

Guaranteed Circulation 1500

Mt. Scott Herald

Guaranteed Circulation 1500

Subscription, $1.50 the Year.

LENTS STATION, PORTLAND, ORE., SATURDAY, JULY 8, 1921.

VOL. XIX, No. 27

News Happenings of Lents and Surrounding Country

Social Affairs Are Source of Pleasure to Many; Personal Items and Locals of Interest to Herald Readers Tensely Told

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Chom of 94th street and 56th avenue celebrated at Seaside the Fourth, going by auto.

Mrs. Wm. Elchlepp is much improved from her recent illness and able to be up and around a portion of the time.

Howard P. Arnest, mother and brother, went to Albany Saturday and spent the fourth with Mr. Arnest's sister, returning Monday.

Miss Louise Englemann, sister of Mrs. J. Graess, who was operated on at St. Vincent's hospital two weeks ago, is improving as much as could be expected as we go to press.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Riley motored to the beaches for the week-end, visiting both Gearhart and Seaside. If you think they didn't have a good time, ask Charlie.

Born, to Cecil Kaufman and wife of 89th street and 67th avenue, June 25, a daughter, Mrs. Kaufman's mother, Mrs. Culver, who lives in the country 17 miles from Gearhart, spent Sunday of last week with her daughter.

J. D. Hutchinson is marketing 15 acres of raspberries from the Happy Valley district and five acres from Kelly's Butte this season. Most of their berries go to the eastern part of the state, where they have regular customers each year.

Although the writer is past the sixty mark, never before in his whole life has he witnessed a fourth of July without seeing a man intoxicated, at least one or two or a dozen fights and other overt acts galore. And we traversed a greater portion of the city of Portland on the eventful day mentioned. Not even a firecracker broke the stillness throughout the major portion of the city—just a few in the suburban districts. Surely, it was a safe and sane fourth, and, while to the small boy and the old soak it was a little too quiet and dry, they will probably be educated to these conditions and be thankful for it.

SEWER WAITS ON COURT ACTION

Award of the contract for the construction of the first cut in the Foster road sewer was deferred by the city council for one week Wednesday upon the advice of City Attorney Grant. The postponement came about because of the suit instituted by a group of property owners within the project district who are endeavoring to have the courts enjoin the city from proceeding with the construction of the sewer. This suit will be heard in the circuit court on July 11, and City Attorney Grant advised the council that he would be excellent poised to await the outcome of this suit before letting the contract.

The commissioners of Multnomah county have forwarded to the city council formal notification of the granting of permission to the city to proceed with the work of constructing the sewer from 62d street to 92d street, providing the construction is done in a manner satisfactory to the road supervisor of Multnomah county and the streets are restored to as good condition as they are when the work is begun.

This is simply a preliminary step, clearing the way for the contract for the sewer construction can be awarded by the city council. Meanwhile steps are under way whereby the city will formally take over Foster road as a city street. It is now maintained as a county highway.

The prospect is that the council at its meeting next Wednesday will award the contract to J. F. Shea, providing the court's decision in the application for a temporary restraining order is favorable to the city. A local real estate dealer reports to the Herald that he has made several sales in the last few days solely upon the strength of the sewer being built. He says that there is a strong feeling among prospective realty investors to insist that they will not locate in a district which does not take ordinary precautions to insure sanitation and good living conditions. The failure to build the sewer, according to his views as gathered by the Herald, will greatly handicap the movement to bring more residents into the district. One of the purchasers of property mentioned above bought a nice home but is very anxious to improve it. He is a strong proponent of the sewer and purchased it only upon the assurance that the district was going forward with the sewer.

TABERNACLE MEETING

An urgent invitation is extended to all to attend the revival meetings being held at Lents, across from the library, in a gospel tent, under the direction of the Free Methodist church. A special invitation is extended to the Christian people of Lents to come and labor for and help pray down an old-time, soul awakening, Heavensent Pentecostal revival, that shows no quarter to sin or makes no compromise with Satan, but sets forth the redeeming love of God, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

Wm. Weingart of 4963 72nd street has purchased a new Dort touring car from the Lents Garage.

