

Mt. Scott Herald Trade-at-Home CONTEST

Throughout the advertising appearing in this section letters purposely have been omitted, which, correctly composed, will spell the name of one of the advertisers herein. Competition in this contest is open to all readers of the Mt. Scott Herald, and those living in the Mt. Scott district have the same chance of winning one of these cash prizes. Simply find the missing letters, to accomplish which you must read every ad in this section, and mail or bring your answer to the Contest Manager of the Mt. Scott Herald. All answers will be placed in a box in the office of the Herald and will be opened every Wednesday evening. The person who submits the correct answer, together with the largest number of votes, will win first prize, $5.00 in cash and 500 extra votes. To all who submit a correct answer 500 extra votes will be given, good in count for final prizes.

THE HUSKY SHOVEL STIFF

The following lines were handed into the Herald with a request that they be published.

Come all you husky shovel stiffa and listen to my chant, And hear the lamentation of a wandering emigrant, Who sailed across the ocean from the dear old town of Cork, And landed in the U. S. A., in the city of New York.

Then I wandered to St. Louis with ten dollars and no more, I read the daily papers until my eyes were sore.

I read an advertisement; a chance for me I saw, They were wanting shovel stiffa, way out in Omaha.

I stepped upon a passenger train, there I received a shock, I met a lanky preacher from the town of Little Rock, His hair hung down like rat tails, around his lantern jaw, Just the image of those gentlemen who live in Omaha.

When I reached my destination I thought to meet a friend, I met a poor old bonehead; his hand he did extend; Said he, "You are a stranger, so this idea I do draw, I keep the finest tavern in the town of Omaha."

I followed that old bonehead to his respectful place, Both hunger and starvation were printed in his face; Corn dodger was his bread, his beef I could not chew, But I paid fifty cents for that, in the town of Omaha.

Early that next morning I started on a lark, Being very low in spirit and hungry, I bought a pint of whiskey, my misery to thaw, And bade farewell to bonehead and the town of Omaha.

I tramped to Gilbert Station! My heart begins to throb, I met with William Gilbert, who landed me a job, I shovel mud for Hanley, from Lents Junction to the cliff, Now the public take their hats off to the husky shovel stiff.
