Town and County.

Recent rains have mixed up the dust in the roads again.

Salmon berries and strawberries are ripening.

A fine lot of riding and harness bridles at Kerr & Co's.

Mrs. Champlin who has been seriously ill is slowly recovering.

The Arcata arrived up last Thursday, and passed down Saturday evening.

Warm rains have prevailed during the past week, which were beneficial to growing crops.

Miss Cooper, of Coos county, commenced a term of school in the Elk River district yesterday.

Stages are now running every day, except Sundays, between Port Orford and Myrtle Point. See ad.

B. W. Dean and family, of Elk River, returned home yesterday from a few days visit in Port Orford.

Our old friend Wm. Gauntlett, Deputy Collector at Unalaska, will be relieved of his job, his successor having been appointed.

A full attendance of members is desired at the regular meeting of the Woodmen of the World next Saturday evening, it being election night.

Supervisor Pfisterer has commenced road repairing in this district. He has a big undertaking ahead of him, with very limited means at his command.

County Assessor Dean was interviewing the taxpayers of Port Orford yesterday. He was working down the coast, and will complete the assessment for the year before returning.

John B. Howey, an old bachelor resident of Gold Beach, made Port Orford his first visit last week. He is a pensioner, and was required to go to Bandon for an examination by Dr. Haydon.

Isam Walker drove a band of 300 head of stock cattle through Port Orford one day last week, en route to Humboldt county. He has made purchases all along the route, and expects his band to number 800 by the time he reaches the state line.

W. H. Peck, the mining operator, has purchased some valuable black sand mines in the Blanco district, from Prock, Farrier and Sheffer, and is making preparations for extensive mining operations. He has disposed of the Farris mine to an Illinois party, who is expected to arrive soon.

Some radical changes are being made in the programme of the Corbin City mill company. The projected railroad to Frankport has been abandoned, and a wharf is being constructed at or near the mouth of Mussel Creek. The company, it is stated, have withdrawn from the Elk River mill enterprise, but the mill will be built and operated by Mr. Adolphsen and others.

Owing to sickness of some of the parties who were to take part in the performance, the entertainment advertised for Saturday night did not occur. The ball, however was a success in every respect. There was a large attendance, and fine music was furnished by Messrs John Fitzhugh, A. B. Sabin and Ames Johnson. The supper provided by Mr. Champlin and Mrs. Dean was excellent, and was the subject of much praise. A number of the Corbin City people were in attendance.

Mr. Ellis received by last steamer, all the way from Cleveland, Ohio, two of the celebrated O. I. C. pigs, a breed that is attracting wide attention among hog raisers throughout the United States, being especially noted for their docility, exemption from disease, and great weight, instances being on record of hogs of this breed having attained a gross weight of 1,400 lbs. The two pigs cost Mr. Ellis an even $60, but they are beauties, and being the first of the kind ever brought to the county, he considers them well worth the money. Too little attention has been given the breeding of hogs, and many settlers begin to realize the necessity of introducing new blood.

Thomas Chapman, of Wedderburn, is in Port Orford.

Miss Smith, of Corbin City, and Miss Sybil Woodruff, of Euchre Creek, were attendants at the ball in Port Orford Saturday evening.

James Gibson, who was recently taken to the asylum from Gold Beach, in a violently insane condition, died a few days after his arrival at that institution.

We are informed that the members of the Dairyville brass band are making rapid progress, and will be prepared to supply excellent music at the celebration on the 4th of July.

The tug Katie Cook, Capt. Jas. Caughell, arrived up from Rogue River last evening after freight for R. D. Hume. County Treasurer Winsor, County Clerk Woodruff, and Chancy Woodruff constitute a part of her crew, who are enjoying shore leave.

Coast Mail: Tobe Cox who has been working the Smith Bros. gold mine in the Salmon Mountain district came in this week, bringing some very fine nuggets from the mine. Al and Levi Smith will go up soon and commence operations on a large scale.

A. B. Sabin, one of the prominent business men of Dairyville, spent a day or two in Port Orford, and assisted in supplying music for Saturday night's ball. Mr. Sabin has taken the agency for a patent wrought-iron box, for the safe-keeping of money and valuable papers, which is claimed to be absolutely fire-proof, it having undergone the most thorough tests. Every business house, and every family should provide against serious loss by procuring one of these boxes. Mr. Sabin expects to make a canvas of Coos and Curry.

