

CONCERNING DOGS

The dog is placed at the feet of women in sculpture to symbolize affection and fidelity.

David Lawrence, hero of a popular old English tale, had a dog which was so lazy that it leaned its head against a wall when it barked.

The expression, "dog in the manger," is applied to a churlish person who will not use what is wanted by another nor let the other use it.

In the Far East the dog still is held in abhorrence as a scavenger of the streets, and the appellation "dirty dog" is the superlative of disdain.

Barry, the famous mastiff of Great St. Bernard's, in the early part of the Nineteenth century, was instrumental in saving the lives of 40 Alpine travelers.

A dog at the feet of a Crusader was symbolic of the fact that the Crusader followed the standard of the Lord as faithfully as the dog follows the footsteps of his master.

Cerberus, according to Roman mythology, was the three-headed dog guarding the entrance to the infernal regions. Hercules dragged the monster to earth, but released him.

"Barking dogs never bite" had its origin in the statement that dogs in their wild state never bark, but howl, whine and growl. Barking is an acquired habit and, it was believed, was no indication of a savage temper.

"Dog-watch" is a corruption of "dodge-watch" and has no relation to dogs. In seafaring two short watches, one from 4 o'clock to 6 and the other from 6 to 8 in the evening, were introduced to dodge the routine or prevent the same men always keeping watch at the same time.

ARKANSAS "MEWSINGS"

The man who won't listen to reason is usually thinking the same thing about you.

Mighty bad to fall by the wayside, but it's worse than bad to lie there and holler, when you might rise and run.

The lad who is always telling you that banks are not safe is the same fellow who never has anything to put in them.

The summer dresses are to be tight with loose effect. They must expect them to look like a girl who has had too many cocktails.

Don't like that expression, "Prosperity's just 'round the corner." Prosperity has been cornered too many times by a willful group of watchful waiters.

Don't stop to measure happiness, but if you do, don't worry when it runs over the rim—for some poor soul'll get it on the lonesome way.—Arkansas Thomas Cat.

PITHY PARAGRAPHS

The alarm clock usually catches a fellow napping.

One need not be a botanist to recognize a blooming idiot.

Water on the brain is seldom due to a thirst for knowledge.

A fellow is certainly up in the air when a woman sweeps him off his feet.

If they had to turn their own grindstones fewer people would have axes to grind.

Some society people prune their genealogical trees by cutting off their poor relations.

It is from the family jar one discovers whether one has married a peach or a lemon.—Boston Transcript.

IN OTHER CITIES

Boston leads all cities in fish consumption.

St. Louis covers 62 1/2 square miles, and has 357 miles of paved streets.

St. Joseph, Mo., is the fourth city in wholesale dry goods, fifth in candy and fifth in hardware—first per capita in each.

The improved waterfront of New York city, as measured around piers and shore line, is 272 miles long. This is more than twice the extreme length of Long Island.

St. Augustine, Fla., the oldest European settlement in the United States, was founded August 23, 1565, by Don Pedro Menendez De-Aviles, dispatched by Philip II of Spain to drive out the French Protestant refugees, who three years before had reached Alibonnie sound.

AROUND THE WORLD

The Persian can repudiate his wife if she is bad tempered, extravagant, very thin, invalid, or blind.

In India a widow remarries at the loss of her dignity and a fiancée cannot marry if her prospective husband dies.

WEDDING LORE

It is good luck if the wedding gift arriving first is silver.

To break a wedding present before the wedding means trouble.

If the bride receives much table linen her family will never want food.

"If you wish a strife, between man and wife, present them with a silver knife."

As many ironholders as are given to you when married, so many boys will you have.

For the bride to receive a pieced quilt as a wedding gift brings great good luck.

If among the wedding presents there happens to be a match box, the bride will marry twice.

The groom should wear something that was given him as a present if he wishes good luck.

If you receive a piano as a wedding gift and cannot play on it you and your husband will part.

Present the bride with a small ball of twine, which as it decreases denotes an increase of fortune.

Duplicate presents should not be changed unless one is willing to take a chance on changing their luck.

If a bride wishes to always retain her husband's love and confidence, she should never wear to the altar anything that was given her by a male friend.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

Girls like water because of the reflection.

Sometimes being misunderstood is to be preferred.

No man is totally bad and no woman totally good.

Every tattered man has a motion-picture show of his own.