The condition of Mrs. Gorgina, who is confined to her bed in a local hospital following a serious operation some time ago, is reported to the Herald as slightly more favorable.

John Walrod, civil war veteran and commander of the local G. A. R. post, is reported as very ill with heart trouble. He has been under the care of physicians for some time past and his condition is said to be serious as the Herald goes to press.

Word has been received from Mrs. Palmer, mother of E. G. Tucker, 89th street and 71st avenue, who has been spending the past year with him and who left June 13 for her home in the east, that she had arrived safely and that the weather was intensely hot there.

Adam Albert, of legal age and residing at 6825 46th avenue, obtained a license to wed Sylvia Olney, also of legal age, 1461 Minnesota avenue. Thelma P. May of 6626 53rd avenue and Carey C. Deter of Jennings Lodge, were granted a license to wed late last week. The bride's age was given as 19 and the groom's as 22.

This is an "off week" for the Herald. Getting out an extra last Saturday, announcing the Carpenter-Dempsey event, celebration of Independence day the Monday following and all kinds of job printing, has rather demoralized the general conditions of this office, which we trust will assume normal by our next issue.

Kasper Wilcox has been heard from at last. The Herald received a telephone message from him 't'other day, threatening to sue us for criminal libel, but failed to leave his address. He also notified Attorney Arnest that he was going to see the latter get his desertion papers, for attaching some furniture which a pal of Wilcox was endeavoring to keep out of the clutches of numerous creditors of the muchly wanted real estate dealer, who is conspicuous by his absence in the Lents district.

4th CELEBRATED AT PLAYGROUND

The celebration at Lents Park on the Fourth was participated in by 350 people. Many families brought basket lunches and in the afternoon there was boxing, racing and various contests. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davison and Miss L. Gorgo Miller acted as judges. The boys and girls put forth their best efforts to win a blue, red or white ball, indoor and other games. Everyone went home safe, sane and happy.

Wm. Schroeder, the playground director, has been transferred to another park and Ned Fowler has charge of the Lents park.

There is a movement on foot now to form a "safety first" organization on the playground, similar to the one in the school. "Safety first" committees are to be appointed and its members will have authority to correct anyone who is endangering his own or someone else's safety. The purpose is to lessen the number of accidents and thus the number of cripples and deaths.