Every settler in the Pistol River neighborhood endorse the sentiments expressed in Con McGeehin's trespass notice, and applaud his determination to protect the remnants of the once large band of elk which make their home on his premises. There are known to be small bands of elk in various parts of the county, and if they were left alone they would rapidly increase; but some hunters cannot resist the temptation to shoot an elk when opportunity offers, while there are a few who spend much time in hunting them, when they could be better employed. There is a small band of elk, mostly cows and calves, ranging in the thick woods between Elk River and Hubbards creek, but they are not left unmolested, and it is said that at least one has been killed very recently, while other parties are often out looking for them.

Coos Bay News.

The outlook for logging on the bay this summer is dull. Only a few camps are running, and a good many loggers are idle.

The laying of the keel for the new steamer, being built at the Marshfield shipyard, was completed Saturday.

A schooner of the same dimensions as the Repeat, a four-master, built in 1897, is under construction at North Bend.

The Alumni, the large four master lately launched at North Bend, will soon be ready to sail for South Africa with a cargo of lumber, should always be kept in the house for the following reasons:

FIRST—Because, if any member of the family has a hard cold, it will cure it.

SECOND—Because, if the children are delicate and sickly, it will make them strong and well.

THIRD—Because if the father or mother is losing flesh and becoming thin and emaciated, it will build them up and give them flesh and strength.

FOURTH—Because it is the standard remedy in all throat and lung affections.

No household should be without it. It can be taken in summer as well as in winter.

The Oldest Inhabitant.

EDITOR TRIBUNE:—Under the caption, "Oldest Inhabitant of Curry Co.," the Sunday Oregonian of May 12, reproduces a photograph of Judge Riley, the picture bearing not the faintest resemblance of Judge Riley, that we all know. His age is given at 74 years. There are several men in the county very much older than he, some of whom are old enough to be his father. Jake Summers, one of the heroes of Battle Rock, and who has resided in Curry county for more than fifty years, is, it is said, past 90. Then there is Hon. T. W. Crook, who was a commissioned officer in our early Indian wars, who is much older than Judge Riley, he having passed the 86th milestone on his way to the happy beyond. Mr. George Dart, of Port Orford, is many, many years the senior of Judge Riley, if the latter is only 74. Yours for correct local history.

J. H. UPTON.

J. H. Upton is perfectly correct in his "oldest inhabitant" remarks, and if the Oregonian is habitually as unreliable in its presentations of "oldest inhabitant" sketches, its efforts in this direction will certainly be of little value. Judge Riley is not the oldest inhabitant of Curry county, either as regards age or number of years residence in the county. There are probably a dozen citizens of Curry that have attained a greater age than he, and there are at least half that number who have resided in Curry county a longer period than he. Judge Riley came to Curry county to reside in 1854. Ralph (Jake) Summers came in 1851; Ran Tichenor came in 1851, a short time after Summers; A. H. Thrift, and we think, Wm. S. Winsor, came in 1852; E. H. Meservey came in 1853. Judge Riley, however, has held office for a greater number of years than any man in the county, if not in the State, having first been appointed Sheriff of Curry county in 1856, and having served in some official capacity almost continuously ever since, covering a period of 45 years. And he has made as fine an official as could be wished for, as witness his continued re-election without a single defeat. He has always had, still has his critics, but he has always enjoyed, and in his old age continues to retain the confidence and esteem of the great majority, even his political opponents placing every confidence in his honor and integrity, and his ability to correctly interpret the laws of the state, of which few attorneys have a better knowledge. Judge Riley is one of the respected pioneers, who has rendered the county noble service. Always found to be an efficient officer, a good neighbor, an obliging friend, and a substantial citizen. And he can refer with pride to the fact that he has never in his life voluntarily tasted intoxicating liquor of any kind whatever, and the only time was when it was administered to him to relieve suffering. Few of the old pioneers can say as much.

Trespass Notice.

Notice is hereby given to all whom it may concern, not to enter upon or trespass in any manner for the purpose of hunting with guns or dogs upon the premises of Con McGeehin, or the Max Langevin place, or the John McGeehin place, which I have rented. It being well known in this section of country that there is a small band of elk running on my place, and that I have tried to protect them, and would not kill one myself, I do not propose to keep quiet when I know they are being killed right under my nose by outsiders, and but a few days ago. Therefore I notify friends or foes alike, that I will prosecute any and all persons killing deer, elk or grouse on my premises, and I mean business.