It's hard to please yourself when somebody else has the start.

Man can see a sorrow at twice the distance he can see a blessing.

A grouch sometimes comes without a reason, and stays until he has one.

A woman's baby couldn't be any more wonderful to her even if it were twins.

You can never be a great man so long as you associate exclusively with small men.

TIMBER

The forests of Florida contain 175 varieties of wood.

Circassian walnut is heavier than water and will not float.

The Australian eucalyptus tree sometimes attains a height of 500 feet.

Mahogany trees do not grow in clusters, but are found scattered throughout forests and hidden in dense undergrowth.

Dwarf oaks, which will take root in a thimbleful of soil and grow only an inch and a half in height, are plentiful in China.

A cord of heavy wood, such as oak, beech, birch, hard maple, ash, elm, locust and some varieties of cherry, is equal in heating value to a ton of coal.

TWO SETS OF LIARS

Every liar has his own system.

The next biggest is the maiden who loves a man.

The biggest liar is the man who loves a maiden.

And the world keeps right on moving, brother, right on moving.—Richmond Times Dispatch.

MEANINGS OF MOLES

A mole on the breast is an indication of affection, strength, courage and loyalty.

On the left shoulder, a mole denotes sorrow, while on the upper lip shows a happy marriage.

The water area, exclusive of the Great Lakes, the Atlantic, the Pacific and the Gulf of Mexico, within the three-mile limit, is 53,015 square miles.

The farthest north point is a small detached land area of northern Minnesota ending in latitude 49 degrees, 23 minutes, and longitude 95 degrees, nine minutes.

WISE SAYINGS

An ounce of loyalty is worth a pound of cleverness.

It is the lifted face that feels the shining of the sun.

Genius is taking infinite pains—not inspiration, but perspiration.

Failures are with heroic minds the stepping stones to success.

If those who are industrious all imitated the idlers, the world would soon starve.

There is something harder to face than death, and that is the realization of failure and misdirected effort and wrongdoing.

A true man's allegiance is given to that which is highest in his own nature. He reverences truth, he loves kindness, he respects justice.

Life is a great and noble calling, not a mean and groveling thing to be hurried through as we can, but a lofty and exalted destiny.

QUAKER QUIPS

The girl with the biggest cheek doesn't always do the most blushing.

It's the easiest thing in the world to flatter a woman by calling her a flirt.

What is one man's loss is another man's gain, except possibly when a fellow loses his temper.

The devil may have his faults, but at any rate he never puts off till tomorrow what he can do today.

A woman is always keen about acquiring the latest wrinkle, unless it happens to hit her in the face.

Honesty is the best policy. Still the fellow who hesitates to steal a kiss is apt to go without.

Maybe it's because we do things by halves that one-half the world doesn't know how the other half lives.—Philadelphia Record.

INDUSTRIAL

German silver is an alloy of nickel and zinc, in which there is no silver.

Fourteen to fifteen yards of thread are required to stitch the uppers of a pair of shoes.

The world's coffee crop is about 800,000 tons, of which America consumes about one-third.

Factories located in Massachusetts make more than half the world's supply of boots and shoes.

Sixty cents is the estimated cost of stopping an ordinary freight train and again getting it under way at its average speed, 25 miles an hour.

The first sawmill in America was built in New York in 1663. The first steam power sawmill was built in New Orleans by Oliver Evans in 1803.

The first dry goods commission house in America was opened in Philadelphia in 1805, for the sale of cotton yarns and threads manufactured in Rhode Island.

It is estimated that in a year 900,000,000 tons of coal are wasted through incomplete combustion of the fuel and in heating and lighting unoccupied rooms and needless places.

In the state of New York there are more than 1,500,000 factory hands of foreign birth. One-fourth of them cannot read or write their native language and half of them cannot understand or speak English.

READ AND HEED

Helpfulness helps self.

Generosity pays generous dividends.

Every time you lie you incur a liability.

A good name is the foundation of credit.

COAL STRIKE CANNOT AFFECT PORTLAND.

At least as long as the Gas company's production of Gasco Briquets keeps up.

This company produces millions of pounds of the best fuel that is made, as it is almost entirely carbon.

People buying Gasco Briquets do not spend their money for ashes.

As the coal strike was announced, the news also appeared in the papers that Gasco Briquets had been reduced to $14.75 for delivery at the company's convenience during the summer.

