AFTER THE BATTLE

Now that the smoke of battle upon the momentous sewer question has cleared away, the Herald can say a few words upon the subject without being accused of favoring one side or the other.

When the matter first came up for consideration it was plain that the Mt. Scott section would be hopelessly divided in opinion. Much could be said both for and against. It would benefit the people of one section more than those owning property in the other and this paper realized that fact.

The Herald is endeavoring to publish a community newspaper, serving all living within both districts, and as such it would have been unfair, as well as unwise, for it to have lined up with either faction. Taking this into consideration, an attitude of strict neutrality seemed to be the logical course and such was the policy this paper pursued from start to finish.

Various individuals were not satisfied with this "hands off" policy, and endeavored to influence the Herald. When we failed to see it as they did, a little soreness resulted, wholly upon their part. The columns of the paper were at all times open to communications from both factions and all interested were at liberty to air their opinion at any reasonable length. We contented ourselves with giving an impartial account of each development as it occurred, without comment from us.

Some of our readers seemed to think we were taking sides, because we printed matter sent us for publication over the writers' signatures. Others somehow got the idea the Herald was conducting the postal card vote and one good lady came into the office and gave us a gentle "bawling out" because we had not sent her any card!

Now that the matter is settled, let all forget the little animosities that developed during the campaign for the improvement and pull for a better Mt. Scott district. Every man and woman owning property in this community should feel directly interested in the welfare of the section. More good can be accomplished by pulling together than by bickering and quarrelling among ourselves. Both factions demonstrated they could practice teamwork when actuated by an important motive and there was something to be gained or lost, as their interests appeared. Why not get together for a better Mt. Scott district and fight 365 days in the year for it. Your property will increase in value through your efforts and you will by your progressiveness attract new homeowners. Incidentally, it will be a better section in which to live and the business men will enjoy an increased measure of prosperity.

Community spirit worked wonders for California; without it the state would never have developed as fast and as far as it has. Forget this spirit of petty selfishness; whether a man owns property on 61st, 72nd or 92nd street is immaterial; he is a resident of the Mt. Scott district and as such his interests are linked with those of his neighbors ten or twenty blocks away.

There are, unfortunately, a few who will snarl and belittle any form of community spirit. They exist only for themselves and that any one can be altruistic enough and unselfish enough to work for the benefit of the whole community is beyond their understanding. Every neighborhood has a few of this class and ours, unfortunately, is no exception. If we allowed these perpetual pessimists to throw cold water on every plan for neighborhood betterment we would never accomplish anything, and anything done will be without the consent and approval of those who always believe in things as they are. The Mt. Scott district is a part, if only a small part, of the city of Portland; if we are to have the benefit incidental to being a part of a city we also must assume the liabilities that go with them. If paving and sidewalks and sewers are part of the benefits or liabilities, and you may call them either as you see it, we will have them sooner or later, with or without the approval of those who prefer things as they were in the past.

PAPER IS GOING DOWN

In the last past 90 days the cost of job printing stock has been reduced by our paper barons from ten to twenty per cent, and the Mt. Scott Herald proposes to give its patrons the benefit of the decline. In addition to this, the Herald has secured assistance in its job department which has been in this city. Mr. Sellers, in charge, has been at the head of several of the very best printing plants on the coast, and his ability to turn out an excellent class of printing in the shortest time possible is unquestioned by those familiar with his work. Having a linotype typesetting machine now in excellent condition and three first-class presses, etc., the Herald is especially well equipped to turn out large poster work, pamphlets of every size and description at the lowest living rate possible commensurate with the class of work delivered. Low overhead expenses and superior workmen of long years' experience assures the better class of work at non-profitsteering prices.

The fact that the Herald job printing department is recently enjoying a large and fast-increasing patronage from not only leading firms in the city, but other towns tributary, attests that the Herald is prepared to turn out the better class of printing at reasonable prices. Try us once and you will be a regular patron.

