GOLDEN GATE COFFEE. PEOPLE OFFER PRESENTS
When anyone offers us a present, we are attracted at once, and immediately curiosity is aroused.

Golden Gate people are giving something away through our stores this week—it is Coffee.

They are proud of the quality. They wish to advertise it. The offer is so attractive that every Coffee user reading this ad will be pleased to know that with every 2½ lb. purchase, one-half pound is given free; with every 5-pound purchase one pound is given free.

Besides the free gift from the Golden Gate people, we are going to make the price 40c a pound. With the free goods this brings this coffee to you at 33 1-3c.

For example, you purchase a 5-pound can for which you pay $2.00; you get six pounds instead of five. Can you afford to miss this?

wood, from Salem, where he is attending the university; Nelson Hackett and wife, Corvallis; Dora Hackett, Hood River; Lewis Wanzler and wife, The Dalles; Rev. A. C. Lacey, Oak Grove; Joe Hackett, wife and son, and A. C. McDonald, Portland.

Wm. Amburn last week entertained his niece and husband, Robert Wilmer, who is secretary and treasurer of the Episcopal bishop of Shanghai, China. They left Monday evening for Victoria, B. C., and sailed Thursday. They have been in the service five years and this is their first furlough.

Born to George Katy and wife, of 60th street, October 6, a son.

Mrs. Dr. Stout entertained Miss Mella White, one of the Arleta teachers, at dinner Tuesday evening.

J. H. Fisher and wife of Haines motored to Portland to spend the week with their daughter, Mrs. Bruce Polwarth, 3712 76th street.

Friday evening the Kellogg school put on the play, "Little Lord Fauntleroy" to a full house.

Mrs. D. L. Hiatt has been confined to her home by illness the past week. Rev. W. Gray Alter, of Grove City, Pa., is the guest of Dr. Hony White. Dean Asdale returned Saturday

ST. PETER'S CATHOLIC CHURCH

The parish bazaar will be held in the Grange hall December 1, 2 and 3. The sewing circle met today at the home of Mrs. F. Van Haelst. Messdames Durrie and Van Haelst acted as hostesses.

Mrs. E. Stubbs will entertain with "500" this (Friday) evening, at her home, 6129 94th street, for the benefit of the bazaar, beginning at 8:30. Prizes will be given and refreshments served.

Edward Cowhey died October 3 and was buried from the local undertaking parlors the sixth. The deceased was born in Ireland 91 years ago. The burial was in charge of the British Benevolent Society and was attended by Mr. J. Trant, the British consul. Services were conducted by the Rev. J. P. O'Flynn.

Among our out-of-town visitors was Otto Erickson, mayor of Beaverton, an old friend of the pastor. Otto sold his first Ford to Father O'Flynn, when the latter was laying the foundation of the Catholic parish there. And today Otto, through sheer force of activity and honesty and brains, has over half a million dollars sunk in the Ford interests all over Washington county. And if Beaverton today is a neat little city of cleanliness and hard-surfaced streets, it may thank its present mayor.

Masses on Sundays at 8 and 10:30. Services Wednesday, Friday and Sunday nights at 7:45.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH

Communion services were observed Sunday morning and Sunday evening. Attendance in all the services is picking up nicely.

Walter Tyler sang Sunday night in the League service and Mr. Tamplin, of the Friends' church, made a short talk on "How We Have Improved Our Society." He was given a vote of thanks for his splendid suggestions, among the best of them being punctuality, faithfulness in attendance, and being "prayed up." Marion Culver was the enthusiastic leader. The League will hold its monthly business meeting and social in the young men's room of the church tonight.

The parsonage is to be painted. The outside of the church is finished.

The home of Mrs. Ed. Knauis on 94th street is to be the next place of meeting for the Holiness Prayer Band this afternoon at two.

The family of Carl Spearow is being welcomed at services again.

Next Sunday has been designated by the churches as Go-to-Church Sunday.

BAPTIST CHURCH

The Juniors will give a Hallowe'en social October 28, at the church.

The Willing Workers class are to furnish music for the district Sunday school convention which will meet with Brentwood U.B. church, Sunday, Oct. 30.

The pastor, E. A. Smith, will deliver an address before the Clackamas county convention of Odd Fellows, which meets at Fatacada, Saturday, October 15.

More than 250 were present at the Sunday school rally Sunday.

The choir proposes to give an old folks' concert in the near future.

Morning theme Sunday: "Unfinished Things".

Evening, song and Evangelistic service at 7:30; subject: "The Voices Behind You".

PENTECOSTAL GOSPEL

Pentecostal gospel meeting at the hall, 84th street and Woodstock avenue (Mt. Scott carline). Services during the week Tuesday and Thursday nights at 8 o'clock. Services on Sunday at 11 and 3; evening at 8. Everybody welcome. W. S. Lovejoy and wife in charge.

from Bend, Wash., where he has been looking after his potato crop.

Stanley Cormack, of 67th street, this week sold his residence and one acre, receiving $5000 for the property.

How Young People Can Save Money

- FIRST—Don't "blow it in."
- SECOND—Put everything over and above legitimate expenses in this bank.
- THIRD—Let it stay here—at least until you have enough to finance a profitable business deal.

Some of the richest men in this county started life by opening a savings account with one dollar. How about you, young man?
