

JOHNSON FIGHTING TO KEEP EUROPEAN HORDE OUT OF U. S.

American Fraternal Federation of Oregon Helping in Great Problem

Western American Special.
Washington, Jan. 17.—Representative Albert Johnson, chairman of the House Committee on Immigration and Naturalization, is co-operating actively with the American Fraternal Federation of Oregon and other patriotic bodies, in a constructive effort to solve the great problem of immigration. Mr. Johnson made public today a letter sent to F. W. Wright, executive secretary of the Federation, at Portland, in which he tells some facts but little known to the general public. The letter follows:

Washington, D. C., Jan. 4, 1923.
Mr. F. W. Wright, Secretary,
American Fraternal Federation of Oregon,
1216 Northwestern Bank Building,
Portland, Oregon.

My Dear Sir:—
I have your letter of Dec. 17 and note change in the name of your organization. Newspaper reports lead you to a misunderstanding as to the purported passage of the bill through both houses of Congress, permitting immigrants to enter this country under bond in excess of the quota. The reports refer to a bill which passed the House last March to authorize immigration to the number of 2400, which had come in excess of the quotas during the first trial year of that law, to remain in the United States. The Senate has just enacted that measure, which is now before the president.

About one-fourth of these immigrants came through an honest misunderstanding of the new law; others had started on the seas before they had knowledge of the quota law. About a thousand were picked up in Constantinople by American ships, sent here, and could not well be returned, except to almost certain death.

Other bills now pending undertake to provide that Armenian refugees from Turkey, now in Greece, may be admitted to relatives in the United States. Proponents of this measure are undetermined as to whether the number might be 10,000 or 50,000, or even more. As a substitute, I have offered a substitute to the effect that from certain countries where quotas for the year ended June 30, 1923, are now exhausted, that the quotas from such countries which might begin to come July 1, 1923, be permitted to come now. The whole number will be less than 8,000, and there will be no additions whatever to the total number to be admitted to the United States from the countries in question.

Press reports concerning this resolution particularly were erroneous.

Yours truly,
ALBERT JOHNSON,
Chairman.

Rex Ramsey Leads Newsboys' Phalanx

Rex Ramsey, who lives with his parents at 1783 Phelps street, is the champion, so far, among the enterprising little merchants who have WESTERN AMERICAN routes. Rex is not yet in his teens, but can surpass the average boy of 15 or 16 in salesmanship. He is a natural-born salesman and, himself believing in his paper, knowing it to be altogether American and good literature, he makes his sales with an enthusiasm that nothing can discourage. There's a prize waiting for this boy at the end of the month. He sold 75 papers in record time one evening last week. Some day, his friends say, he will be a great merchant, or perhaps a leading lawyer, or a congressman. Other lads are doing well on salesmanship, but will have to go some to equal Rex Ramsey's record.

Knightly Leader of 'The L.O.T.I.E'

Rev. R. H. SAWYER, Grand Counsellor of the Ladies of the Invisible Empire, Imperial Headquarters at 326 Pittcock Block, Portland, Oregon.

Dr. Sawyer is well known internationally, not only on account of his foundational work for the great organization of women, "The L.O.T.I.E.," but also because he is one of the three distinguished Americans who are Vice-Patrons of The British-Israel World Federation. Recognizing the fact that the Anglo-Saxon nations are the continuation of the Israel Nation, the inheritors of her Charters, the possessors of her guarantees and promises from destruction, this great Federation is striving effectively to serve the executors of Israel's commissions, for the glory of God and humanity.

