Town and County

Wool Sacks and Twine at Mac-terson's.

Best quality of Separator Oil can be had at Cheever's.

The roads are highly improving.
The supervisors are getting in some good work.

Four four-horse teams and a five mule team are now hauling lumber from the Elk River mill.

A select stock of Wall Paper at Mrs. H. Neely's; also sample books to select samples from not in stock.

Rev. Mr. Gillespie will hold services at the Church in Port Orford next Sunday, morning and evening.

John Jensen and family, of Wedderburn, are visiting friends and relatives at Denmark and Langlois.

A. H. Moore came up from Rogue River the first of the week, with a four-horse team, and is hauling lumber from the Elk river mill.

On or about August 10th the W.
O. W. of this county contemplate giving a grand rally, for the benefit of the lodge. Preparations are now in progress.

Miss Bertha Sutton having resigned her position in the TRIBUNE office in order to fill another engagement, James H. Sutton, has become our able assistant.

Andrew Olsen arrived in town last evening en route to Rogue River. Andrew has been rambling around a lot during the past year, but he is hale and hearty, and jolly as ever.

Dr. J. W. Strange, who is now at Port Orford, will finish up his work here and go to Wedderburn next Saturday, and be there all of next week. Upon his return he will stop a day or so at Euchre creek.

I am carrying a full line of extras for the Osborne Mower this season. So look to your mowers, and get them in shape in time, for your haying is near at hand. E.
H. Cheever, Langlois Hardware store.

Read the grand ball attachment to the Fourth of July ad in this issue. The Woodmen's balls heretofore have been the occasion of much enjoyment, and this one will be no exception. A grand time is promised.

TIMBER MEN—I am prepared to furnish Blue Prints on short notice of any Township recorded in the U. S. Land Office at Roseburg, Oregon; price 50 cents each. Your business before the land office solicited. T. T. PARKER, Attorney at law, Roseburg, Oregon.

We regret that our Washington letter, from our old friend Clark is unavoidably crowded out. Mr.
Clark is an old Oregonian and his letters are always instructive as well as interesting, and we hope he will continue to favor the TRIBUNE.

A. B. Carey, began hauling lumber from the Elk river mill to the wharf, with his big five-mule team, and the way he is rolling in the lumber is a caution. Ace has one of the finest teams in the county, and no one knows how to handle them better than he.

Road Supervisor, F. Pfisterer, is now ready to improve the road south of Port Orford, but lacks men to do the work. He would like to have a few good men to work for him from now until June 28, and will pay at the rate of 25 cents an hour, in cash.

We were struck by a cyclone of homestead and timber land notices this week, which coming so suddenly, almost took our breath away. As they arrived after we had our outside printed, we are forced to curtail our news matter, but hope we will get hit again the same way.

Ames S. Johnston, who has so long and satisfactorily filled the position of teacher in this district, having some weeks ago accepted the position of book-keeper and salesman in Kerr & Co's store, no teacher has yet been employed for the ensuing year, and none of the county teachers have applied for the school. No district in the county has ever employed a teacher continuously for so long a time as Mr.
Johnston has been employed here.
No teacher has had greater success in the advancement of his pupils, nor has any teacher been more successful in gaining and retaining the friendship and esteem of parents and children.

Last Saturday evening the W. O.
W. of this camp met in regular session and had an enjoyable time, Marshfield, Coquille City and Roseburg camps being represented. After the lodge a fine lunch was served at Mr. Neygren's, which was highly appreciated by all. The order in this county is steadily on the increase. Next regular meeting June 28th.

At the school meeting in Port Orford last Monday, Nels Neygren being chairman and Ed. Marsters clerk, E. W. Jensen was elected director for the term of three years, and A. S. Johnston clerk for one year. There was no expression of choice for teacher, and the matter was left in the hands of the directors. The directors were authorized to have the school house and furniture insured.

Mr. E. W. Jensen, our newly elected J. P., has furnished a cozy office over W. T. Kerr & Co's store, and is ready to do a general insurance business, for the German American and other strong insurance companies for which he is resident agent. Mr. Jensen is also an experienced photographer, and is prepared to take any kind of photos at reasonable rates. This is the time of year for traveling photographers to make their appearance in our midst, but when the people have patronage to bestow, they should give it to him who is one of us rather than to one who is here only for what there is in sight.

Married—In Port Orford, Oregon, on June 11, 1902, by Justice C. W.
Zumwalt, Mr. John R. Miller, and Miss Belle Nordberg, both of Port Orford. The bride is one of Port Orford's fairest and most accomplished young ladies, while the groom is one of the enterprising and successful young business men of the county. THE TRIBUNE was remembered with a share of nice cake, and join with the numerous friends of the happy young couple in wishing them a prosperous and happy life.
Mr. and Mrs. Miller departed for Rogue River on the morning of the 12th, where they will remain for several days.

CARD OF THANKS.—On behalf of my family and myself I wish, through the columns of the TRIB-UNE, to express our deep sense of gratitude to the employees of the Elk River mill for their noble efforts in behalf of my family during my absence, and also for the generous assistance tendered to us by said employees and residents of Port Orford and vicinity—and last, but not least, to all the ladies who have been untiring in their endeavors to assist. And I trust, if the occasion should arise whereby I can show my appreciation, that I will not be found wanting. Respectfully, A. J. MARSH.

There has been quite a serious time out on Elk River during the week. Miss Bossen the teacher fell, striking her neck across a pail, and it is asserted, actually dislocated her neck. The dislocation could be plainly seen, and for a time she was thought to be dead. Then, suddenly making a struggle her neck was thrown in place with a thud that was plainly heard, and she slowly recovered, but has since suffered severely from the effects. Mike Limpach had the misfortune to get his finger cut off by a saw while working in the mill. Al. Marsh was seriously ill for a time, but is recovering. Miss Kate McKenzie met with a slight accident while visiting at Coonville, but it can be darned.
Mrs. Keller had a very serious spell from heart failure; the doctor was sent for, but being absent Mr. Leneve started out to render what assistance he could. He was going as fast as the horse could carry him his saddle turned and he was thrown violently to the ground, receiving severe cuts and bruises about the face and head. We learn that Mrs.
Lane is also quite sick.

All Humors

Are impure matters which the skin, liver, kidneys and other organs can not take care of without help, there is such an accumulation of them.

They litter the whole system.
Pimples, boils, eczema and other eruptions, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, bilious turns, fits of indigestion, dull headaches and many other troubles are due to them.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills their effects, strengthen, tone and invigorate the whole system.

"I had salt rheum on my hands so that I could not work. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla its use till the sores disappeared." Mrs.
