Mt. Scott Herald Trade-at-Home CONTEST NEAR EAST IN GREAT NEED OF CLOTHING

Throughout the advertising appearing in this section letters purposely have been omitted, which, correctly composed, will spell the name of one of the advertisers herein. Competition in this contest is open to all readers of the Mt. Scott Herald, and those living in the Mt. Scott district have the same chance of winning one of these cash prizes. Simply find the missing letters, to accomplish which you must read every ad in this section, and mail or bring your answer to the Contest Manager of the Mt. Scott Herald. All answers will be placed in a box in the office of the Herald and will be opened every Wednesday evening. The person who submits the correct answer, together with the largest number of votes, will win first prize, $5.00 in cash and 500 extra votes. To all who submit a correct answer 500 extra votes will be given, good in count for final prizes.

NEED OF CLOTHING

Vast Throngs Wander From Lents Station Place to Place Clad Only In Rags.

From the Near East comes an appeal for clothing. Five years of destitution have reduced hundreds of thousands of people there to a most

DR. A. G. ATWOOD pitiable condition.

Many thousands of Armenians, driven from their homes during the war, are still in exile. There has been no way to secure clothing to replace what they wore when they were driven forth.

All industry is paralyzed. The people, though willing, cannot earn a live-lihood. Vast throngs wander from place to place, clad only in bits of rags and strips of burlap bags. The little children are perhaps the severest sufferers. A report from a Near East Relief worker, Miss Maria P. Jacobsen, is typical of scores of others. She writes

"Hundreds of little children in our orphanage at Harpoot, dragged themselves to us, suffering acute rheumatism and pneumonia as a result of lack of clothes. Some were affected by gangrene from frozen feet."

To relieve-in part, at least-this great distress, Near East Relief, which, under a Congressional charter, operates in this field, had undertaken to P. G. Wilson collect quantities of cast-off or other spare clothing. What is needed is good practicable clothing.

Every man, woman and child in America is asked to help. Every garment counts. A single coat may save a human

A day's delay in sending it may cost

It will take only a few minutes to make up a bundle and send it on its way. If a local Bundle Day has been announced, give then; if none is planned for, send by pracel post to Near East Relief, Portland, Oregon.

Near East Needs Cast Aside Clothes. The clothing cast aside as worthless by our people here in America would provide comfortable covering for every The movement to enforce a "Blue Law" Sunday on the people of the unclad one in the Near East, and would be an untold blessing to thousonce since the days of Moses on Mt.
Sinai has Sunday been abandoned by any nation claiming Jehovah as God.

This clothing can be transferred to United States recalls the fact that only

> It is such a little thing to dig those ast-off garments out of the clothes box and send them to the Near East Relief, but to at least one, and perhaps several human beings in that farbetween life, hope, strength-and almost certain death.

During a three-inch snow fall in 9207 Foster Rd., cor. 92nd. LENTS Kare on October 30, 1920, fifty thousand Armenian men were stripped of everything by the invading army, to be driven into the plain unclad.

Mobe Shouting for Clothes. Mrs. Kate Clough Rambo, of Baker, Oregon, returned Near East Relief worker, tells a graphic story of the distribution of a shipment of old clothes received at Batoum in Trans-Carpenter and Builder aucasia. She says:

"I did up bundles of clothing, each ontaining a dress, a skirt, a jacket or coat, intending them for distribution among the women. I took Kappidies (a native assistant) and went in the Ford truck with great bags of these windles. We drove into the yard at Petoeva Barracks. We took out sevsral bags and went upstairs. Kappidies stood by the bags while I carried the bundles to corners where I saw they were practically without clothing. The first thing I knew, a woman snatched another and another. I called Kappidies to come away, as they were turning into a mob. He and another assistant grabbed the bags and we went down another stairs, the mob following. We jumped into the car and and to hold back the mob with sticks. Where the sticks came from I never

"The crowd grabbed, they screamed, they fought.

"They would have pulled me out of the car, but the chauffeur backed into the street and we tore away. Afterwards we returned and gave the slothes to the head man to distribute to his most needy cases, but they broke the window to his room and grabbed the bundles. Still, after all, have the consolation that the man is said to have had when someone stole his Bible—it would doubtless do good."

lear East Thousands Need Clothes. Numberless men, women and little destitute of clothing and thousands have no covering whatever save the thinnest rags.

Last year America sent 750 tons of clothing. The supply is exhausted and the clothing worn out.
