With strawberries at ridiculously low prices, the housevives are busy these days putting up the luscious Oregon fruit. Also, strawberry short-cake is one popular dish at present For many years the berry has been so high as to be out of reach of many but this year, with the refusal of the canneries to buy at any price, the market has been glutted and poor Mr. and Mrs. Consumer and all the little Consumers are coming into their own. It's tough on the grower, though.

The ladies of St. Paul's Guild held a social Wednesday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. H. A. White, 6024 90th street. A musical and literary program was given and refreshments served. A special bus-iness meeting of the guild was held Wednesday afternoon, the 6th, at the home of Mrs. J. T. Rogers, 4605 70th street. The hostess served dainty re freshments at the close. The next meeting will be held on the afternoon of the 22nd at the home of Mrs. Bar ur on 87th street.

Apropos of the trade-at-home prop osition, which the Herald has ever endeavored to foster, regardless of the lack of reciprocity of a few mer-chants in the Mt. Scott district, we especially mention that the Square Deal Candy Store is especi-ally deserving of the patronage of this community. The young proprie tors of this establishment ture their own products, and you have but to step into their store to be assured that everything is as neat as a pin and that only the best grade of unadulterated goods are made by this firm. When you want anything in the line of confectionery and believe in patronizing home industry, especially when charged no more and generally less than you pay else-where, don't forget the Square Deal