The Federation has three Vice-Patrons in America and three in Canada. The Patrons in Britain are: H. R. H. Princess Alice, Countess of Athlone; The Rt. Hon. The Countess-Dowager of Radnor; His Grace The Duke of Buccleuch, K. T.; The Rt. Hon. The Earl of Dysart; The Rt. Hon. Lord Gishborough; The Rt. Hon. Lord St. John of Bletsoe; The Rt. Rev. The Bishop of the Falkland Islands; The Rt. Hon. W. F. Massey, P. C., Prime Minister of New Zealand; Major-General C. A. Hadfield, President, The Rt. Hon. Lord Gishborough; Deputy Presidents, The Rt. Hon. Lord St. John of Bletsoe and Major J. Knowles, O. B. E. The Secretary-General is Herbert Garfison, P. R. G. S., F. R. C. L., and J. Arthur Jutsum, Esq., head of a great London bank, is treasurer.

The Vice-Patrons are men and women of exalted social and educational rank, throughout the civilized world, including many titled personages of the world's first families. "Together in Unity" is the motto of the Federation, which has for its object the universal spread of Anglo-Saxon civilization, which embodies the American ideals of Liberty, Equality and Fraternity.

The leading editorial in The National Message—official weekly journal of the Federation—in its issue of December 23, contained the following significant statement:

"Without hesitation we say the breaking of the nations of Europe was not without a specific reason, and this reason was that they had lost their faith in Christ the Saviour and King, and transferred their allegiance to the gods of ambition and power. If they were broken for this reason, they will not be restored by the activities of the Kingdom while that reason continues to exist. 'Thus saith the Lord' by a thousand voices, Europe shall not be restored to peace, prosperity and power, until her faith and allegiance are restored in Jesus Christ as Saviour and King. Politicians may make endeavors, financiers may lay their plans, national councils may be held and dissolved, but until the Christian faith is restored in Europe there will be no effective restoration.

"From the standpoint of the Kingdom, then, restraining hands will be upon the nations during the time of their rebellion from the King, but upon Israel-Britain is laid the task of renewing among those nations 'the faith of the Kingdom and of Christ the Saviour. This is the most practical line, and the first essential of statesmanship for the day.

"Toward the other races, the influence and authority of the Kingdom must be maintained, and the final relationship to the Kingdom must be established by adding to the authority of the Crown the faith in the High Priesthood of Our Lord Jesus Christ. The Kingdom and the established faith must work together in these and all lands. Again we say, this is practical politics, efficient statesmanship, the declared policy of administration of the Kingdom. So much for the constructive line.

"The action of the nations toward the Kingdom will, however, in the immediate future prevent the carrying out of the declared policy of the King, and will indeed put the Kingdom upon the defensive; therefore we shall have to consider the defensive policy of the Kingdom."

(Students interested in this profound subject might do well to read, as a help to understanding, a little volume by Edmond De Molins of France, entitled "Anglo-Saxon Superiority: To What It Is Due.")

Supporters of the British-Israel World Federation—and all of them are scholars and thinkers, deeply learned in history, science and biblical lore—firmly believe that Turkey in Europe is nearing its end as a troublesome world power. They declare the Turkish people are the Edomites of the Old Testament Scriptures. One of the Vice-Patrons writes:

"Three watchwords has that race—loot, tribute, taxation—and down through the ages he has left behind him a trail of blood and ashes. Now the end has come. . . . I am speaking of the great onward march of the scheme of the Divine plan. The cup of Edom is full. And now, mark you, 'Thus saith the Lord, I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of My people, Israel.' France withdrew; Italy withdrew. It is a sign of the age. What happened at Alexandria? Why did the nations lift their anchors and sail away? . . . Where the Turkish war horse treads no grass will grow. There will not be peace and progress while the Turk remains.

"There is a marvelous picture in the Book of Obadiah; it only consists of one chapter, and it is hung in that picture-gallery of the Bible. It deals with one theme, and with one only, and that is the end of these very people of whom we are speaking (the Turks). 'The house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau; for the Lord hath spoken it.' 'The morning cometh and also the night.' The great call rings out still, 'Watchman, what of the night?' If ye will enquire, enquire ye; return, come!

