The Ku Klux Klan having made claims that it enjoys the sympathy Yesterday is gone, tomorrow and support of the Masonic fraternity, the New York World undertook to get an expression of opinion from the various Masonic jurisdictions of the country. Replies were received from twenty-five of the forty-eight grand masters of the United States and, with the exception of the grand master of Alabama, those replying joined, according to the World, in pronouncing the Klan "a lawless conspiracy in violation of every prin- been received at Arleta: ciple of Masonry and of Americanism."

But what is the idea of denouncing the Klan as an un-American conspiracy and then turning in and helping the Klan do its nefarious work, as the Masons are doing here in Oregon? We see the name of the Oreson Masonic grand master among those deciaring themselves, in the World, enemies of the Klan. Apcountry. parently the rank and file of Oregon Masonry pays little attention to the fulminations of the grand master. The principal plank in the Klan platform in Oregon is the destruction of private elementary schools; that is also an outstanding object of the Masonic organization in this state.

A NEW AMENDMENT

The National Child Labor committee has decided to ask for a constitutional amendment for the protection of child labor; the recent decision of the supreme court voiding the child labor tax law has made it clear, according to the committee, that congressional legislation cannot meet the ituation under the constitution as it exists
