

JOLT FOR SHEENY MIKE, IRISH ABIE AND MISTUH SAMBO

Klavaliers Riding Jet Black Horses Comin' Slickin' Down the Rainbow.

Western American Bureau.
WASHINGTON, June 7.—Sheeny Mike and Irish Abie as well as Mistuh Gawdge Jackin White have got a jolt coming to them that they wot not of right at the present writing.

When they get this jolt, they will think hell has torn loose in reality—
For, the Klavaliers are coming! Believe me, boy; they are COMING, too!

Somewhere in this big country wherein roamed George Washington and other makers of the nation in the days of their youth there is springing up a troop of Klavaliers that will present the most awe-inspiring spectacle ever gazed upon.

The troop, which really will be a squadron, is headed by a former major of cavalry of the United States army and the head of each troop is a former officer of the Army or Marine Corps. The squadron adjutant is an ex-first sergeant of the United States Marine Corps.

Coal black horses with not a spot of white will be used. They are now being quietly bought up, wherever one can be found.

The saddles will be white, as, of course, will be the robes of the Klansmen themselves.

No man is being enrolled in the Klavaliers who is under six feet in height and who weighs less than 175 pounds. To date the average weight is 210 pounds and there is not an ounce of averdupois on any man.

When they are ready, they will appear at the most unexpected place and where great crowds will see them—perhaps during the Shrine convention.

SHRINERS MEETING IN K. OF C. HALL

Noisy "Caseys" Horn Their Way Into Masonic Gathering at Washington.

Western American Bureau.
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 7.—Shrine headquarters during the convention is in the Knights of Columbus home here, according to announcement made by the Knights of Columbus.

The noisy "Caseys," who horn their way into everything which consumes newspaper space, as does a Shrine convention, said they tendered their Carroll Hall to the Shriners and the executive committee accepted the tender with thanks.

The Knights of Columbus announcement is true. But the wonder of it, and the thing that is puzzling the Washington people is, why the Shriners did not make the same announcement themselves, since it is their "party" and not that of the Knights of Columbus.

There is very close teamwork and co-operation between the Almas Temple committee and the "Caseys," which is not approved by the rank and file of Washington Shriners, but they are powerless to help themselves. However, they state, there will be a time of reckoning after the convention is over.

It is a known fact that the Shriners themselves fell down on raising the money to entertain the visitors and had to go begging to the Romans to put them over, which the Catholics did.

The Shriners got away to a bad start, however, by employing a Roman press agent, W. H. Claggett, of the Evening Star staff. Due to the efforts of this newspaper's correspondent, however, he was ousted and a 33d degree Mason, Charles D. Warner, was substituted.

GREAT DAILY SEES BOTH SIDES OF IT

Western American Bureau.
DALLAS, Texas, June 9.—The Dallas Morning News is at last giving publicity to the Klan—that is favorable publicity, which for many months it refused to do.

In a recent issue it gave the better part of two columns of space to a lecture delivered in the city to a class of newly naturalized citizens in the Invisible Empire.

The paper stated that the lecture had been offered for publication by a citizen of Dallas who said the lecture was approved by the Imperial organization and reflected the official sentiment of the Klan. "Therefore," the paper concluded, "the lecture is reproduced herewith as a matter of public information."

740 ALIENS TAKEN THROUGH THE TESTS

Western American Bureau.
WHITAKER, Pa., June 7.—The Ku Klux Klan here last week naturalized 740 aliens in a gigantic open-air ceremonial. It is estimated that 7000 Klansmen participated in the ceremonies which more than 5000 outsiders witnessed. It is the largest ever held in this section of the country.

Aid for Minister.

Western American Bureau.
RICHARDSON, Tex., June 6.—The Rev. Edward Jackson is smiling now for the Klan has visited him. When it left, he found himself richer by $100 than he was before the mysterious men came to see him. The gift was a token of the Klan's appreciation of his good work.

30,000 HOLD GREAT KLAN CELEBRATION

Western American Bureau.
VALPARAISO, Ind., June 7.—Thirty thousand persons, most of whom were Klansmen, met here recently and held a festival. Klansmen came by special trains from Fort Wayne, Chicla, Logansport, Indianapolis, Gary, Knox, South Bend and Hammond and many drove by auto from towns in Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan and even Wisconsin. Fiery crosses burned in every town in the county on the night of the meeting.

A parade preceded the naturalization in which approximately 5000 masked Klansmen participated, and following this a class of 500 were made Klansmen. Seven bands and fifty floats were included in the parade.

Five national speakers of the Klan explained the principles and ideals and other speakers included leaders of the Queens of the Golden Mask, said to mbe a woman's auxiliary of the Klan. The Queens held their state meeting on the same day.

Broncho-busting and other stunts entertained the festive Klansmen during the day.

BAPTIST MINISTER PROUD OF BEING A MEMBER OF THE KK

Bitterly Denounces Woodrow Wilson as "Tool of the Pope in Rome."

Western American Bureau.
MARLIN, Tex., June 7.—Proclaiming his membership in the Ku Klux Klan and declaring the necessity for use of the mask in many places had ceased to exist, the Rev. B. T. Godwin, the leading Baptist clergyman of Waco, asserted the organization would continue to live as long as America lives in an address delivered here at the Falls county courthouse.

Although his audience was composed largely of Klansmen, there was a notable percentage of non-Klansmen present.

