each evening.
On Good Friday the Women's Missionary society will observe the day by an hour of prayer from three to four o'clock.

The little children of Mr. and Mrs. Holmes of 64th street and 49th avenue are reported to be very ill, the oldest one having pneumonia.
Word has gone forth that Mr. Werth, the highly respected grocer at Arleta station, has recently taken unto himself a wife, and the couple have rooms in the Chambliss building.
Hints of a charivari have been noised abroad, but at the present writing have not materialized.

Mrs. J. G. McClelland, of McClelland, Cal., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Conn, of 64th street, have returned to their home.
Bruce Evans will close his services at the Arleta Baptist church Sunday, March 20. He has been doing a big work and the church has been quickened and awakened. Many have been baptized. At the evening services on Friday, Saturday and Sunday and also the morning service on Sunday the male quartette will render special music. The members of the quartet are: Clarence Misenheimer, aged up as a life recruit at the state convention in Corvallis of the C. E. He has been elected president of the intermediate union of Multnomah county.

Winifred Peterson, 5210 72d street, is convalescing at the Good Samaritan hospital where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. Dr. Hoas of Lents is operating. He is a likable chap and each and every one of his many friends wish him a speedy recovery. He is Irwin Heinrichs, Harry Sherman, Ernest Ramee and Owen Day.
Creston Parent-Teachers association met Tuesday in the assembly hall at the school. Miss Florence Holmes of the park bureau gave a talk on parks and playgrounds and their use by the public. She spoke of the gardens of London, Paris and New York and other eastern cities and of what is being done for the municipal gardens of Portland.

At the Arleta library is an exhibit of Lenten books, in accordance with national religious book week. It is an effort to put for one week at least the more serious, sober side of life before all. The exhibit at the library is comprehensive and complete.
Miss Wilson's class visited the library to study the pictures of Wm. Penn, whose life they are now studying in school.
Regular story hour at the library on Thursday.
A "Krewel Kraft Art Shop" has been opened in the Crum Chambers building on 72nd street near Millard avenue.

On Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock a union missionary and temperance meeting will be held at the library. The wives of the different ministers will be asked to take part in the devotional service and each president will talk on the theme: "World Temperance and World Missions." All churches are cordially invited to be represented.
The Women's Missionary society of the Kern Park Christian church will hold special meetings during the week before Easter. Monday they will letterwrite day. Tuesday they will unite with the W. C. T. U. in service at Arleta library; Wednesday, at the church; Thursday, group prayer meetings at the homes of the "shut-ins"; Friday, a special thank offering at the church.

The Loyal Workers of the Kern Park Christian church are having the interior of the church re-decorated, proving once again that they are "Loyal Workers." Lloyd Marshall of Lents is doing the work.
Congratulations are finding their way to Mr. and Mrs. Narcisse Delanger, 577 Jarrett street, on the birth of an eight-pound son on March 15. Mrs. Delanger will be remembered as Retha Dorcas of the Tremont district at one time was a member of the Third U. B. church. The young son's name is Wilfred Narcisse Delanger.
At the Woodmere Parent-Teacher association last Thursday Mrs. Ethel Woods Lewellen and Mrs. Blakesley furnished the musical program, which was greatly enjoyed by the parents and teachers present.

George Colvey will sing "The Ninety and Nine," arranged by Edward Campion, on the night of April 5, when Rev. Mr. White will lecture on Siam. The customs, religions and life will be interestingly told by Mr. White, who lived in Siam for 17 years. The lecture will be given in Millard avenue church.
Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Volts of Woodmere, have their daughter, Mrs. Allen, visiting them, from Enterprise, Oregon. Mrs. Allen will be remembered as Mildred, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Volts.
Choir practice under the direction of George Colvey will be held every Thursday night at 7 p. m. in the Millard avenue Presbyterian church. Mrs. Ethel Woods Lewellen is church organist.

Elaine and Bruce Armstrong, children of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Armstrong are confined to their home, 7013 52nd avenue, with chickenpox.
The Joseph Kellogg Parent-Teacher meeting, which was to have been held Tuesday of this week, is postponed until next Tuesday evening, March 22, because the assembly hall repairs were not finished. As has been previously announced, the affair will be a daddy's meeting.

The county institute of the W. C. T. U. will meet Thursday, March 17, at the Community House, in Sellwood. Special demonstration of department work will be given, among which will be a scientific temperance instruction. All interested invited to attend.
In a game played in the Franklin High gym March 14, the Y. M. boys beat Franklin High at basketball, 24 to 14.
The annual dinner and congregational meeting of the Anabel Presbyterian church will be held March 29. The dinner will precede the meeting. Mrs. Beaumont, 5220 37th avenue, entertains the ladies' home and foreign missionary society of Anabel Presbyterian church every Thursday. Mrs. John Wakefield leads the home missionary and Mrs. Mixell the foreign work.

Miss Fietta Wilkin and Miss Dorothea Smith, with a chaperon, will attend the girls' conference at McMinnville March 18 to 20, representing the Anabel Presbyterian Sunday school.
"Christian Progress in Alaska" will be the topic for the regular meeting of the C. E. society at Laurelvood Congregational church at 6 p. m., on Sunday next. The missionary committee will have charge of the service, Norma Bricknell leading.
Friends of Rev. Mrs. J. J. Hand-saker and her mother, Mrs. Smith, will be glad to know that Mrs. Smith is improving nicely and only waiting for a few warm days to come so she may get out in her beloved garden.
"Turkey in the Great War" will be the subject of a stereopticon lecture given at Laurelvood Congregational church Sunday evening next, at 7:30. J. L. Leake will sing "The Palms" at the morning service, Palm Sunday, at Laurelvood Congregational church, in addition to other special music. Mrs. Owen Day, wife of Rev. Owen Day, pastor of Arleta Baptist church, was suffering with tonsillitis the first part of the week.

On Palm Sunday at the morning service of Millard Ave. Presbyterian church, Mrs. J. McMillan Muir will sing "The Palms" in the evening. George Colvey will sing a Palm Sunday song, the words for which were especially written by Mrs. Ella Orton of Lents.

Autos are traversing the Sahara and the camel, the "ship of the desert"—is fast getting out of commission. What scientific progress is bringing the world in the way of comfort and utility, it is losing it in picturesque and tradition. Going across the desert in a motorcar is too prosaic a thing to brag about at home.