"Will Edom hear? Will Edom come? If so, the gate is open; but it is the gate of Jesus Christ; none other. 'I am the door.' If Edom refuses to hear; if Edom refuses to come, then He who sits upon the throne will start His forces in motion.

"Men of Britain! Men of the churches! Are you saying, 'There shall not be war?' Take care! For God says there shall be war, unless Turkey repents and comes. Don't get into the way of the progress of the Divine!

"At the very beginning of Israel's history, God laid an injunction upon Israel: You shall not attack Esau; you shall not attack Edom. That injunction holds still. We will not attack; we must not attack. We are prohibited from attacking. BUT TURKEY WILL HURL HERSELF UPON US. Events are upon us now, and He who sits upon the throne will see when that matter is settled, and that race that has prevented progress and filled the land with blood, unless it is brought in penitence to His feet, will be swept off from the face of the earth. 'This is the rumor that we have heard from the Lord.'"

The foregoing is plain enough, but in more common language it means that Turkey the infamous, the Unspeakable, is about to be wiped out by the might of Britain and America. This will be a war that will arouse to the highest pitch the fighting blood of the unconquerable Anglo-Saxon race. In "hideous ruin and combustion," in the merit of decisiveness, in its world-encompassing power and glory, the coming war will cast the recent struggle into dim insignificance, for Jehovah will lead the Anglo-Saxon legions, and all the positive forces of Christendom, mobilized into mighty armies and navies, will contend with and destroy the evil and malignant foe "who durst defy the Omnipotent to arms." It will be indeed a holy war, a necessary conflict, a world-redeeming struggle, and America's shining sword will leap from its scabbard at the clarion call, to win unexampled glory for our stainless flag and freedom for all humanity.

HERE'S HOW TO JUMP INTO LEAD IN BIG AUTO CONTEST

On each 5-year subscriptions, or approximately its equivalent in shorter term orders, to The Western American, 25,000 votes are allowed, providing same is turned in during "first period" schedule of votes, now in effect.

Then, in addition to the regular number of votes allowed on each subscription, 50,000 SPECIAL EXTRA votes are given on every "club" of $20 in subscriptions received.

Therefore, two 5-year subscriptions (amounting to $20 in business) means an even 100,000 votes.

So, it can readily be seen, by glancing at the vote totals above, that just a few such subscriptions for any one of the various candidates would at once furnish a new leader in the race.

In fact, an entirely new candidate who at this time has no votes at all, could, by a little enthusiastic action on the part of themselves and friends, climb to the top of the list and thereby acquire the leadership for the big prize automobile.

And, when one takes into consideration the value of the prizes to be awarded, and the short time the competition is in force, they are certainly worthy of any effort they might take to secure.

There is yet time to enter if you do so right away.

Lindsey Fights For Children

By JUDGE BEN B. LINDSEY

The State is becoming more and more the overparent of the child.

The next phase of the struggle concerns the responsibility of the State for the health and morals of the child. Since health and morals are so nearly related, they may be considered almost as one.

The Parenthood of the State includes its duty to see that the child is well born. By the strictest kind of marriage laws the State must forbid, as far as possible the bringing of children into the world unless they come from healthy parents. The child must no longer be the victim of conditions over which it has no control but for which society and the State itself are to blame.

When the State is imperiled, it calls the "child" of eighteen to defend it with its life. When the child is imperiled, it has a right to call on its overparent, the State, to protect it with its wealth.

The time will come when it will be regarded as a crime against childhood if the State permits that child to suffer from undernourishment, due either to poverty or ignorance. Since it is the accepted duty of the State to educate the child, it is far more its duty to feed the child.

The time to save many a boy bandit is in the nine months before and the nine months after his birth. We must have maternity laws. We must have laws to see that the child does not suffer for the lack of proper nourishment if the parents are unable to perform that function, and if they are able to perform it, see to it that it is performed.

If this is paternalism, then all of your free school system is paternalism, and if free schools are paternalism, then give us more of it.
