Waldorf Salad
Wash and clean the celery and cut in fine pieces about one and one-half cups full, then set aside in cold water.
Wash and pare two large apples or three small apples, cut in fine pieces and set aside in cold water. Grind or chop about six English walnuts or any other kinds of nuts. Drain the celery and apples and mix with the nuts and mayonnaise. Serve on lettuce leaves with a little mayonnaise on top.

Mayonnaise Dressing Yolk of one egg, one teaspoon lemon juice, one-half teaspoon mustard, a pinch of paprika. Mix and very slowly stir in two-thirds cup of salad oil, beating in the oil each time before adding more. Add two more teaspoons of lemon juice after all the oil has been mixed in smoothly. This may be changed by adding one-half cup of sweet cream whipped stiff; by adding one-half cup of sour cream whipped stiff, and also by adding one-half cup of parsley and capers chopped fine, or any other combination to suit the taste; such as two tablespoons of grated onion, two tablespoons of finely chopped pepper, two table-spoons Chili sauce, one hard-boiled egg, chopped fine, one tablespoon of garlic vinegar. Serve ice cold.

Banana Salad
Peel and cut lengthwise, place on plates and on each half put one-half a tablespoon of chopped nut meats; cover with lemon juice or a cream salad dressing, garnish with lettuce leaves and serve.

Cream Salad Dressing
One heaping teaspoon mustard, one of sugar, two spoonfuls melted butter mixed together. Stir one heaping spoonful of flour into one beaten egg until smooth, and add one-fourth cupful sweet milk and two spoonfuls of vinegar; then add the first mixture and mix all together. Set in a dish of hot water and stir till it thickens. (A double boiler is best). Remove from the fire and add three spoonfuls vinegar, a pinch of salt and a dash of cayenne. Let it cool. Then add one-fourth cupful of milk or cream, slowly stirring all the time. This will keep for a week in a covered dish, if set in a cool place.

Mr. Johnson, stickler for correct English, both in and out of the classroom, takes every opportunity to set right the erring in this respect. A few days ago he went into a drug store and asked for a man's comb.
"Do you want a narrow man's comb?" inquired the clerk, court-teously.
"No," replied Mr. Johnson, with the utmost gravity. "I desire a comb for a stout man with rubber teeth."

Conversation would never lag if everyone used his mind to the same purpose as did the small niece of a contributor to the Chicago Tribune.
After answering innumerable questions put by the little chatterbox, she finally asked:
"Doris, whatever makes you talk so much?"
"Why," she immediately replied, "because I always fink of sumpin' to say!"

GERMAN REPARATIONS SOLUTION IS SOUGHT

American Commission to Report on German Ability to Pay Is Suggested.

Washington, D. C.—Despite what progress may have been made toward extending American aid in composing the reparations disagreement in Europe, there was evidence that much remains to be done before all the interested elements can be brought into agreement.

There is no assurance so far that France will find it possible to agree to a proposal for an American commission to survey German economic conditions and fix a basis on which a new reparations program might be framed.

In this situation, officials in Washington are seeking to minimize as far as possible any direct connection with the discussion in which they have taken part and to emphasize that in what has been done they have acted only in an unofficial capacity.

But there was no clear-cut denial that high officials in Washington had discussed the commission proposal earnestly among themselves and with others and no one attempted to give the impression that the United States government would be displeased should the discussions now in progress result in an agreement.

The proposal so far has been discussed outside the formal channels of diplomacy but an understanding in authoritative circles has been developed through an exchange of views that the United States, Great Britain and Germany are willing to assent to the creation of such a commission. Premier Poincare of France now has the plan before him and is expected to make a decision when he has concluded a series of conferences with industrial leaders of France and of Germany.

BODIES OF KIDNAPED MEN ARE DISCOVERED

Mer Rouge, La.—Bodies of two men blown from the bottom of Lake La Fourche by unidentified dynamites were lying at an undertaking establishment here while military men stood guard pending the arrival of additional troops from Alexandria and New Orleans, ordered here by the adjutant-general.

The bodies, badly mutilated and bound with wire, were believed by the authorities to be those of Watt Daniels and Thomas Richards, members of a party of five prominent Mer Rouge citizens who were kidnaped last August by white-robed and hooded men and who have been missing since, and the object of three days of raking of the lakes of Morehouse parish by national guardsmen, federal agents and professional divers.

It is believed here that the inquest would be followed by the arrest of at least 20 persons, alleged ring leaders of the August mob. The names of these men will be presented the military or civil court by department of justice agents who have been conducting secret investigations, it was stated.

JANUARY 27, 1923

At midnight, January 27, 1923, we will place in service our new machine switching offices, Beacon on the west side and Garfield on the east side of the river and Sunset in the Southeast section of the city. Representatives of the company are now calling upon patrons in the districts affected and demonstrating the use of the new dial sets.

Our new directory will be distributed beginning January 18, 1923. It is effective at the time of the cut-over—midnight, January 27. It is important that all our subscribers refrain from using the new directory when distributed until the cut-over date and that they use it exclusively beginning at midnight, January 27. There are approximately 15,000 number changes in the new book and unless the above plan is observed there will be inevitable confusion and delay in your service.