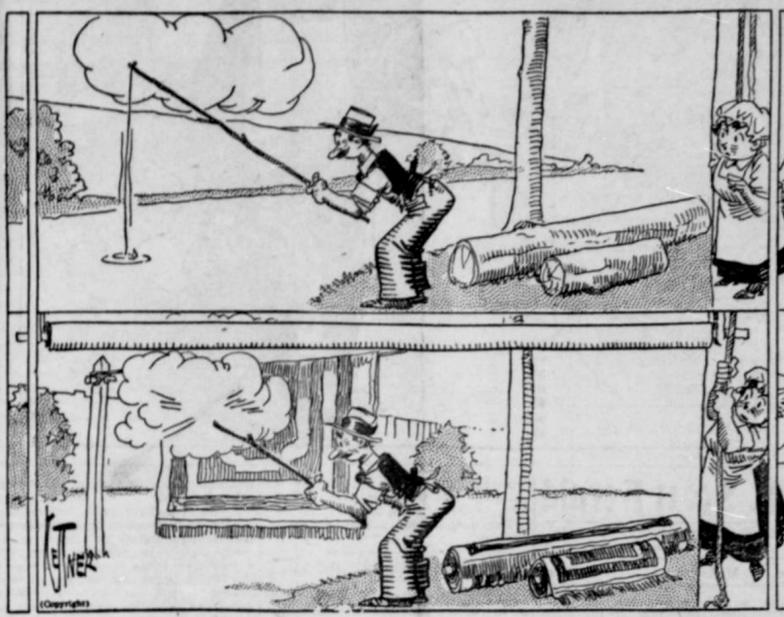

DRYDEN-SAVAGE NUPTIALS PRETTY HOME WEDDING

An attractive home wedding was shot of Miss Norma Ellerby Dryden and Richard Savage Stoner at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dryden, 6824 39th avenue. Rev. Mixsell, until recently pastor of Anabel Presbyterian church, read the service in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chene with veil and carried a bouquet of Cecil Bruner roses and white sweet peas. Miss Marie Auel, in pink tulle, was bridesmaid, and Allan Dryden, brother of the bride, was the groom's attendant. Little Suzanne Curtis and Betty Savage, in dainty organdie frocks, were flower girls. The wedding music was played by Miss Ruth Gentry. After the ceremony supper was served.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Savage, grandparents of the groom, of Salem, Ore.; Mr. Homuth of Los Angeles, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stone, of Yakima, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Trog, of Bend, Oregon.

Mr. Stoner is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Stoner, 7411 59th avenue. Keep moving, brother. Life won't wait for you.

Shifting the Scene

HERE AND THERE ABOUT THE CITY

Little Items of Interest to Herald Readers Called From All Over the Rose City.

Several hundred members of Oregon lodges of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks will leave the latter part of this week for Los Angeles, where they will endeavor to "sell" Oregon to the thousands of Elks who will attend the national convention. Oregon Elks will be represented in the parade to be held on the 14th by a floral float which is estimated to cost $5000. A big salmon dinner will be served to guests and some unusual stunts put on by the visiting delegation. The purpose is to create sentiment favorable to the levying of an assessment upon members of the order in order to establish a national Elks playground near Bend.

Anna McNaughton, an elevator operator, 28 years old, was fatally injured when she became entangled in a moving elevator in the Couch building Monday morning and was precipitated from the third floor to the basement of the building. She died an hour later at St. Vincent's hospital from the shock. Miss McNaughton was working in the bottom of the elevator shaft and was heard to scream by a tenant; the elevator then rapidly arose and her body shot to the basement. She lived at 68 E. Ninth street.

James Begg, on parole from the state penitentiary and ordered sent back to that institution by Circuit Judge Tazwell, tried to walk away from the officers delegated to make the trip to Salem with him, but was brought to a halt at the door of the court house Tuesday and taken back to be handcuffed. Begg was a forger and is due for a visit of three years at the Salem stone hotel.

Reports have it that the headquarters of the Neighbors of Woodcraft may be moved to Los Angeles, as a result of a persistent campaign on the part of California delegates. It is also very possible that the illness of Mrs. Carrie C. Van Orsdal, who has been head of the order since 1897, may cause her to withdraw her candidacy for re-election to that position. Nine states are represented in this jurisdiction, the convention of which is to be held in Portland for ten days, beginning on Monday next.

Traffic accidents were numerous over the holiday. Mrs. Eliza D. Cramer died Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock, an hour after an automobile in which she was riding had collided with a streetcar at Mississippi avenue and Portland boulevard. Heart disease was said to be the cause of her demise, rather than injuries received in the affair. Mrs. O. F. Albertson, of 834 Alberta street, was killed in a collision at Tillamook. Other fatalities and near-tragedies brought the total of killed and injured to a large number.

A. B. Chance, ex-employee of the Whitney Boys' chorus, was arrested Tuesday charged with forgery. It is alleged that he forged the names of Julius Meier, president of the 1920 exposition committee, and A. Clark Selby, treasurer of the boys' chorus. Two men had complained that they had been mugged of small sums of money by Chance, who they said, had contracted with them to serve as advance agents of the "World's Fair association" at good salaries. The contracts were said to bear the forged signatures of Meier and Selby.

Four persons were killed in traffic accidents on Portland streets in June, it was shown in the report submitted to Chief Jenkins Tuesday by Captain Lewis of the traffic bureau. The

MT. SCOTT PARK BIG CELEBRATION

The Fourth of July celebration at the Mt. Scott playground began early in the afternoon with a parade on 72nd street. Prizes donated by various merchants of the vicinity were awarded for the best entries in each of the seven divisions of the parade. Red, white and blue ribbons were awarded to the 1st, 2nd and 3rd best entries in each group.

