

EVANGELICAL CHURCH

Only a little over a week remains to prepare for the special revival campaign. The evangelists both come to us fresh from a winter's continuous meetings. They are recommended to us as men filled with the spirit of God and preaching only the simply universal gospel. There will be services twice a day except on Mondays and Saturdays, and three times on Sundays. Don't miss any of them.

The W. M. S. met with Mrs. Culver at the parsonage Wednesday afternoon to round up their work for the year, this being their last meeting before conference. Officers for the coming year were elected. The results of the election will appear in next week's issue of this paper.

The quarterly conference business session of the church was held on Thursday night prior to the prayer service. The prayer hour was devoted to a preparatory service for the special revival meetings. Thursday night the following officers were elected for the church and Sunday school: Class leader, Albert Fankhauser; exhorter, Albert Spearow; trustee, Elmer Scheuerman; Sunday school superintendent, Ed. Knauss; assistant, Charley Fankhauser; secretary, Elmer Scheuerman; treasurer and librarian, Maurice Scheuerman. The election of the other officers was left to the church and Sunday school boards.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday school at 9:45; spined music and classes for all grades. Preaching service at 11 o'clock; pastor's theme: "Obeying the Heavenly Vision". The ordinance of baptism will be observed at the close of the sermon. Special music by the choir.

In the evening the R. Y. P. U. and the Epworth Leaguers will meet together to prepare for the Evans meetings.

Sunday evening the Baptist and Methodists will meet in a union meeting under the direction of Bruce Evans, the noted evangelist. He will be in Lents for two or perhaps three weeks. The two choirs will combine, thus assuring good music.

Mr. Evans will speak in the Woodmere school on the 12th and the Lents on the 13th, at 1 o'clock each day and place.

FRIENDS CHURCH

Bible school, 9:45 a. m.; sermon, 1:30 a. m.; sermon, 7:30 p. m.; C. E. service, 8:30 p. m. All are cordially invited to attend these services. Rev. Anna Spann, pastor.

The Sunday school was happily surprised last Sunday by the attendance of the district superintendent, who gave an interesting talk to the children. The following officers and teachers were elected: Effie R. Tamplin, superintendent; Oliver Todd, assistant superintendent; Dorris Mann, primary superintendent; Nettie Littlefield, cradle roll superintendent; Lura Thomas, home department; Troy Lamb, secretary; Orrie Smith, chorister; Mrs. Todd, organist; class teachers, Mrs. White, 1;

Myrtle Lewis, 2; Mrs. Phillips, 3; Violet Littlefield, 4; Albert Erskine, 5; Della Lamb, 6; Carol Tamplin, 7; Florence Erskine, 8; J. E. Swanson, 9; Elizabeth Mann, 10.

BE KIND TO ANIMALS

Be Kind to Animals Week will be observed from April 11 to 16, with Humane Sunday on the 17th, and Mrs. Gertrude Scott Bernal asks the Herald to publish the following little plea in their behalf:

Surely the greatest need in all the world is kindness and I believe the time will come when humanity will extend its mantle over everything that breathes and the oneness of all life will be recognized. Indeed, we are on the threshold of this great attainment with the door already open, due to a bill passed in the last legislature to provide humane education in the public schools of Oregon and our honorable governor in a proclamation to the people of the state declaring the week from April 11 to 17 inclusive be celebrated in kindness to animals. We must place our hopes for the betterment of the world in the rising generation and now that the beauty and necessity for kindness will be taught in the schools and preached from the pulpits, it is a most gratifying regimen to dispel the distressed note of discouragement and the appeal to pastor and priest. Truly the spirit of love has come to the earth and it's complete manifestation remains for the people to embrace it.

ODD FELLOWS ELECT DEPUTY GRAND MASTER

At the regular meeting of the Mt. Scott lodge on Tuesday evening, March 29, Walter Baker was elected district deputy grand master. Delegates chosen to attend the grand lodge, which will be held May 18, 19 and 20 at Albany are as follows: Walter Baker, W. E. Sanders and T. C. Cox.

STATEMENT OF THE OWNERSHIP, MANAGEMENT ETC., REQUIRED BY THE ACT OF CONGRESS OF AUGUST 24, 1912.

OF THE MT. SCOTT HERALD, published weekly, at Portland, Oregon, for April 8, 1921.

STATE OF OREGON, County of Multnomah: ss

Before me, a Notary Public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared Geo. A. McArthur, who claims and says he is the publisher of the MT. Scott Herald and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to-wit:

1. That the name and address of the publisher and editor is Geo. A. McArthur, Portland, Oregon.

2. That the owner is Geo. A. McArthur.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgages and other security holders owning holding 1 percent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, are NONE.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiants to knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds or other securities than as so stated by him.

That Help You Find Good Music for Your Home

In this store, we concentrate on music for your home,—and particularly upon practical ways of helping you find it.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

We offer three services.

First is a test of Realism. It helps you determine whether you get the same enjoyment out of listening to the New Edison, as you do when listening to the living artist.

Second is Mr. Edison's Mood-Change Chart. This enables you to score, on a printed form, the effect of an Edison RE-CREATION upon your mood.

Third is the Home Concert. We are always glad to loan you a New Edison and RE-CREATIONS for a few days,—so that you can live with RE-CREATED music in your own home.

All three services are absolutely free. All are cordially extended to you, in the hope that you will use them in finding better music for your home.
