Arleta News Notes

high, also spoke, as did Mrs. Alexander Thompson.

Arleta Theater Program
Maager White of Arleta theater has another splendid offering for the week commencing Friday, the 22nd, when Norma Talmadge plays "The Forbidden City"; Saturday Chas. Ray in "Homer Comes Home"; Sunday, William Farnum in "If I Were King"; with Fatty Arbuckle in "Patty Out West"; Monday and Tuesday, Mack Sennett 5-reel super comedy, "Love, Honor and Behave"; Wednesday, "Fighting Fate"; Wednesday, Frank Mayo in "The Marriage Pit"; comedy, "A Hot Dog"; Thursday, Dorothy Dalton in "Guilty of Love"; episode 7 of "Double Adventure."

Mr. White announces for May 2nd he will have at his theater the biggest crook picture ever presented, Priscilla Dean in "Outside the Law."

Parent-Teachers Play
With the exception of two back rows down stairs in the rear balcony the Baker theater was full for the "Trail of the Lonesome Pine," sponsored by the Parent-Teachers associations of Portland, Tuesday evening, April 19. The profits up to the time this paper goes to press were $357.10 which was very fine, considering the time of year and the previous drives for money which have recently been waged, and also considering the fact the picture has been shown many times before. The receipts are no all in as yet, so the funds will no doubt swell to $400 easily. The Parent-Teachers are to be congratulated on their efforts and success, for their aims are high and worthy of co-operation.

Arleta Baptist
Pastor's subject for morning of Sunday, April 24, is "The Law of Growth in Spiritual Life." At 7:30 p. m. the choir, under the direction of Jasper D. McFall, will give a sacred concert.
The women of Arleta Baptist church will hold their monthly missionary meeting at the home of Mrs. Heinrichs, 243 E. 50th street, Wednesday, April 27. A splendid program has been arranged and will include installation of officers.

Craig-Forbes
A pretty and simple home wedding took place last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Forbes, when their daughter, Mary, was united in marriage to Howard Craig of 73rd street and 48th avenue. There were no attendants and only immediate relatives of the family were present. Mr. Craig is employed in a wholesale hardware store in the city. Rev. Henry White of the Millard Avenue Presbyterian church officiated. The happy couple are domiciled temporarily in apartments on the east side.

Arleta Locals
Brief bulletins in the nature of "reminders" made their appearance at service Sunday. In a short time they will be improved and enlarged and will fill a long-felt need.
Rev. White passed Thursday evening at Camas, Wash., at the Presbyterian meeting.

April 26 at Atchinson Memorial Congregational church, the City Association of Congregational churches will meet. Mrs. Stella Shorey and Mrs. J. J. Handsaker will represent Laurelwood Congregational. Mrs. Handsaker will speak on "Daily Vacation Bible Schools."
Mrs. Frank Walters of 5104 67th street is very ill in Emanuel hospital, where she is recovering from a severe operation. Her many friends will be glad to know she is doing as well as can be expected.

Rev. F. H. Mixsell, pastor of Anabel Presbyterian church, was called last Saturday morning by the sudden death of his father, at South Bethlehem, Pa. He will be home in a week or ten days.

Young people of Anabel Presbyterian church had a delightful party at the church Saturday evening. Games and music and refreshments were the order of the evening. Etta Wilkins, Mildred Smith and Leona Erickson worked with the committee.

At Anabel church Friday evening, April 29, there will be a musical given. Mrs. Tripp with the Mignon chorus will sing and also the Dixie Quartette. There will be no admission. Refreshments will be served free and everyone is welcome.
The Missionary Society of Anabel Presbyterian church have very attractive printed programs for the coming year.

The Junior Endeavor are planning a May party.
The Missionary Society of Millard Avenue Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. S. W. Hickling, 7828 59th avenue, Wednesday afternoon, April 27. A special program is being prepared and an enjoyable time is assured. All "Africa and the American Negro" are the subjects.

The Misses Hollingsworth of 72nd street and 57th avenue are adding improvements and additions to their already commodious home.

The 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Adams of 72nd street, near Trentwood, was taken very ill Sunday and rushed to the Good Samaritan hospital, where he was operated on for appendicitis. Young Adams has been employed by the J. K. Gill Co. of Portland.

Geo. Colvey of 7820 55th avenue will be the soloist at the Millard Avenue Presbyterian church Sunday morning. He will sing "Beyond the Dawn." In the evening Addie Virginia James will give a special solo.

Miss Stella M. Jordan, national worker for the Congregational Educational society, who is visiting the Congregational churches of the north will be the speaker at the meeting of the women's society of Laurelwood Congregational church next Wednesday at Luckey Cottage.

Mrs. Handsaker will preach Sunday on "Growth of Our Faith."

Mrs. Philip S. King, who is well known in Woodmere as Georgia Fawcett, is visiting her sister, Miss Fawcett. They formerly lived at 7614 61st avenue. Mr. and Mrs. King live at Watsonville, Cal. Mrs. King is reveling in our spring blossoms, as this season has passed in California and she is really enjoying a second spring.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Carpenter of 6805 5th avenue, are the proud parents of a big boy born early Tuesday morning, April 19. The title of the possible future president of the U. S. is Jess Franklin, Jr. Dr. W. F. Stout was present at the doings.

Rev. Henry White of Millard Avenue church will speak on "God, the Efficient Help In Time of Need" in the morning, Sunday, April 24. The evening subject is "Builders and Buildings--Their Character and Worth."

The pupils of Joseph Kellogg are working hard for their show Friday evening. They intend to have films depicting the Panama canal but were disappointed. An exciting contest is on among the pupils of the school, selling tickets to the evening show. The room which sells the most tickets to the evening performance or takes in the most money, that room is admitted free to the show. The contest is keen, indeed.

The W. W. Girls will present John Frederick Mason, at Arleta school on Saturday evening, April 23, at 8 p. m. He will give impersonations, humorous readings, etc., and will be assisted by Mrs. Geo. Levelien at the piano and Miss Eleanor Stockton, soloist.

At 9:30 a. m. on May 11 at the Arleta library, the children's librarian of the city will conduct a Round Table. Books for intermediate grade children will be discussed, also scientific books and adults' books which may be used for children. Miss Brown, children's librarian from Vernon, will preside at the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reese and daughter Althea, with Donald Reese, brother of Fred motored to Woodburn and Three Rivers Saturday morning, expecting to return Monday a. m. The usual breakdown occurred, however, detaining them two days longer. Their fishing trip was quite successful, though, as far as fish were concerned, as they brought home some nice ones.