In group one, Mrs. Gaeher took first prize for having the best decorated baby carriage with baby. In group two, Margaret Skipworth took first prize for having the best decorated doll carriage with doll, while Ruth Dunforth and Elaine Hansacker took ribbons for second and third best respectively. In group three, Gail Morrison took first prize for the best decorated boys' express wagon, and Frank Hamilton and Ira Hyzer second and third. In group four, M. Davidson took first prize for the best decorated bicycle. In group five, Francis and Stuart Melvin took first prize for the most novel entry of some pet animal. In group six, Dickie Wheeland took first prize for the best decorated wheelbarrow. In group seven, the Millard Avenue Presbyterian Sunday school took first prize for the most novel entry of any other type, while Minnie Isar took second. The parade was led by George Blakeslee carrying an American flag and by Uncle Sam, Willie Craig, Donald Gilman and a crew of assistants took charge of the parade, and much credit is due them for the way in which they handled the affair. Judges for the parade were R. D. Armstrong, Mrs. W. F. Katsky, Rev. Henry White, Mrs. H. Wagstaff and Miss Ruth Worrell.

After the parade a general good time was enjoyed by all on the playground proper. For those who enjoyed volleyball there was a game of that kind; also a playground ball game for the fanciers of that sport. Other games pleased those interested in them. For those who liked the more strenuous sports there was the apparatus and cool shady seats.

Following the volleyball game, a series of races was held, in charge of Roy Stout. As soon as the races were over, all of the prizes which had been won in the parade and sports were presented to the winners by H. T. Blakeslee, in behalf of the Mt. Scott merchants who had so generously donated them. These were: Armstrong Pharmacy, Bon Ton Grocery, Katzky's Pharmacy, Phoenix Pharmacy, Woodmere Store, Queen's Grocery, G. M. Wolfard Dry Goods, R. Frank Archer Place Grocery, J. A. Feany Dry Goods, Currey's Pharmacy and Tremont House Furnishing Co.

For those who brought basket suppers, the Mt. Scott Improvement Club furnished free coffee for the making of which the Millard Avenue Presbyterian church kindly loaned the use of their kitchen and utensils. After supper a piano was brought over to the grounds from the Millard Avenue church, a large bonfire built about an old stump and a community sing held under the leadership of Paul Newmeyer, with his wife assisting at the piano. For the evening program, J. A. Harrison acted as chairman. Dr. Henry White spoke a few words for the people of Mt. Scott, while Col. John Leander was the speaker of the evening.

The playground directors of the Mt. Scott playground would like to express through the columns of the Mt. Scott Herald their deep sense of gratitude to the many people of the section who so quickly and generously responded to our every request, and to them we give the credit for the success of the day. We came here the last of the month, strangers to the community, and in less than a week's time, through your assistance, put on one of the best programs in the city, as some people told us who had been visiting other parts of the city.

Some women achieve perfection by concealing their imperfections.

ARLETA 17, GOLDENDALE 4

Arleta batters knocked Taylor out of the box in the fourth inning of the last game of the Fourth of July series at Goldendale Monday, making 10 runs before E. Kiser, Goldendale shortstop, took the mound. Harris, twirling for Arleta, allowed Goldendale batters three hits. The score was 17 to 4.

Julian has a good buy in No. 1 first grade cordwood; also some heavy country slab at lowest possible prices. Residence 9618 Foster Road, phone 633-70.

ARLETA 17, GOLDENDALE 4

Arleta batters knocked Taylor out of the box in the fourth inning of the last game of the Fourth of July series at Goldendale Monday, making 10 runs before E. Kiser, Goldendale shortstop, took the mound. Harris, twirling for Arleta, allowed Goldendale batters three hits. The score was 17 to 4.

Julian has a good buy in No. 1 first grade cordwood; also some heavy country slab at lowest possible prices. Residence 9618 Foster Road, phone 633-70.

Some women achieve perfection by concealing their imperfections.

