

Mt. Scott Herald Trade-at-Home CONTEST

Throughout the advertising appearing in this section letters purposely have been omitted, which, correctly composed, will spell the name of one of the advertisers herein. Competition in this contest is open to all readers of the Mt. Scott Herald, and those living in the Mt. Scott district have the same chance of winning one of these cash prizes. Simply find the missing letters, to accomplish which you must read every ad in this section, and mail or bring your answer to the Contest Manager of the Mt. Scott Herald. All answers will be placed in a box in the office of the Herald and will be opened every Wednesday evening. The person who submits the correct answer, together with the largest number of votes, will win first prize, $5.00 in cash and 500 extra votes. To all who submit a correct answer 500 extra votes will be given, good in count for final prizes.

MADE LONG TRIP ALONE
Did you ever run across a fair young thing gazing helplessly at a puncture, waiting for a man to help her out? Remember that time and then look at Maud Younger, former society girl of San Francisco, now legislation chairman of the National Woman's party, who arrived in Washington after a 3,500-mile trip alone from the Pacific coast. The dog in the picture is Sandy, presented to Miss Younger on the way across the continent.

The politician who believes that women will vote as the head of the household votes, also probably overlooks the possibility that a lot of young voters are going to vote as mother dictates.
The soviet system is not increasing agricultural production in Russia, and iceles and snow are not highly regarded in that country as a regular diet.
American chemists declare they can now produce dyes equal to any ever produced by Germany or any other country. Does your family washing show it?
