

Mt. Scott Herald Trade-at-Home CONTEST

Throughout the advertising appearing in this section letters purposely have been omitted, which, correctly composed, will spell the name of one of the advertisers herein. Competition in this contest is open to all readers of the Mt. Scott Herald, and those living in the Mt. Scott district have the same chance of winning one of these cash prizes. Simply find the missing letters, to accomplish which you must read every ad in this section, and mail or bring your answer to the Contest Manager of the Mt. Scott Herald. All answers will be placed in a box in the office of the Herald and will be opened every Wednesday evening. The person who submits the correct answer, together with the largest number of votes, will win first prize, $5.00 in cash and 500 extra votes. To all who submit a correct answer 500 extra votes will be given, good in count for final prizes.

YOU know what you want to eat, but do you know where to get the best returns on the cost of eating?

If you will permit us the pleasure we can easily demonstrate that this store is the logical place for you to trade where you want satisfactory service and the full value of your money.

Many hundreds of people know this now. There are still a few we would like to convince.

We have the goods to convince if you have the inclination to be convinced. This is a plain statement of fact for your consumption.

HOUSE OF 1,000 ROOMS.

A maze which forms a happy hunting ground for robbers, is the house formerly occupied by the ministry of war in Vienna, says a correspondent. The great size of the thousand roomed house evidently attracts the attention of thieves and the military and police seem unable to keep them out. Ornaments, pictures, typewriters, everything and anything, even to the door knobs and knockers are constantly being carried away. When a thief, in the course of his wanderings, meets anyone, he simply pretends to have come on business, and goes on until he comes to an unoccupied room, there he quickly gathers together anything he can lay his hands on, and departs. In many cases the robbers have an accomplice in the street to whom articles are thrown from the window.