Arleta, Kern Park, Millard Ave., Tremont, Woodmere

Many Affairs of Interest to Community Related in Entertaining Way by Correspondent of the Herald

Many June Brides

June, month of roses and brides, saw many weddings celebrated in this district, especially toward the close of the month. Among them were the following: Roy E. Phaneuf and Miss Hilda Kauper were united in marriage on Thursday, June 30, at 8 p. m., at the bride's home, 658 E. 39th street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. O. Shepherd, pastor of the Third United Brethren church. The couple were attended by Carl O. Walker as best man and Mrs. Henry Kauper as bridesmaid. The happy couple left on Saturday for their honeymoon at Seaside.

On June 30, at Vancouver, Wash., George W. Humphreys and Ulaly Brooks were united in marriage. It came as a surprise to the friends and George, for he was looked upon as a confirmed bachelor and as such had proclaimed himself. But it was with him as with many others, and when he met the "one woman" he quickly changed his mind. Mrs. Brooks had lived in the Mt. Scott district the most of her life and has many friends here, while Mr. Humphreys is the genial barber at 62nd street and Foster road. They are making their home at 6121 41st avenue.

Rev. Owen T. Day united in marriage on June 29, Sidney Brazier and Miss Ollie Powell, at the bride's home, 58th avenue and 75th street. They will be at their new home, 48th avenue and 60th street, from now on.

Friday evening last, at the residence of the bride, Rev. Owen Day united in marriage Roy Robinson and Miss Ollie Payne. A number of friends were present and the gifts were numerous and valuable. The prevailing color was pink and white. The bride was dressed in white organdie and was attended by Mrs. Grace Scott, The Brown was the bridesmaid. Mrs. Robinson has a host of friends in this section and their best wishes go with her.

Hiram S. Mickley, of 72nd street, who has been an invalid for fourteen years, died June 29, at his home, 72nd street and 60th street. He was 30 years old and was survived by three children: a wife and two sons.

The deceased was born near Sheldon, Iowa, March 12, 1875. He was the son of Samuel J. and Della G. Mickley. As a small boy he came to Dodge park, near Bull Run. They report a very pleasant time. Jacob Moser, of 4219 73rd street, died at the family residence last Sunday. Deceased was 86 years of age. Surviving are the wife, Louisa S., and four sons, William H., Walter E., Harold A. and Albert J. Moser. Funeral services were held Tuesday at 3:30 p. m. at Finley mortuary, with further services at Riverview cemetery where interment took place.

BIG PRIZES IN THE HERALD CONTEST

Clarence O'Neil again won the $5 weekly prize offered by the Herald in the trade-at-home contest, with a total of 693,750 votes, a very large turnout for one week. Margaret Leitch was second with 193,965 and Mrs. B. S. Jones had 22,600.

There was a misunderstanding early in the week as to the time the contest closes. Last week it was announced that this would be the closing week. This was correct, but it referred only to the fact that the prizes do not again appear. The contest proper closes next Wednesday afternoon, July 13, at 5 o'clock. All coupons and solutions must be in this office before that time in order to be counted. The names of the prizewinners will be announced in the Herald next week, together with the totals.

There will be a missing letter contest the last week as usual. For it the Herald has selected the name of the proprietor of the Rosemary Park Grocery, C. G. Simmons, and the letters spelling the name have been omitted from the ads.

The Herald is voluntarily adding an extra $5 prize to the awards. This will be given to the one who on next Wednesday, in turning in their totals, has on hand the largest number of coupons issued by the Herald for subscriptions. Money taken for renewals will also count. Do not misunderstand this offer. It does not apply to coupons turned in in the past. If you have tried for a prize and turned in coupons given for securing subscriptions, the latter do not count. Some of the contestants, however, undoubtedly have some held back. These will count for the special $5. We are making this offer to encourage and specially reward those who worked hard and loyally the last week or two of the contest for permanent readers of the Herald. Cash counts the same as coupons. The contestant having the greatest number of these 5,000 coupons in the turn-in Wednesday night, or who hands in the largest number of cash new or renewal subscriptions, wins $5 extra.

