WHY NOT IN THE OPEN?

Suppose it is assumed that the Ku Klux Klan promoters are right about the things they seem most interested in. Suppose it is really for the best interests of the country to prohibit further immigration, limit the activities of foreign-born citizens, keep the negroes down, wage war as Henry Ford has done, against the Hebrews, and proscribe Roman Catholics as far as public life is concerned. This looks to any intelligent and broad-minded American, familiar with his country's history, like a pretty big and dubious program. But suppose the Klansmen are right in principle.

Is it proper, then, or necessary, to hand together by a secret oath and mumble a foolish ritual and disguise themselves in absurd costume and seek their purpose under cover of darkness?

This is a free country, with a free government, with orderly political methods for the accomplishment of any public purpose, and with constitutional guarantees of fair play. If the Klan, then, seeks to accomplish an "American" purpose, let it avail itself of this American machinery provided. Let the Klan come into the open, if its aims are so important for national salvation. Let it organize a political party, with an avowed platform submitted for public discussion and judgment. Surely "100 per cent Americans" are not afraid to do that. —From the Riverside Press, Riverside, Cal.

A Dangerous Fad

Ours is a day of psychological fads. Vanity is tickled by a supposed ability to talk about subjects rightly or wrongly labeled psychological, and vanity is a prolific source of delusion and harm. Self-knowledge is a very useful and important part of one's equipment for life, and no one thinks of questioning the legitimacy of a science that endeavors honestly to explore the phenomenal laws and sources of our conscious life. Granting all this it is none the less true that at the present time there is a vast amount of fraud disguised as science and movements are fostered that are full of danger.

We do not imagine for a moment that many of our readers are in danger of being made dupes of these faddists, and probably few of them have any acquaintance with psychoanalysis or have any desire to become acquainted with it. Still, that man-sized word is the vogue today, and scarcely a paper or magazine is without some mention of it. As the label of a particular group or school, it is a term full of danger and a most sensible and timely warning against it and what it stands for has been uttered by a distinguished French physician now visiting America. His words are directed particularly to women, to those who are handicapped by having too much unoccupied time and those who crave distraction after work; and to both types he holds up the warning hand of danger. Knowing whereof he speaks, he says very plainly that the fad of psychoanalysis is easily and frequently made a cloak, a pretext for licentious mental intercourse. The sex idea is at the bottom of the whole thing and the plausible terms of science cannot take from it the very real moral danger inseparable from it.—Western Watchman.

Little Helpers
Sweeping and washing the dishes,
Bringing the wood from the shed,
Ironing, sewing and knitting,
Helping to make up the bed,
Taking good care of the baby,
Watching her lest she should fall—
We little children are busy;
Oh, there is work for us all,
Helping mamma.

Work makes us cheerful and happy,
Makes us both active and strong;
Play we enjoy all the better
When we have labored so long,
Gladly we help our kind parents,
Quickly we come to their call;
Children should love to be busy,—
There is much work for us all,
Helping papa and mamma. —Selected.

"THE GOLDEN LEGEND"

"Virgin and Mother of our dear Redeemer!
All hearts are touched and softened
at her name;
Alike the bandit with the bloody hand,
The priest, the prince, the scholar
and peasant,
The man of deeds, the visionary
dreamer
Pay homage to her as one ever present!

And if our faith had given us nothing more
Than this example of all womanhood
So mild, so merciful, so strong, so good,
So patient, peaceful, loyal, loving,
pure—
This was enough to prove it higher and truer Than all the creeds the world has known before." —LONGFELLOW.

"John," said the wife, "you'll have to take that ball away from baby; he hit sister on the head with it."
"Yes, dear," answered the husband;
"but you should have seen the curve
the little cuss had on it."

A teacher was conducting a lesson in history.
"Tommy Jones," she said, "what was there about George Washington which distinguished him from all other famous Americans?"
"He didn't lie," was the prompt answer.

A college professor, noted for strict discipline, entered the classroom one day and noticed a girl student sitting with her feet in the aisle and chewing gum.
"Mary," exclaimed the indignant professor, "take that gum out of your mouth and put your feet in."

J. Burdette, our local dairyman on 99th st., writes that it pays to sell milk of the best quality; that he not only gets 12c a quart for his milk, which is from 2 to 3 cents above the market price, but that he usually has from 5 to 6 people on the waiting list.

It will be remembered that in the semiannual contest ending last December, in which 162 dairies were listed that Mr. Burdette held the highest score in Raw Milk.

Mr. Burdette guarantees his milk to keep sweet at least 36 hours after delivery in summer and 72 hours in winter.

Quality Canned Goods

We protect our customers by handling only such brands of canned goods whose makers have high reputations to uphold.

There are numerous poorer grades marketed which we have carefully avoided in selecting for our trade, though we might profit more by stocking them.

Let us introduce you to the Laun-Dry-Ette

We were introduced to the Laun-Dry-Ette not long ago and liked it so well that we went after the Laun-Dry-Ette franchise. We were successful and can now announce our appointment as Laun-Dry-Ette representatives.

It is but natural that we, having made this pleasant acquaintance, should wish to introduce you also to the Laun-Dry-Ette. It is demonstrated daily at our store. Let us show you this Washing Machine That Does More—one that makes it unnecessary for you even to put your hands in water on washday.