The speaker declared the Klan has no fight on the Jew, but that the Jews, in controlling the moving picture industry, were debauching the Christian people and would destroy Christianity for the next generation if something were not done to curb their activities.

He bitterly assailed ex-President Woodrow Wilson, whom he termed a "tool of the Pope in Rome."

Rev. Mr. Godwin outlined the principles of the Klan and gave its true attitude toward the Jew, the Catholic, the negro and the foreign-born, and declared he was more proud of being a Klansman than of anything on earth except being an American citizen.

ILLINOIS LEADING KLANS IN MEMBERS

Western American Bureau.
TOPEKA, Kan., June 7.—The States of Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas each has more than 100,000 members of the Klan, said a speaker at a meeting of more than 3000 Klansmen here. Illinois ranks first in membership, with more than 300,000 members. Ohio stands second and Iowa third. Even in New York, where 75 per cent of the population is said to be foreign born, we have more than 80,000 real men pledged to perpetuate the principles of Americanism established by our forefathers.

CLAN ALL-POWERFUL IN SCHOOL BALLOT

Western American Bureau.
CAMDEN, Ark., June 7.—The Camden Klan exerted its first election authority here, when two candidates endorsed by the organization for places on the board of Education were overwhelmingly elected at the annual school election. A. L. Morgan received 121 and O. E. Westfall 120. Seven candidates were defeated.

MASONIC ANALYST WONDER MAGAZINE

E. P. Ramsay Publishing
Opulent New Journal of Patriotic Progress.

OREGON MASONS and their friends now can boast of having, beyond dispute, the finest, most opulent and interesting/monthly magazine in all America, excepting only THE NEW AGE, devoted to the humanities of the Masonic program, to sterling Americanism and patriotic progress. The initial number, issued for June and now on sale, contains 48 pages with beautiful art covers, and every page is replete with interest, every article full of wisdom, information, inspiration and punch. It is the most dynamic Masonic magazine in the country. Either of several of the splendid articles and editorials is worth more than a year's subscription, which is only three dollars.

MASONIC ANALYST is owned, published and edited by Mr. E. P. Ramsay, a nationally known Mason and patriotic welfare worker. He deserves the solid support of all Masons, of course, and of The Klansmen—all true Americans.

The address is E. P. Ramsay, Suite 307, Consolidated Securities Building, Portland, Telephone Broadway 2994. Mr. Ramsay has kept the FAITH. Show your appreciation.

POWELL CALLS BIG MEETING JUNE 27

Western American Bureau.
SEATTLE, June 7.—L. I. Powell, King Kleagle, has issued invitations for all Klans, chartered and provisional, to attend a giant ceremonial at Seattle on the night of June 27. Preparations are being made for special trains from many points.

What's The Matter?

Out of forty-eight convicts sent to Leavenworth penitentiary last week, an actual count shows forty-five of them to profess the Catholic faith, one Protestant and two not affiliated with any church. If the Federal court would sit continuously, for two years, we would materially reduce the list of illegal voters and the Catholics would have a greatly reduced congregation, as former cardinals taken from here for some years past show that a heavy percentage of these criminals were of Catholic origin. This would indicate something faulty with the Pope's schools, if we can pass criticism on these things from the court records.

TULSA IN SPLENDID $200,000 BUILDING

Tulsa Klan No. 2, Realm of Oklahoma, has a new $200,000 Klavern. The building was financed by members of Tulsa Klan who purchased stock in the building association at $25 a share. The new Klavern will seat 3000 Klansmen and is located near the center of the Tulsa business district. The structure is of brick and steel finished in stucco. Offices of the Tulsa Klan have been moved to the new building.

THOUSANDS ROBED AT TOPEKA, KANSAS

The greatest open-air meeting of Klansmen in the history of Topeka Klan was staged at Cowles Field some days ago. As 3000 robed Klansmen sang "America" an airplane bearing a large fiery cross circled above their heads.

TAR AND FEATHERS AWAITING CULPRIT

Ku Klux Klan Klub Entertaining Their Shriners-Klansmen in D. C.

Western American Bureau.
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 7.—The Ku Klux Klan Klub is entertaining visiting Shriners-Klansmen, functioning with all sails wide open.

All brethren were warned not to get the Klux signals and the Shrine signs mixed up as Pones is not a Shriener and will think you are making fun of him.

An extra supply of tar and feathers has been laid in for the occasion, so any brother wishing anyone summarily punished may be accommodated without inconvenience.

How to Use the Off-an-On Tool

Lay the tire and rim flat on its side. Catch the hooks of the Off-an-on tool on one side of the rim. Hold the other hooks with the right hand and turn the lever until they catch the opposite side of the rim. When the hooks are in position, loosen the rim joint slightly with a screwdriver or hammer and turn the lever until the rim ends lap over each other about three inches.
Always adjust tool by turning lever so as to keep screw threads of both clamp pieces same distance in pipe.
Then lift out rim. The Off-an-on tool will hold the rim contracted while you change tubes.
To regulate the rim, turn the lever in the opposite direction until the ends of the threaded rods catch on the inside of the rim. Force the rim nearly into place, then hit inside of rim with a hammer and they will snap together. Don't try to force the rim ends past each other without tapping them with a hammer, or you might spring your rim.
It isn't necessary to have the tool exactly across the center of the rim. It works better away from center, nearer to the split.
To put a sprung rim on a wheel, place the Off-an-on tool across the rim where it is sprung, force it into shape, remove hooks from the tool and start the rim on the wheel. The tool will drop out as you shove the rim on.
