FRIENDS CHURCH.

The Sunday school gave its record offering last Sunday, amounting to $27. The school gives all offerings to missions. Last Sunday had been designated as a special day for offerings in order that we might close our fiscal year, April 1 to March 31, with all obligations met.

We expect the total offerings for the year to reach $200. There was considerable excitement as the roll was called by classes and the secretary gave the amounts. The competition was close between the Aeronauts and the young married people's class, the latter winning by a close margin.

The Friends will meet at 7:40 o'clock Thursday evening and go over to the Evangelical church to attend their revival meeting which is being held this week. Several of the Friends went Monday night.

This week seems to be a busy one for committees. The finance committee met Tuesday night at the pastor's residence. This was the last meeting for the church year closing April 1. The treasurer reports the financial condition of the church in good shape with everything up except about $50 of Yearly Meeting money.

The store house league nominating committee meets at the pastor's Wednesday night and the missionary committee meets after choir practice Friday night.

The women of the church will go to Mrs. Braithwaite's for their afternoon prayer meeting this week. "Grandma" Spann will be there and this is to be a farewell meeting for her before going back to Iowa. The ladies will serve cake and cocoa.

Methodists Hold Prayer Meetings.

Among the 59 cottage prayer meetings held Tuesday night in Portland were those at H. Knox, Sixty-sixth, near Forty-eighth avenue; L. Bentley, Seventieth, near Forty-fourth avenue; F. Finnell, Sixty-first, near Forty-sixth avenue; L. Brock, 4704 Forty-third avenue; Rev. Mr. Thomas, 4707 Sixty-fourth avenue; Woodstock M. E. church, Forty-fourth street and Woodstock avenue; Mr. Trenary, 7515 Fifty-sixth avenue; Rev. F. R. Sibley, 5329 Eighty-eighth street; Mr. Wilkinson, 9003 Sixty-eighth avenue; Mrs. Beatty, 6567 Ninety-fourth street; Mrs. Riggs, 5920 Eighty-fifth street; Mr. Calkins, 8311 Sixtieth avenue; Mrs. Hurd, 7627 Sixty-first avenue.

Meetings will be held tonight and Tuesday night in preparation for the coming of Dr. George Wood Anderson, who will open a six weeks' gospel crusade in the tabernacle, East Third and Irving streets. During the crusade the cottage prayer meetings will be held each Tuesday and Friday mornings at 10 and 10:30 o'clock.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH

The W. M. S. elected officers Wednesday afternoon of last week, at the parsonage. The same officers were chosen who served the past year.
Our special meetings began Thursday night, March 9th, with a talk by the pastor in the prayer room. Rev. Maurer of the First church spoke Friday night. Rev. Glanville of Bellingham is expected to arrive the first of next week to assist throughout the remainder of the meeting.
The Prayer Band met with Grandma Failer on 95th street Friday.

Among those of our number who have been ill are Grandma Scheuerman, Grandma Failer and Miss Ada Alberts.

A quartet from the North Pacific Bible Institute will sing at the Evangelical church tonight. Rev. Mr. Culver expects the entire school to be over one night next week, possibly Friday, to take charge of the music.

Fresh Butter and Eggs

We are very particular as to where we buy our butter and eggs. Only those farmers whose products we know are always right can deal with us.

You can profit by our discrimination if you trade here. And you can be sure that we are just as particular about where we get our creamery butter as we are about the dairy butter.

Our prices stand comparison.
