HERE AND THERE

The Swiss minister to the United States was a Portland visitor this week while he was making a tour of consuls representing his country. He found a Swiss representative in Portland but will appoint one. The distinguished guest spoke highly of Oregon's scenic attractions but was doubtful as to their commercial value because of what he termed the great distance from the east, where the tourist business originates. The local chamber of commerce were hosts to the visitor.

The police traffic bureau is waging a determined campaign this week against glaring headlights, and this campaign will be continued until a decided improvement is shown, according to the speed officer temporarily in charge. Of the last 188 arrests made by the traffic bureau, 97 were for driving with glaring headlights, it was reported yesterday. Every speed officer has instructions to pay particular attention to glaring headlights. Judge Rossman made a personal investigation of the glaring headlight situation Monday night and found many law infractions and saw where this particular traffic violation results so easily in automobile accidents at night.

A suitcase and several articles of jewelry were stolen from the home of C. A. Obenchain, 4817 70th street, by a burglar who broke through a bedroom window while the family was absent.

LOCAL MAN THIRD IN TWO FLYCASTING EVENTS

TWO FLYCASTING EVENTS

The thirteenth international fly and bait casting tournament, held at Sellwood park pool, ended Monday afternoon. It was one of the most successful affairs of the kind ever held.

E. W. Phillips, 6204 55th avenue, complained to the police that prowlers entered his home during the night and stole $23 from his trouser pockets.

The "jimmed" open a bedroom window. The same prowler is believed to have broken into the home of Mrs. D. Bahusen, 6930 55th avenue, where a considerable quantity of jewelry was taken.

STREET CAR STRIKES AUTO; TWO ARE HURT

W. H. Lawson, aged 63 years, suffered a bruised right shoulder and his wife suffered a fractured left shoulder when their machine was struck by a Mt. Scott car near Kerr Park and Foster Road about 7 o'clock Friday morning of last week. Both were taken to St. Vincent's hospital. Lawson is said to have driven out of a blind street directly in front of the car. The Lawsons live at 428 Mill street.

JOHN HARDING INDICTED FOR COLLINS SHOOTING

John Harding, alias Manuel Diel, arrested in Dunsmuir, Cal., suspected of being the man who held up Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Collins in their home near Bell station on 72nd street, was indicted recently on the grand jury, on two counts, one charging assault with intent to rob and the other assault and robbery, being armed with dangerous weapons. One offense carries no minimum, but a maximum penalty of life. The other bears a penalty of not less than ten years and a maximum of life.

When Harding was arrested jewelry taken from the Collins home was found in his possession. He was positively identified by Mrs. Melvia Collins at the county jail as the assailant of her husband.

WHITNEY BOYS RETURN AFTER SEVEN-WEEKS TOUR

The 50 boys of the Whitney boys' chorus who have been on a tour of California and Oregon, which lasted seven weeks, returned to Portland last week and were greeted by their fathers and mothers in a welcome home gathering at the central library. H. E. K. Whitney, leader of the chorus, said that the boys had been well received all over California and that many persons had told him it was the best boys' chorus he had ever heard. Other reports have been to the effect that the tour was a financial failure.

WANTS TO KNOW THE PRICE

Editor Lents Herald: Would you inform me through your valuable paper what it would cost me to get an article like you gave "Smiling Joe" Bauer last week. I have asked him but he refuses to tell what it cost him. I would like a good writeup about myself, if your advertising rate isn't too high. I live right here in Lents and everyone knows what a mean cuss I am. But maybe if you would give me a good spiel some would believe I was a jolly good sport. I will pay well. Thank you. N.D.G.

Our bounty is unpurchasable, our charity without price. If horse thieves and pirates can be pictured in robes of white with a shining halo, your case is by no means hopeless. Just step in and ask for the advertising manager and he will take care of your needs. We collected $19 from one of them the other day who came to the office and consigned us to glory.

NOTICE

A merchant in a nearby community told a Mt. Scott Herald reporter the other day that there was no business anyway, so why should he advertise? And that reminds us of the hen who quit scratching because there was a scarcity of worms. It seemed to be a bad year for worms; the hen didn't see any of the wriggling varmints trying to make themselves an honest meal for a hungry chicken, and the hen soon began to have the appearance of a run-down fowl.

The owner noticed the run down appearance, caught the hen, killed her and threw the carcass to the "hawses"—and the moral is this: "Don't let your business get that rundown appearance or some of your best customers might get it into their heads that you are ready for the financial graveyard, and pass you up like a pay-car passes a tramp."

ADVERTISING NOT NECESSARY

TURK LOSING HOLD IN EUROPE

Vast Empire Once Under the Crescent

Has Been Slowly Dwindling Since

The Year 1899.

Those who were in hopes that Turkey might take herself, "bag and baggage, out of everything" and have seen a setback to their hopes in the Serbian revision, can cheer up a bit by looking at the map, says the Christian Science Monitor. The chart of the Ottoman empire as it has existed since 1898 presents, indeed, a hopeful sight. The empire slowly and surely has been going back to first things. The crumbling began in 1899, when Transylvania, Slovakia and a chunk of Poland and Hungary were lost. The Banat went in 1717, the Bukowina in 1775, the Taurida and the Crimea in 1783, and the Odessa district in 1792. The next century was even more disastrous for Turkey, who lost Bessarabia in 1812, a part of

Serbia in 1815, Georgia and Greece in 1829, Algeria in 1830, Bulgaria in 1876, northern Armenia, Romania and more of Serbia in 1878, Tunisia and some of Greece in 1881, and Egypt in 1882. Nor has the present century