This enables them to keep their organized crews in tact, thus saving the extra cost of crowding all deliveries into a few months in the fall. This saving is passed on to the public and last year those that bought at the special summer price saved themselves a total of over $23,000.—Adv.

Pie Crust.

Take a flour sieve about three-fourths full of flour, one teaspoon salt, sift twice; then take about one-half pound lard and work the lard through the flour until every bit has been worked in. Now add just enough water so as to knead it hardly any. The least water will be the crust.

Raisin Pie.

One-half cup raisins, one cup cold water; place these in a warm, but not too hot part of the stove and let stand about an hour. Beat one egg light, add one cup sugar and one tablespoon flour which have been thoroughly mixed. Add the juice of one lemon. Now place the raisins and water where they will boil, stir the other mixture slowly in until it is thick. Cool before placing in pie crust, to bake.

Sour Cream Pie.

One cup sour cream, little salt, one cup sugar, one tablespoon flour, and one cup chopped raisins. Mix all together and bake in one crust.

Fluffy Lemon Pie.

Beat the yolks of three eggs; add one cup sugar and juice of one lemon; cook in double boiler a few minutes. While hot stir in the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs. Put in a baked crust and bake until delicately browned.

Macaroni and Eggs.

Boil macaroni in salted water until done, drain and stir in two eggs until they are cooked, when served it will resemble macaroni with yellow rice and is a little change from being served plain, besides being quite hearty.

Dandelions.

Wash and pick over carefully the greens. Boil in salted water until tender, drain and chop fine, season with the juice of half a lemon, salt, pepper and a little butter. Serve hot.

Pineapple Salad.

Mix equal parts of pineapple, orange and bananas, cut in small pieces, arrange on lettuce leaves and add the following dressing. One cup of pineapple juice, one and one-half cups of sugar, one and one-half teaspoons of flour, cook in double boiler until thick. When cool add one cup whipped cream.

Creamed Fish.

Boil three pounds of any kind of white fish in salted boiling water until done. Cool and pick out all bones. Make a white sauce or cream with 1 1/2 cups of hot milk, one tablespoon flour and a pinch of salt. Cook until creamy. Pepper may be added if liked. Now put layer of fish in buttered dish, then layer of sauce until the dish is full, having a layer of sauce on top. Cover the top with buttered bread or cracker crumbs and cook in oven until brown.

Fish Cakes.

An excellent way to use up left over cold fish. Take about a pound of cold fish, remove all bones, and break in up fine. Next take one-half pound of cold potatoes, mash up and mix with the fish. Chop some fresh parsley very fine and mix all together with a little milk. For those who want it a little seasoning may be added. Form mixture into a number of small cakes. Dip in egg and coat with bread crumbs. Fry until a golden brown in deep fat.

Fried Oysters.

One pint of large oysters, sprinkle with lemon juice, roll in flour, dip in beaten egg, roll in cracker crumbs and fry in salted butter.

Fresh Mackerel Fried.

Score and salt the fish, roll in Indian meal, fry in hot fat. If you put the fish into fat that is not very hot it will fall to pieces before it crisps.

Circulation

There are two kinds of newspaper circulations, quantity, and quality. Quantity circulation is bona-fide circulation which goes into homes or to people who have little or no buying power. Quality circulation is bona-fide circulation which goes into homes and to persons who have buying power.

Mere numbers in circulation is not what advertisers pay for. They desire quality circulation. Papers left in depots, to be taken free, may reach persons or homes, and MAY NOT. The circulation of a newspaper is not complete until it has reached its destination, the HOME.

The Mount Scott Herald goes into 700 homes each week. The paper goes into the homes. Copies are not left on store counters, to be thrown away by clerks.

And people PAY FOR The Mount Scott Herald because it is worth something. It is not FREE to subscribers—thereby throwing the entire burden of the newspaper's cost upon the advertisers.

The Herald's circulation is not increasing 20 per cent each week, because the fastest growing newspaper in the United States has not attained such unheard of growth. The Herald grows slowly, but it is real, not Mushroom growth.

WHEN newspaper circulators tell you of 20 per cent a week, from 1250 to 1500, such phenomenal growth THEY COUNT THE COPIES THAT ARE THROWN IN THE BRUSH BY BOYS OR LEFT TO YELLOW ON STORE COUNTERS until sufficient fires have been built to use them up.