THE HERALD'S CONTEST

To relieve the minds of some of our patrons who might be inclined to think that the Herald's "trade-at-home" contest is a grafting proposition, we wish to state at this time that, after paying the different prizes offered in this contest, the Herald is barely receiving the regular rates per inch charged merchants and business men for the space mentioned. Our only hope, and original intention, in running this contest as far as the paper itself was concerned, was to increase the circulation of the Herald and, thus by casting bread upon the waters to, in time to come, materially increase our subscription list. This is being realized very satisfactorily. But the major object in view was to by this method stimulate and cultivate the "buy-at-home" spirit, thus assisting the merchants of the Mt. Scott district to secure that trade to which they are justly entitled. We believe that the result of this contest will bring thousands of dollars into this community that heretofore has gone "down town," where the color of the money will never be seen again. The Herald, to assist in this laudable effort, has advanced several hundred dollars to guarantee the success of this enterprise, which can be substantiated by inquiry at our local bank—and if the business men of the Mt. Scott district will put their shoulder to the

Arleta Personals

A packed house heard Rev. Henry White talk on "Slam" Sunday evening at Millard Ave. Presbyterian church. Mr. Colvey sang very pleasingly "The Ninety and Nine." Rev. and Mrs. White entertained the Workers' Conference of Millard Ave. Presbyterian church at the manse, Tuesday evening, April 5. Many things of importance and interest were discussed. Those present were Mesdames Zehrung, White, Lawson, Misses Ford, Moline, Messrs Worrel and White.

Mrs. Jas. Welch, former president of the Joseph Kelllogg parent-teacher association, moved with her family last Friday to a ranch near Beaverton.

Althea Reese, little 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reese of 5319 72nd street, is very ill at her home with a bad cold. J. F. Carpenter of 6805 55th avenue has a badly injured hand as a result of a collision between his bicycle and an automobile truck.

Sunday evening, April 10, the pastor of Arleta Baptist church will speak on the subject: "Religion and Good Roads—the Effect of Good Roads on Man's Religious Life." The subject seems to be very opportune and hits the spot in this neck of the woods.

At the regular meeting of the teachers and officers of the Arleta Baptist Sunday school Tuesday night, April 12, Mrs. Wright will speak on "Advantages to the Child of Home Religious Instruction." The meeting will be held in the junior room.

Mr. and Mrs. George Colvey entertained at dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Frank Love and two children and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sandstrom. Ray Orndorff of 5811 77th street has housed his new Maxwell in a new garage built in the rear of his premises.

Mr. Wm. Rabuck of 7403 62nd avenue is enjoying life in a new baby grand Chevrolet, recently purchased. His family anticipate many pleasant hours this summer. Mrs. Frank Jones of 7628 57th avenue is slowly recovering from her recent severe illness.

James St. Johns, formerly of 5522 65th street, has moved his family to 6504 55th avenue.

Burke's garage on 54th avenue 72nd street is being dressed up in a new coat of paint, put on by Mr. Reese.

A new shoe repairing shop has been opened this week on 72nd street between 55th and 54th avenue. Devona Rabuck, fourteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rabuck of 7403 62nd avenue, is in a Portland hospital convalescing from a mastoid operation performed Friday morning of last week by Dr. Connell, a specialist. Last reports were that she was doing very nicely.

The barber shop in the Crum building, corner 72nd street and 55th avenue, changed hands last week. Mr. Andrews, the former proprietor having sold out.

Floors—Refinish Yours Yourself

with paint or varnish. We tell how

IT'S a simple matter, if you cannot get a painter, to refinish any floor—fun, in fact, to do the work yourself.

We make the finest finishes. They dry over night, so you can walk on them in the morning.

They are made for laymen's use as well as painter's—they flow and spread easily and cover well. The result is a smooth and lustrous finish—just the one you want to get, although you—an amateur—do the work.

Women can apply these products as well as men.

Fuller makes a famous floor paint—Rubber Cement Floor Paint and two famous var-ishes called "Fifteen-for-Floors" and "Fullerwear."

They are Fuller's Specifications for home floors—each for a particular effect.

We make also a special line of paints, varnishes, enamels, etc., for all kinds of interior decorating. And we maintain a Free Advice Department that will tell you in detail how to use them. You simply describe the article, how finished now, and the effect you want to get.

We've specified these materials and methods for you after 72 years' experience with paints and painting practice. We are one of the largest paint manufacturers in the United States.

Don't think you can't do work like this simply because you haven't ever done it. Follow Fuller Specifications and you'll get the right effect.