To sum up, the following prizes will be awarded Wednesday: $150 in grand prizes, divided into $50, $40, $30, $20 and $10 for the six high contestants for the six-month period, $5 in the missing letter contest next week.

Local and Personal

Mesdames Parker, Haynes and Longley of Tremont came home on Tuesday, after a two-weeks' visit at Seaside. Mrs. Longley is matron of Pisgah home.

Married, June 17, at Everett, Wash., Merle Brown and Miss Grace Scott of 35th avenue and 66th street. The bride is well known in this vicinity, having been brought up here. The groom is an employe of the O.-W. R. & N. Co. They will make their home in Portland.

While splitting wood on the Fourth Douglas Scott, Sr., of 35th avenue and 66th street, almost severed his right thumb. Medical attention was promptly called and the member was saved. Mr. Scott has a son, Richard, in the navy, who has been heard from in the way of writing being in Norway.

A number of the boy scouts, troop No. 15, spent the week-end and holiday at Government Camp, near Mt. Hood. They were accompanied by Roy Segrist, scoutmaster, and E. Smith, Alfray Gattis and the Guthrie, of 64th street. The boys report a good time. Three of them went above the snow line on Mt. Hood. They were disappointed because from a distance the mountain looks like a peak, but, the boys say, distance lends enchantment, for the mountain appeared to them to be flat, when they were close up.

Mrs. Waldo Dunford died Thursday at 10 p. m. Funeral services were held Saturday from Kenworthy's undertaking parlors, the Christian Science church having charge of the services. Mrs. Dunford leaves her husband and a sister to mourn her loss. The latter, who came from Minnesota, arrived on Saturday, the day after Mrs. Dunford's death. The sister had planned to spend the summer and winter at Seaside.

Multnomah cemetery is in a deplorable condition and those responsible should get busy at once, for it is a disgrace to our beautiful city or roses. The Buchanan and Donkel families of Tremont spent the Fourth at Dodge park, near Bull Run. They report a very pleasant time. Jacob Moser, of 4219 73rd street, died at the family residence last Sunday. Deceased was 86 years of age. Surviving are the wife, Louisa S., and four sons, William H., Walter E., Harold A. and Albert J. Moser. Funeral services were held Tuesday at 3:30 p. m. at Finley mortuary, with further services at Riverview cemetery where interment took place.

BIG PRIZES IN THE HERALD CONTEST

Clarence O'Neil again won the $5 weekly prize offered by the Herald in the trade-at-home contest, with a total of 693,750 votes, a very large turnout for one week. Margaret Leitch was second with 193,965 and Mrs. B. S. Jones had 22,600.

There was a misunderstanding early in the week as to the time the contest closes. Last week it was announced that this would be the closing week. This was correct, but it referred only to the fact that the prizes do not again appear. The contest proper closes next Wednesday afternoon, July 13, at 5 o'clock. All coupons and solutions must be in this office before that time in order to be counted. The names of the prizewinners will be announced in the Herald next week, together with the totals.

There will be a missing letter contest the last week as usual. For it the Herald has selected the name of the proprietor of the Rosemary Park Grocery, C. G. Simmons, and the letters spelling the name have been omitted from the ads.

The Herald is voluntarily adding an extra $5 prize to the awards. This will be given to the one who on next Wednesday, in turning in their totals, has on hand the largest number of coupons issued by the Herald for subscriptions. Money taken for renewals will also count. Do not misunderstand this offer. It does not apply to coupons turned in in the past. If you have tried for a prize and turned in coupons given for securing subscriptions, the latter do not count. Some of the contestants, however, undoubtedly have some held back. These will count for the special $5. We are making this offer to encourage and specially reward those who worked hard and loyally the last week or two of the contest for permanent readers of the Herald. Cash counts the same as coupons. The contestant having the greatest number of these 5,000 coupons in the turn-in Wednesday night, or who hands in the largest number of cash new or renewal subscriptions, wins $5 extra.

To sum up, the following prizes will be awarded Wednesday: $150 in grand prizes, divided into $50, $40, $30, $20 and $10 for the six high contestants for the six-month period, $5 in the missing letter contest next week.